

UNION MADE Union-A-alls

WE wish to call the special attention of our Farmer friends to this splendid work suit—the most comfortable, convenient and best garment of its kind ever manufactured. It's all in one piece, a great improvement over the old fashioned overalls and separate jumper—less expensive too; besides, it looks better, fits better, wears better. No binding suspender straps, no double thickness at the waist, no loose tails to catch in things.

Wear Lee Union-A-alls—Reduce the High Cost of Living!

They are made in Children's sizes, too. Such perfect play suits! Every mother will appreciate the saving made possible by Lee Union-A-alls for "kiddies."

Let us fit Father and Son in these fine new garments—you'll thank us for calling your attention to Lee Union-A-alls.

CITY NEWS

What! Harry, Drunk Again?

Clarence Hyland, of Corvallis, imbibed too freely Sunday of Hostetter's Bitters and was gathered in by Chief of Police Catlin's protecting arms and given free lodging in the city coop. This morning he pleaded guilty before Judge L. G. Lewelling, was fined $15 and costs, but being without either the $15 or the costs he was returned to the jail and the tender mercies of the chief. Hyland is an old offender, having been a guest of the city four or five times on previous occasions.

Leaving for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Parker expect to leave next week for San Francisco where they will make their future home.

Weather Report.

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 39 and 62 degrees. The river rose to 8.5 feet and the rainfall was 0.5 inches.

Barrett at Medford.

State Deputy Barrett of the Knights of Columbus left Sunday for Medford, where he is attending to business connected with the order. He will return to Albany the latter part of the week.

Mrs. White Here.

Mrs. O. V. White, wife of Professor White of Seio, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schmitt.

Paulhamus Representative Here.

Mr. Nordlinger, personal representative of W. H. Paulhamus, was in Albany yesterday obtaining a line on the progress which is being made by the committee in charge of the work of pledging the growers to provide sufficient produce for the new cannery.

Mrs. Hunt Returns.

Mrs. Anna Flinn Hunt has returned to Portland after a two weeks' visit at the home of her sisters, Mrs. A. C. Schmitt and Mrs. W. A. Barrett.

Bank Sounds Keynote.

In a printed appeal to its customers which occupies a prominent place in the interior of the building the First National Bank calls upon its customers to cultivate every acre of land available and upon its town depositors to put in garden on every vacant lot. War economy is also urged by the bank officials.

Judge P. R. Kelly returned to Salem this morning to continue court in the Marion County Circuit Court.

Al. Sternberg went to Eugene on business this morning.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

At the meeting of the ministerial association held yesterday the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved that we demand of our representatives in Congress, that they use their influence in securing the passage of such laws as will protect the morals of our boys in the service of their country during war.

2. Resolved, that it be the sense of this meeting that the churches here represented shall cooperate thru the Y. M. C. A. associations in conducting religious work for our soldier boys in state and federal mobilization camps.

Miss N. E. Lundy, of Salem, was an Albany visitor yesterday.
