TORENS ACT DOES NOT PROVE SATISFACTORY

Lands So Registered Not Subject to Mortgage in Regular Way and Causes Trouble.

That the Torrens system of registration of land titles is not all that was claimed to be is shown by a large mortgage which has been entered with County Recorder Velma Davis, for filing. The Oregon Electric Co. brought in a mortgage for over $1,000,000, part of which is secured by property in Linn county. Upon looking it over Miss Davis found that some of the lands covered by the mortgage are registered under the Torrens Act and are not subject to recording.

In order to place them with the County Recorder, who issues a memorial to each one making a mortgage, the papers are left in the recorder's office. The people making this loan want the papers in their own vault, and for this reason they have had the company apply for a cancellation of 16 parcels of land so registered. The cost of placing the lands back into the regular records of the county is $34.20. The cost of filing the mortgage is $58.

Plenty of Kings—

Oran C. King, 22, and Miss Ethel L. Hufford, 22, both of Holley, were married yesterday by County Judge D. B. McKnight. They are well known young people from their neighborhood and have hosts of friends in that part of the county. Miss Hufford's brother is named King, and her husband's name is King. She is as well King'ed as any queen ought to be, states County Clerk Russell, who issued the marriage license.

MARKET NEWS

Cooperative Marketing Pays

A result of cooperative marketing is the cooperative spirit which is brought into the community and which assists materially in getting other cooperative measures started. Another one of the profits which it receives is the educational value which comes largely from the knowledge of market conditions and the interest in better breeding as the hogs which sell for the highest prices are watched closer by the members than otherwise.—Livestock Reporter.

Grazing Conditions Helped

Moved by the serious range conditions prevailing over nearly all the Western states, the Secretary of Agriculture has authorized the district foresters in all districts where the situation is critical to issue temporary permits to stockmen wherever the conditions were such as to indicate losses unless the animals could secure grazing on some of the national forests.

The Secretary has gone even further in a supplementary instruction authorizing the foresters to use their best judgment in admitting additional stock even to the extent of a possible overgrazing of some of the ranges, if by that means losses can be prevented or minimized. Every possible assistance, says the Secretary, will be rendered the stockmen thru the opening of the ranges at the earliest possible date or increasing the number of stock to be grazed to the utmost limit.—Live Stock Reporter.

LATEST FASHIONS BY MARGARET MASON

By Margaret Mason

New York, May 18—All the infantry is in full uniform these days. Young hopefuls at the age of five and six are miniature copies of honest-to-goodness Boy Scouts with knapsacks, leggings, broad brimmed hats and everything all complete. Quite the best thing about the suits from a mother's viewpoint is the fact that they are made from the regulation khaki, and hence bear some promise of withstanding the constant friction of too close application to balustrade and cellar doors, and shocks of climbing stone walls and apple trees, of wallowing in mud pies and damp sand piles and other delectable death-to-clothes stunts that boyish flesh is heir to.

The sturdy Boy Scout shoes that come from size 10 up, almost but not quite, revive for harassed Dads and Mothers the erstwhile halcyon days of the copper-toed boot.

Another khaki model for small boys that is practical, serviceable and good looking is a Norfolk suit with knickerbockers. Of course this hasn't the lure for the small boy soul that is just bursting to grow up and be a soldier but it has its good points even if they aren't patriotic ideas.

The sailor suits while of course they have always been on deck are now floating on the very top wave of renewed popularity. A small boy can always be ship shape in a blue serge or white duck sailor or middy suit with all the necessary adjuncts of bo'sun whistle, flowing tie and hat band gold letterer with name of his favorite battleship. For dress up effects there are cunning copies of officers uniforms in regulation blue serge and brass buttons and there are also bossy white flannel sailor suits guaranteed to turn little Percy into an ice cream sailor fit to rival any chocolate soldier.
