An interesting event of the week was the meeting of the Monday club, which was held at the Hotel Albany when Prof. Kent, Prof. Hodge and Prof. Madison were hosts. The paper on "Fertility of the Willamette Valley Soils," given by Mr. P. A. Young, was the main feature of the evening and was extremely appreciated. Several excellent discussions followed and the pleasures of the evening were rounded out at a late hour when a dainty collation was served.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ira Briggs, who left Tuesday morning for their home in Erie, Pa., after spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, a delightful dinner party was presided over by Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hodges, on Monday evening of this week. Pink carnations centered the prettily appointed table and added to the color scheme of pink. Dainty place cards marked covers laid for Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wieder, Dr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Gipe, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wieder, Dr. and Mrs. Hodges, Miss Eula Hand and Miss Lela Watson waited on the table.

With the rooms brightly decked in spring wild flowers, the home of Mrs. Fred Fortmiller was the scene yesterday afternoon for a meeting of the Kym Tux Club. The hours were passed pleasantly in a social way and later an elaborate lunch was served.

Following the dance at the Armory last night, a charming little after-dance supper was given at the home of Miss Lucile Hunt, when she and Miss Alice Holbrook were hostesses. The dainty color scheme of pink and white predominated with sweet peas decking the table, where a delicious three-course supper was served. The guests for this affair were the Misses Eleanor Bruce, Linnie Conner, Lucile Hunt, Alice Holbrook, and Messrs Francis Finerman, David Weider, Flavius West, Millard Webster, Murrel Hunt.

Among the week's most enjoyable affairs was the surprise party for which Mrs. Murray Marshall was the motif, celebrating her birthday on Tuesday evening of his week. A large number of relatives came in to pass a social hour and in this way surprising Mrs. Marshall, and enjoyed the evening. The diversion was five hundred and later a sumptuous repast completed the evening.

On Tuesday evening the Double Eight club met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Lindgren where they passed a most enjoyable time. "500" was the evening's diversion, with Mrs. Grant Pirtle and Mr. D. Ridder gaining high scores. The rooms were attractively decked with spring flowers, daffodils predominating. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pate were hosts to the Monday Covered Dish Club, this week. The prettily decked table was centered by a large bouquet of spring blossoms. Mr. and Grant Pirtle and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Watson were complimented guests. The remainder of the evening was spent in Five Hundred.

Mrs. Willard L. Marks was of the week's delighted hostesses when she entertained the members of the Priscilla Club at her home, Thursday afternoon. Fancy work took up the time and a delicious lunch made a pleasant closing. Mrs. C. L. Monson, Mrs. Alton Coates and Mrs. A. Gould were additional guests for the afternoon.

On Friday afternoon of last week, the Kensington Club held a farewell meeting, honoring Mrs. R. A. Wilson, who left town last week. The hospitality of Mrs. J. F. Lau was extended at his time, when the members met at her home. A Covered Dish lunch was served, and a pleasant social time passed.

On Tuesday evening the Twilight Club was entertained by Miss Nellie Pate. Miss Nathiel Donica and Miss Marcelle Austin assisted the hostess in serving a delicious supper. Complimented guests for the evening were Mrs. Virginia Goff, Miss Vera Tracy and Mrs. F. C. Pate.

The Art Club met this week with Mrs. I. M. Doughton. The afternoon's time was spent in basket-making and later completed with a choicest lunch.

An unusually pleasant meeting of the Hazelwood Club was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Curry. During the afternoon passed in fancy work, a piano solo was rendered by Miss Emma Curry and Mrs. Heister sang a solo. To enjoy the afternoon, present were the Mesdames Will, Anderson, J. Anderson, Henry Springer, Nicolas Springer, Thos. Moores, D. B. Spear, Ad Maxwell, Thos. Burton, Chas. Leonard, William Van Nuden. Complimented guests were Mrs. M. J. Bell and Mrs. Heister.

