SECRETARY LANSING HOLDS THE LONG DISTANT RECORD

Washington, April 10.—Secretary of State Lansing holds the world's long distance ambidexterity record. That is, he claims it. But Secretary Baker claims it, too. The evidence is here submitted for public decision.

Secretary Lansing gave an exhibition of handling diplomatic correspondence with one hand and dashing off enticing profiles of charming Gibson girls with the other, smoking a pipe the while.

Secretary Baker signed army officers' commissions with one hand, handed them to a messenger with the other, listened to his secretary read the day's accumulation of mail and dictated replies, all at the same time, smoking a pipe the while. The race is neck and neck.

GET THE HABIT

A comprehensive Clean Streets campaign is being pursued in this city thru the agency of the civic improvement league and representatives of the City, and the street cleaning department in regard to proper receptacles for waste, the appearance of streets and sidewalks, the overloading of vehicles transporting material, and untidy habits in the use of the highways.

Attention has been called to the city ordinance at various times in the city papers, which for bids anyone to let fall, spill, or dump any ashes, dirt, rubbish or garbage from any cart, wagon, or vehicle upon the public highways of the city, and warning persons to not cast or place in the streets or on the footways, or into the vestibules or yards, of any dwellings or other buildings, hand bills, circulars or waste paper, banana or orange peelings, store sweepings and peanut shells. The representatives of the City and street cleaning department urge the people to avoid error—know the law; avoid the penalty—obey the law, keep our city clean. Be a Clean-Up Booster.

ONION FAMINE MAKES SOME PEOPLE SMILE

Portland, Ore., April 9.—Weep no more, my lady.

Onions are almost off the market. So small is the amount of the year producing vegetable on the markets of the northwest it is almost impossible to secure a quotation on them. Practically no regular size onions are available, and the country is stripped. So, no more steaks smothered in onions, at least not until a carload now on its way here from Texas arrives.

CHURCH PEOPLE PAY RESPECT TO FLAG

(Contributed)

The Evangelical people wished to show their patriotism at this crisis in the American nation and did so in a very effective way. After a splendid Easter program rendered by the Young People's Alliance on Sunday evening, a large flag measuring about ten by fifteen feet, was raised and curtains drawn back revealing the floating flag. While the flag remained

"Aleta" Artistic Dancer with Alexander at Globe

Alexander is the attraction at the Globe theatre for one night only Sunday April the 15th. Alexander and company is the only high class mystery show appearing at the largest playhouses in the United States today. Being a John Cort attraction Alexander is playing but one night in Albany en route to fill engagements at the Hilig theatre, Portland, and Alhambra theatre, Seattle, in which cities he played last year to capacity houses for four and three weeks. There has never been staged a show so wholly mysterious and awe-inspiring as the Alexander attraction. The most learned men and intellectual men in the United States concede that Alexander is a brain marvel and the performance an occult phenomenon. Any one attending the performance will leave the theatre in a state of perplexing opinion, and will have witnessed a performance that leaves not a doubt that there is something new in the world in the form of black magic and Hindu power, the while having seen a performance that is entertaining and thoroughly enjoyable.
