Among the prettiest and the gayest of the season's social functions was the miscellaneous shower of Thursday night for which Miss Winnifred Bassett, a bride-elect, was the motif. The hospitable home of Mrs. C. C. Cameron was the scene of this affair and it was festively adorned with pink and white sweet peas and apple blossoms. The pink and white color scheme with hearts, was used throughout the lunch. Little Miss Dorothy Clifford presented Miss Bassett with the gifts and also assisted in the serving. About 40 guests were present for the affair.

Mrs. Otto Lee delightedly presided at a meeting of the Tuesday Night Club, when she entertained them at her home this week. A few complimented guests came in to pass the afternoon in fancy work with the club members. A delicious repast was served bringing the afternoon's hours to a close.

Mrs. E. M. Pugh entertained a few friends Tuesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. E. M. Maxon, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. C. L. Monson. Bridge was played at three tables, making up the pleasant diversion of the afternoon and this was followed by refreshments.

The members of the Eternal Question Club held a jolly meeting at the home of Miss Beulah De Lancey on Wednesday evening. After a business meeting a social time ensued. Present were the Misses Rita Dowlin, Viola Kroschel, Grace McCalley, Thelma Burnett, Lois Nebergall and Beulah DeLancey. Miss Helen Gibson was an honor guest, having been taken into the club as a new member.

The Presclillas met this week on Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. G. M. Junkin. A social time was followed by a delicious lunch which brot the afternoon's pleasures to a close. Mrs. Orrin Anderson was an additional guest for the afternoon.

Honoring Prof. Madison, the student body of Albany College gave a luncheon Tuesday noon, which was served on the campus in cafeteria style. A large number of students and teachers were present at this time and enjoyed the elaborate luncheon.

The members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood held a meeting this week on Monday, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Davis. A business session and social time were the main features of the afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Irvine and Miss Mullenbach were gracious hostesses on Wednesday afternoon when they entertained for the Y. W. C. A. at the home of Miss Irvine. A lunch was served following the afternoon which was spent in a most enjoyable way.

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. O. J. Hawtin was hostess to the Twentieth Century Club when they held a delightful meeting at her home. A social time and refreshments made up the pleasures of the afternoon. Several additional guests passed the time at the home of Mrs. Hawtin.

On Wednesday evening Miss Winslow Hutchinson's class of girls of the First Presbyterian church, took their supper and enjoyed it around a camp fire on the bank of the Willamette. A jolly time ensued and the girls returned home in the early evening.

Mrs. E. Maxwell was hostess Thursday afternoon when the members of the Hazelwood Club met at her home. Apple blossoms were profusely used about the rooms in decoration adding an atmosphere of spring. The afternoon's hours were passed in fancy work and conversation complete with a delicious collation with Miss Myrtle Maxon assisting hostess serving. The members present were Mrs. N. Springer, Mrs. William Van Norden, Mrs. H. Springer, Mrs. D. B. Speer, Mrs. D. B. Morrison, Mrs. Thoman Moores, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Harry Wicks, and as complimented guests Mrs. D. L. Forbes and Miss Isabelle Springer.

One of the season's gayest little dancing parties was given Tuesday evening in the Moose hall, when the members of the Okie Shopie Club were hosts. A jolly crowd of young people passed the evening's time in enjoyable diversion of dancing and the hours quickly passed. Patrons were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Monson, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brandberry and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sanders.

The Pythian Sisters Club met this week on Tuesday. A social time was passed during which a duet was given on the piano by Mrs. A. B. Wilson and Mrs. Charles Curry, and little Katherine and Alice Davis sang. Hostesses at this time were Mrs. Fred Fortmiller, Mrs. Virgil Hackleman, Mrs. A. L. Gettis and Miss Pearl Cameron. A dainty repast was served at the close of the afternoon.