The O. D. O. Club met Thursday with Mrs. A. C. Baker as hostess. The rooms were aglow being decorated with a profusion of daffodils. The afternoon's diversion was fancy work, and following this a delicious repast was served. During the afternoon Mrs. William Morris gave an excellent recitation. Those who came in to spend the afternoon as additional guests were Mrs. Thacher and Mrs. Will Morris.

Mrs. Clyde E. Williamson was hostess this week to the Krowledeen Club when it met at her home of Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Edna Bartlett was taken into the club as a new member. Choice refreshments brought the afternoon to a close.

Miss Lois Nebergall was hostess last night to the jolly crowd composing the Club of Eternal Questioners. A social evening was brought to a close with an elaborate lunch.

Miss Marybelle Reinhart of Salem, spent a few days in Albany this week as the house guests of Miss Marciel Austin.

Mrs. Frank M. Powell gave a recital at Crabtree on Friday of this week. Accompanying her were several of her pupils to take part in the program.

One of the week's jolliest parties was the one for which Master John Pollak was host on Friday evening. An elaborate dinner served picnic style, in baskets was the first joy of the evening and later the crowd was taken to pay a visit to the movies. On the gaily decked table the red, white and blue color scheme was kept, with flags and toy balloons, as favors, giving a patriotic touch. About fifteen friends were invited to be present at that time. They were Kermet Brandeberry, Spencer Sanders, J. Brandeberry, Bob Swanson, Ralph Swanson, Karl Hughston, Lawrence Schmitt, Robert Barrett, Jerald Crawford, John Cusick, Edward Fisher, Edward Fortmiller, John Pollak and Bobbie Pollak.

The Rural Ladies Club met with Mrs. U. G. Smith on Thursday afternoon. The members present included the Mesdames Ralston, School, Allen, Barber, Altmatt, Cochran, Pike and son, Fisher, Shrode and daughter, Mervyle Looney and son, and the Misses Mildren Allen, Ora Jordan, Lucy Ashton, Mary Looney.

Miss Margarette Hayes was hostess Thursday evening when a jolly crowd met and spent the evening with her. Music and cards made up the evening's diversions and these were brot to a close when an elaborate collation was served.

On Friday evening of last week Miss Hazel Smith was hostess to a jolly crowd at her home in "Bryant Park."

The rooms were charmingly decorated in spring flowers and Crepe paper festoons, the color scheme being pink and yellow.

The evening was spent playing novel games. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour by Eva Thacher, Hazel Smith, Louis Burnett, and Rolland Allen.

Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hudkins, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McLagan, Misses Emily, Cora, Hattie and Lillie Uhrhammer, Helen Gibson, Louise Dannels, Bernita Tinkle, Eva Thacker, (Harrisburg), Thelma Burnett, Opal Howard, Armol Smith, Grace Austin, Margery Firchau, Eva May, La Vern Hofflich, Lois Nebergall, Mildred Allen, Emmadine

Curry, Messrs Bob, Otto and Frank Uhrhammer, Frank Heiser, Fred Slate, Bob McCleary, Louis Burnett, Rolland Allen, Vern (Smith), Otto Smith, Kenneth Cune, Kenneth Burnett, Sam Burch, Edward Durkee, Herschell Payne, Clarence Bruckman.

One of the most delightful and successful ten-cent teas, that the Baptist Ladies Aid has given, was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Blount and Miss Mary Blount, on East Sixth street. The rooms were most artistically decorated with the flowers of the season—hyacinths, narcissus, and potted ferns and lillies being used in profusion. While about eighty ladies enjoyed the afternoon indoors, with fancy work, number of their children spent the happy hours on the lawn. Later in the afternoon, a very interesting program was given Miss Bertha Worrell and Mrs. Ronald Woodruff sang a duet. Mesdames Young and Burkhardt played a duet, Mrs. Alan Banks gave a reading, Little Vena Way spoke, and the little Mesdames Vena and Dorothy Way, Helen Dugan, Wilma Baltimore, and Altha Green gave a motion picture, after which elaborate refreshments were served. Eight dollars was taken in at the tea, which will go to swell the Ladies Aid Fund.

