MISFITS
 By F. P. Nutting

Let the great American heart beat as one as we uphold the honor of our country and pierce the armor of the Kaiser, strained by greed and militarism.

Democracy to the front. All over the world shall the people rule.

Thos. A. Edison, the world's greatest genius, has been awake day and night seeking new things for meeting the attacks of submarines and other varmints that prey ruthlessly on innocent people.

Portland is throbbing with patriotism.

Men strong for peace are now as strong for teaching Germany a lesson full of shrapnel.

Just after the war began, I gave a little jingle that began:
 "War is hell,
 And who can tell
 Who'll see the because of it."

Just now the people of this country have made up their minds emphatically.

Portland is full of Dodges—in crossing streets without being hit; also Fords, Packards, Etc.

Store windows have been glorious with Easter displays.

Some old Albanyans met: Hon. John S. Smith, a genial fellow revenue man; S. N. Steele, Geo. Prichard, Frank Toevers, Carl Thuneman, Lee Payne, Geo. Nicholls, Mr. and Mrs. Will White, Mrs. Frances French Williams, Mrs. Wayman and Jasper Wayman, Harry Day, Will and Frank Reiner, D. W. Wakefield, Louis Zimmerman, Dickey, Prof. Hayes, anticipate striking others on almost any corner.
