Probably the most elaborate affair of the week was the supper party at which the members of Artercraft Club entertained their husbands, on Thursday evening. The Weaver home on 824 Washington street, aglow with wild flowers all in keeping with the bright color scheme of yellow, was the scene of this affair. Twenty guests surrounded the table which was also decked in yellow wild flowers. Later four tables of "500" were placed about the rooms. Those who were present were the Messrs. and Mesdames, Frank Meister, William Hofflich, D. Bussard, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hodges, Mark Bussard, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Gipe, Howet, J. D. Summers, S. E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Weaver.

A charming little dinner party was presided over on Tuesday evening by Mrs. H. M. Palmer, when she entertained in honor of her house guest Miss Olive Carlton of Klamath Falls. Pretty decorations were used on the table in keeping with May Day idea, a large basket of pink roses centering the table and miniature May baskets added a dainty effect. Place cards marked places for the Misses Carlton, Lulu Heist, Kate Allen, Alice Allen, Ella Meade, Mae Lewis and Mrs. Palmer. Music and conversation completed the enjoyable evening.

Mrs. H. R. Worth was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the Friday Bridge Club. Pink carnations made up the attractive adornment for the table where a lunch was served, keeping the color scheme of pink and white. Mrs. J. D. Summers, Mrs. Mark Montgomery, Mrs. L. I. Swan and Mrs. W. V. Merrill were guests complimented at this time.

The members of the Thursday Afternoon Study Club met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Pugh, where they passed the afternoon in an enjoyable way. In response to roll call current events were given and a short business session was followed by an excellent paper on "The Story of the Danube," by Mrs. Victor Oliver. A light repast completed the afternoon.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. William Meyer was a delightful hostess, when the members of the Coterie Club met at her home and spent the afternoon in a pleasant social manner. A dainty repast was the closing feature of this affair. Mrs. Delos Foster and Mrs. Louis Osborne were additional guests at this time.

Mrs. A. L. Ramsey was hostess on Thursday afternoon to the Needle-Craft Club when it met at her home near Jefferson. About the rooms pretty spring blossoms were arranged in decoration. A pleasant social afternoon was passed in fancy work and later refreshments were served by the hostess. As complimented guests Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Forgy passed the afternoon.

Following the May Day exercises the students of Albany College enjoyed a picnic along the bank of the Willamette river, on Tuesday evening. A big bonfire and marshmallow roasting were the main features of the evening, and at a late hour the crowd returned home.

The home of Mrs. M. Bussard, prettily decorated in quantities of Oregon grape and wild flowers, was the scene of a very pleasant meeting of the Art Craft Club, when it met on Wednesday afternoon. The time passed quickly in needle work and conversation and later a delicious lunch rounded out the afternoon. Miss Olive Cox and Miss Alice Lawrence assisted the hostess in serving. As complimented guests Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Earl Caulfield and Mrs. Walton Worrell. Several vocal solos were enjoyed before the guests dispersed for the afternoon.

The hospitality of Mrs. G. E. Riggs, was extended toward the members of the Monday Bridge Club, when they met at her home this week. A lunch was served closing the afternoon which was taken up with Bridge. Mrs. R. A. B. Veal was invited as an additional guest.

The Monday Covered Dish Club will meet tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bussard. Five hundred will fill out the evening's hours after a delicious feed has been served.

Mrs. L. G. Lewelling entertained the members of the Shakespeare Club at her hospitable home, on Thursday of this week. At a business meeting election of officers was held and resulted as follows: Mrs. William Burkhardt, president; Mrs. L. E. Hamilton, vice president; Mrs. Frank Watson, secretary; Mrs. F. E. Livingood, treasurer.

Among the jolliest of the week's affairs, was the surprise party given Thursday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirk, at their home. The evening's time was passed in a most pleasant manner until a late hour, when a delicious lunch was served by the friends who were hostesses at this time. Five Hundred was the pass time and was played at five tables.

On Thursday afternoon the H. D. W. Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Griff King, spending the afternoon in a social manner. A profusion of spring blossoms graced the rooms where the guests were assembled. Miss Ruth Rawlings and Miss Fay King assisted the hostess in serving a lunch. Complimented guests included Mrs. H. A. Leininger, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. W. Worrell, Mrs. W. R. Hand.

On Thursday afternoon of this week, Mrs. Morris Dowd was hostess to the S. S. S. Club when it met at her home in Sunrise. Fancy work and conversation, completed with refreshments, made the afternoon pass pleasantly. The personnel of the club who were present were Mrs. B. S. Stevens, Mrs. P. Harper, Mrs. John Seipp, Mrs. J. D. Isom, Mrs. P. B. Phipps, Mrs. L. B. Weaver, Mrs. C. Christianson, Mrs. P. H. Humphrey, Mrs. A. J. Steele, Mrs. W. Morgan, Mrs. P. Tellefson, Mrs. Church, Mrs. Homer Dowd, Mrs. Morris Dowd, Miss Esther Tellefson and Miss Lillian Morgan.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage on Saturday evening of last week when Miss Edna May Hughes and Mr. William R. Dawson were united in marriage. Miss Hughes is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes of this city. Dr. George H. Young performed the ceremony using the ring service.

The many friends of the young couple were completely surprised. The only persons present were Mrs. Jack Barrett, sister of Mr. Dawson, and Miss Eva Hughes and George the ceremony the couple left for Eugene from where they went to Springfield to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson are well known and popular young people of Albany and are taking with them the best wishes of many friends.