Attractive centers about the May Day festival which will be held on the college campus, Tuesday afternoon of next week. Miss Marion Stanford, a very popular and charming girl of Albany College, was chosen to be May Queen and her attendants will be the Misses Ibbie Green, Margaret Gibson, Georgia Thompson and Bertha McCormack. The grounds will be decked in a gala attire for the occasion and a large crowd is expected to attend the exercises, which will begin at four o'clock. Several clever stunts and fancy May Pole dancing will be features, the training for which has been in the hands of Miss Mann, Miss Nelson McDonald, Miss Edna Metcalf, Mrs. McNeal, and Mr. McDonald.

Following the exercises a cafeteria lunch will be served by the college girls.

The Sophomore class of Albany College took advantage of the fair weather Friday morning and enjoyed an early breakfast on the bank of the Willamette. Starting at six o'clock they found a suitable spot, and there around a big camp fire prepared and ate breakfast.

The B-Sharp Club met yesterday with Mrs. Winnifred Worrell and enjoyed a very interesting time. Prof. T. S. Roberts of Salem, the blind pianist, was a distinguished guest, and gave several delightful selections. Prof. Roberts is the organist for the Methodist church.

Roll call was responded to with quotations from celebrated musicians. An interesting program in which Guy Buttler, Lural Burgraff, Muriel Blume and Olga Jackson took part, was followed by dainty refreshments served by Misses Olga Jackson and Uldine Prochnow. As additional guests Mrs. W. H. Crawford, Mrs. J. J. Collins, Mrs. O. H. Blume, Mrs. E. McKinney and Prof. Roberts were present.

Miss Iona Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Irvine, was united in marriage to Mr. Oscar E. Ferguson of Kansas City, Mo., the wedding taking place in that city. Mr. Ferguson recently taught school in Albany and Miss Irvine was a resident of this city where she left a large circle of friends. They will make their home in Kansas City.

Mrs. Albert Reise was hostess to the Sans Souci Club when it met at her home on Thursday afternoon of this week and passed a jolly social afternoon.

A pleasant gathering was one at the home of Miss Hazel Hofflich on Friday afternoon when the members of the Y. G. S. Club were entertained there. A delicious lunch followed the pleasures of the afternoon, spent in games. Miss Mildred Moore and Miss Harriet Wilson were additional guests.

The Ladies Aid of the First Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Warner, 1125 East First street. Mrs. E. B. Cornett was elected vice president to succeed Mrs. Grif King who is moving to Portland shortly.

After the business session the ladies enjoyed a dainty lunch interspersed with much merry conversation, and all voted the afternoon most pleasantly spent. The next meeting will be May 9th, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gilmour of North Albany. All are cordially invited.

MILLERSBURG

The Wednesday Embroidery Club met at the home of Mrs. W. E. Fisher on April 25th, with twenty-members present and seven visitors. After an hour spent in needle craft and lively conversation, the guests were entertained by vocal and instrumental music by Misses Dorothy Clark and Lucile Reynolds. Also violin and piano selections by Raymond Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beeson. Very dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the genial hostess.

Last Saturday evening the boys of the Lone Pipe Club entertained in honor of the girls of the B. F. C. of Grace Presbyterian church, in their new club house at East Sixth and Pennywinkle. Games, music and delicious refreshments were features of the evening heartily enjoyed by the members of both clubs present including their Sunday School teachers, Mrs. I. G. Knotts and Mr. Ralph Knotts. At this time the B. F. C. was officially given the future use of the club house, which was most appreciatively accepted.

The Right Way to Care for the Baby

Plenty of sleep, regular hours for feeding, and lots of fresh air! These are the things every baby needs. In doing all you can to help your baby build a healthful body, you will want to consider most carefully the fresh air item. The right carriage is important. Some of these things you will want in a carriage for your baby will be an adjustable hood, a roomy carriage body, durable upholstery that will not easily soil, light, flexible springs, and rubber-tired wheels that sit solidly on the axles. And these are all features of the Heywood-Wakefield carriage. It is the carriage for the new out-of-door baby. We have on exhibition some very attractive new models of these handsome baby carriages which we would like to show you.
