A Variety of Styles Dominate Our

Shoe Department

White Shoes in Many Beautiful Styles

Partly because of the scarcity of black and colored materials—but mostly because it is so delightfully dainty, white footwear has the "call" for summer. From the beautiful "dress" styles with their long slender vamps and Louis Sixteenth heels, to the smart flat heeled oxfords for sport and street wear, every wanted style is in evidence in our splendid stock.

The prices on our white shoes are from $1.48 to $7.75. This includes low and high shoes, with low, medium and high heels, made of canvas, renskin, buck and kid.

But don't think even this array concludes our stock

for in Fancy Shoes we have

Black kid vamps, with white kid or cloth tops
Grey kid vamps with grey cloth tops
Black kid vamps with different shades of grey tops
Light grey kid vamps with Ivory top
Russia Tan Calf Vamps with Ivory tops

Oh, what's the use of having to write it all out just a look on your part would be far better. Prices start on our fancy shoes at $5.50 and there's nothing over $10.

GRANDMA SHARP HAS AN ENJOYABLE BIRTHDAY

On Sunday, May 13th, the 83rd birthday of Mrs. Eliza Sharp was celebrated at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Scott, where she makes her home, near Tangent.

Of her five children the following were present: Mrs. M. J. Scott, W. A. Sharp and wife, of Albany, S. C. Sharp of Portland, W. L. Sharp and wife of Corvallis, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sharp of Tangent.

Of her nine grand children there were present Mrs. M. F. Wood and husband, J. F. Scott and wife of Corvallis, Cora B. Aubrey and husband of Tangent, Mrs. Gertrude Foster and husband of Portland, and Miss Gladys Sharp of Albany. Great grandchildren: Misses Le Velle, Oleta, Delpha and Thella Wood; Lyle, Doris and Earl Scott of Corvallis; Esther and Dorothy Foster of Portland; and Dortha L. Driver of Tangent.

Others present were Ed Blake and wife of Corvallis; H. O. Pinkston, wife and two children of Tangent; R. L. Gilson, wife and four boys of Lebanon, J. E. Jenks, Jr., and wife, of Tangent; L. T. Evans and wife and Roy Evans, wife and three children of Lebanon.

Grandma Sharp is remarkably bright and active for one of her age and enjoyed herself immensely.

The dinner was served cafeteria style. Partners were selected by numbers handed them, and all enjoyed the fine dinner and the social hour to the fullest extent.

The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Elizabeth Sharp and contained 83 small wax candles which were lighted and presented a beautiful appearance.

The afternoon was spent in visiting. The social enjoyment will not soon be forgotten especially by the mother and her children.

J. M. Sharp, the eldest son, who lives in Washington, could not be present.

TWO GRADUATE FROM
ELEVENTH GRADE AT THOMAS

Last Friday evening a company of five, including Superintendent Ida M. Cummings, attended the closing exercises of the Riverside school near Thomas.

There were two graduates from the eleventh grade who received their diplomas. Mrs. Cummings making the presentation speech.

Five pupils who graduated from the eighth grade participated in the exercises and will receive diplomas later, most of them being exempt.

The program, which was well rendered, was composed of solos, recitations and dialogues. The house was filled to overflowing and all were well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

The Right Way to Care for the Baby

Plenty of sleep, regular hours for feeding, and lots of fresh air! These are the things every baby needs. In doing all you can to help your baby build a healthful body, you will want to consider most carefully the fresh air item. The right carriage is important. Some of these things you will want in a carriage for your baby will be an adjustable hood, a roomy carriage body, durable upholstery that will not easily soil, light, flexible springs, and rubber-tired wheels that sit solidly on the axle. And these are all features of the Heywood-Wakefield carriage. It is the carriage for the out-of-door baby. We have on exhibition some very attractive new models of these handsome baby carriages which we would like to show you.