"A Dinner in Darkest Africa," was an event of Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Banks in honor of Mr. Banks' birthday. The place cards were smiling darkie babies that spoke of the Congo Volenti, Africa, where Mr. Banks was born. The center piece was an African hut and smiling from over the table were these cunning little "nigger" dolls. Those seated at the table were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burkhardt, Mrs. Adeline Thompson, Miss Cissie Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Banks.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday noon, April 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Shrode, when their daughter, Jamie, and Albert E. Warnock were united in marriage. Rev. Gibson of Albany, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white pussy willow taffeta and georgette crepe and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley. The bride is a well-known Lane county school teacher and the groom is a popular young business man of Eugene.

A very delightful dancing and card party was given Tuesday evening in Bussard's Hall by the Knights of Columbus when they entertained their families and friends. Following a social evening light refreshments were served at a late hour.

Miss Opal Howard is entertaining at a week-end house party. The guests of Albany are Miss Hazel Cowan and Miss Erma Mackey.

On Friday morning Miss Winnie Austin left for Portland to spend the week-end as the guest of Miss Myrtle Roberts of that city.

Miss Corintha Hart and Miss Thelma Richards were guests in Corvallis this week-end, attending the Junior prof last night.

The Margaret Catherine Missionary Circle met Thursday at the home of Miss Louise Daunals. Miss Hazel Hall was the leader of the program and after the business meeting delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

An enjoyable time was passed by the girls of the T. E. D. E. Club when they met this week with Miss Helen Essex. The usual pot-luck supper and jolly social evening were the main features.

Among the gay events of the younger set was the Progressive dinner and dance of last night. The first course was served by Miss Ianthe Smith, the second by Miss Dorothy Walker, from whose home the crowd went to the home of Miss Wilma Junkin, enjoying the third course there, and next to the Cathey home, where Miss Margaret Cathey presided, later finishing the courses at the home of Miss Florence Fortmiller. The latter part of the evening was passed in dancing in the private parlors of the New Elite. About seventeen girls and boys were present at this delightful affair and Mrs. Rathbone, Mrs. Cathey and Mrs. Junkin were chaperones.

A very pretty and elaborate affair of last night was the May Day festival at the United Presbyterian church at which they crowned Miss Margaret Gibson as May Queen. The Queen's attendants were the little Miss Mary Virginia Marshal, Leonard Rohrbough, Alice Fisher, Ralph Couie. The beautiful decorations, with spring blossoms predominating, made an effective background for the queen and her attendants. Later a May Pole dance and a program were other interesting features, and later light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Victor Howard and daughter, Juanita, left for Portland today where they will spend two or three weeks as guests of friends. Mrs. Howard will also attend the Women's benefit association of the Macabees, which will be held in Portland next week.

Mrs. James Bryant is hostess today to the Twilight Club, in honor of Mrs. Frank Caldwell, who is leaving soon for Bremerton. A luncheon was served to the guests who are spending the day at her home.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Harvey entertained the Kill Kare Club. During the afternoon fancy work and conversation made the hour pleasantly pass and later the hostess served a lunch.

Mrs. C. C. Bryant is hostess this afternoon to the Modern Travelers who met at the home of Miss Guard on Sixth and Broadalbin streets. The roll call was responded to with current events and Mrs. W. H. Holman gave a splendid talk on the Industrial Independence of woman, with another excellent paper on "What Modern Education is doing for American Girls," read by Mrs. Bodine.

Mrs. A. Stark was hostess to the members of the Acme Bridge Club on Tuesday afternoon of this week. Several additional guests came in to spend the afternoon in bridge and in a delightful manner.

The Neos Nymphs Club was royally entertained at the home of Mrs. Rufus Russell on Friday afternoon. About the rooms an abundance of apple blossoms and cherry blossoms were attractively arranged in decorative effect. Music and needlework followed by a delicious lunch made up the afternoon's pastimes. Mrs. Frances Arnold was a guest of this affair.

A pretty little luncheon was given in the Domestic Science Department of the high school Friday noon. The dining room and table were effectively adorned with apple blossoms and pretty hand-painted place cards bore the names of Mrs. A. C. Schmitt, Miss Lulu Heist, Miss Mae Lewis, Miss Winnifred Patterson, Mrs. W. B. Young, Mrs. Finnerty, and Miss Lillian Thordarson.

Several Albany young people motored to Corvallis to spend the day. Thursday of this week, as it was inspection day.

The Bete Gamma girls took supper last night at the St. Charles hotel, from where they went to the home of Miss Elda Pettibon to spend a gay social evening.

The Right Way to Care for the Baby

Plenty of sleep, regular hours for feeding, and lots of fresh air! These are the things every baby needs. In doing all you can to help your baby build a healthful body, you will want to consider most carefully the fresh air item. The right carriage is important. Some of these things you will want in a carriage for your baby will be an adjustable hood, a roomy carriage body, durable upholstery that will not easily soil, light, flexible springs, and rubber-tired wheels that sit solidly on the axle. And these are all features of the Heywood-Wakefield carriage. It is the carriage for the out-of-door baby. We have one exhibition some very attractive new models of these handsome baby carriages which we would like to show you.

THE SPINE Is the Foundation Upon Which Body Health Is Built

A good many formerly sick people owe no small part of their improved health to the effectiveness of the Chiropractic Way—a way that is open to any sick person with as much prospect of help as the many others have found.

Chiropractic spinal adjustments go right to the cause of any ailment suffered, remove it, and the patient gets well under natural power in the body. Suppose you try.

A short trial will demonstrate how you can benefit from a more protracted course of them, if more are required to recover you fully.

Spinal Analysis Gladly Given.
