Taylor is out of the city and is not expected to return for several days.

Loss of School—
County School Superintendent Ida M. Cummings is in Lacombe today attending the closing exercises of the school at that place. Friday she will attend similar exercises at Sand Ridge school, and in the meantime she will visit the schools at Lebanon, Waterloo, Sodaville and other places in that part of the county.

Suit to Foreclose—
Suit to recover $1200 given on a note Nov. 20, 1913, was begun today in Dept. No. 2 of the Circuit Court by Edward Myers against T. C. Case and Herbert A. Falter.

Joined the Marines—
Charles McCoy, who is occupying a homestead near Vida, Lane county, has joined the U. S. Marines and is in Portland today taking his examinations. He expects to start for California tonight. He is a son of Mrs. Clara McCoy of this city.

Newlyweds Home—
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thom returned home from Seattle last evening and now they are located in their home at 1150 West Twelfth street. Last night Mr. Thom's brother Knights of Pythias played a real mean joke on him. Real mean is right. A squad headed by Edward F. Bailey proceeded to the Thom residence and forcibly removed the blushing groom to the lodge meeting. There he was decked in the garb of Mephisto and forced to buy the ice cream for the crowd. Mr. Thom is Prelate of Laurel Lodge No. 7, and is one of the most popular members of the lodge.

Home From Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Anderson returned yesterday from their wedding trip to Seattle and other points north.

Missionary Will Lecture—
Rev. S. B. Casberg, a missionary from India, who with his wife is making a trip through the Northwest, will lecture and show stereoscopic views at the Lakeview church eight miles East of this city and three miles from Crabtree, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The lecture promises to be interesting and all are invited to attend.

Pipe Organ Recital—
An organ recital will be given next Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church at 4 o'clock, by Lural Burggraf, pupil of Mrs. S. C. Worrell, assisted by Miss Jessie Paynter (soprano) and Davis Leininger, who will play the harp. The program will be announced later.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank the many friends for their kindness to us during the illness of our dear boy and for the beautiful floral offerings.

CITY NEWS

Went to Hillsboro—

Robert Marsh and Jack Colwell left this noon for Hillsboro, where they were called on account of the serious illness of Edwin Hughes, a former Albany boy, who has pneumonia.

Paid to Advertise—

An example of quick results obtained by using the Democrat's Classified advertising columns, is told by Griff King, who last week inserted a three-line ad in this paper for a house to rent. Within an hour after the paper had gone to press the house was rented and Mr. King had received nine replies to his ad.

Benton Educator Visits—

Miss Sadie A. Mason, popular teacher of the school in Big Elk community, Benton county, is visiting

Albany friends and relatives for a few weeks.

Visiting Parents—

A. A. Garrett, a prominent mining man of Leadville, Colorado, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett of this city.

Dr. Lee Will Speak—

Dr. W. H. Lee has been invited to deliver an address on social hygiene at Rickreall Wednesday evening. Dr. Lee is one of the speakers of the state society on social hygiene.

Joins U. S. Navy—

Oscar W. Doble, a former student of Albany College, passed through Albany last night on his way to Frisco where he will join the United States Navy. Mr. Doble left the college about a week ago to visit with his parents in Irrigan, Oregon, prior to assuming his duties in the navy.