The Rural Sunshine Club met with Mrs. Rollo Hulbert Thursday afternoon. The ladies spent the time in piecing quilt blocks. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Eva. Those present were Madams Fred Holzapfel, Asa Lewelling, Geo. Blevins, Fay Applegate, Charles Buell, Ralph Hinds, Alden Hulbert, Roy Applegate, E. O. Newport, J. J. Applegate, Heike Ohling, honored guests, Florence Dow, Wm. Laubner, and Miss Emma Laubner.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Winnifred Worrell, the B-Sharp Club met and passed the afternoon with music. Roll call was answered with current events pertaining to music at home and abroad. This was followed by a study hour and musical games. The program consisted of invention in 8 by Bach, played by Miss Muriel Blume; Sonata Op. 27, No. 2, Beethoven, by Mrs. Worrell; (a) Album Leaves, Kolling, by Uldine Prochnow, (a) Scarf Dance, Schminade, (b) Rustic Dance, Fred Morey, by Olga Jackson; (a) Tempo du Minuetto, Saint Sains; (b) Song Without Words, No. 45, Mendelssohn, by Nathiel Donaca. Refreshments were served by the Misses Uldine Prochnow and Louise Collins.

The Rural Ladies met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Ashton, where they passed a social afternoon. Mrs. Frank Mounson was a complimentary guest for the afternoon. The members present were the Mesdames Barber, Schole, Pike, May, Cochran, Shirley, Mervyle Looney, McFarland, Conn, U. G. Smith, Fisher, Nelson Alterwart, P. S. Altermatt, Miss Mildred Allen and Miss Ora Jorden.

A large picnic was the main event of yesterday afternoon, when the students of Albany College celebrated their annual "Flunk day," and spent the day in Bryant's Park. The crowd started at 8 o'clock in the morning and remained through the day, enjoying games, camp fires and a sumptuous feed.

The Sans Souci Club met on Wednesday of this week with Mrs. Fred Seavers as hostess. Fancy work made the hours pass in a social way.

A jolly picnicking crowd of Wednesday morning was that composed of the members of the Orange Peel staff who spent the forenoon across the Willamette bridge. A dinner was enjoyed at noon and the crowd returned home in the early afternoon.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Krowledeen Club was held at the home of Mrs. Max Hoflich on Thursday afternoon. About the rooms narcissus and apple blossoms were prettily arranged. Games and fancy work were the diversions of the afternoon and an elaborate lunch followed these.

A very jolly and informal little dancing party was given last night by Miss Wilma Junkin at her home. A number of boys and girl friends passed the evening in an enjoyable way until a late hour.

Annual Flunk Day.
Yesterday was annual Flunk day at Albany College. The members of the student body cut classes, went to Bryant's Park where they had lunch, played games and cut up in general.
John Merrill Home.
John Merrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Merrill, arrived from California yesterday morning. He has been attending the University of California, where he just finished his sophomore year in the school of medicine.

NEW SAW MILL OPENED AT CALLOWAY, BENTON CO.

A new sawmill started operations yesterday in Benton county at Calloway station, nine miles northwest of Albany. The mill is owned by the J. Al Pattison Co., of Portland, and is employed in cutting hardwood lumber. Oak is being worked on at present. Logging crew had been busy for three weeks prior to the opening of the mill.

Card of Thanks
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses during the illness and death of our little brother, Jackie.

American to the Core!
Think of an American and you picture A red-blooded, spirited individual with a vigorous personality and a clean-cut character.
The House of Kuppenheimer in designing clothes has succeeded in transferring and reflecting the American personality and character in styles.
Today when the martial spirit is abroad in the land, you will find Kuppenheimer Clothes apace with it—you can see it expressed in the new Spring suits we are showing.
Suits for young men, that trace the figure as does the Khaki, square-shouldered, narrow-waisted. Patch pockets with flaps that button. Belted suits in all the new ideas. You have to see them to appreciate their many advanced and distinctive style refinements.
