MISFITS

By F. P. Nutting.

One of the first signs that attracted my attention in Moro, county-seat of Sherman county, read L. W. Ross, Jeweler. I entered the place and during my stay in the town, had a good visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross, former well-known Albany people. Besides jewelry Mr. Ross has a confectionery and cigar department, is agent for the Portland Journal, justice of the Peace, with considerable business, including weddings, secretary of the Sherman County Development League and proprietor of the city's only movie show and theatre, which is also used as a sample room for drummers. A very busy man, well assisted by Mrs. Ross. One of the boys, Carl, has joined the navy. Elephalin, on account of an operation, cannot do so. Harold is old enough to run a piano player for the movies.

Here also, I met Mrs. Bessie McLaughlin Axtel, a former Albany College student, ten or twelve years ago. Cousin of Mrs. Robert Hartsock, wife of a prosperous Sherman county farmer.

In the bank window I saw a picture of a new $20,000 high school building. C. H. Burggraf, architect. Work will soon be begun on the structure.

On the train was Miss Brattin, who resided at Albany twenty-five years ago. She owns a farm near Grass Valley, but is living in The Dalles. She recognized me and we had a visit.

Dust—Well, yes.
Nothing like the refreshing green of the Willamette Valley.
One misses much the fine trees of Western Oregon. Amidst the long stretches of treeless fields.

OAKVILLE

Closing exercises of the Oakville high school were held Friday evening in the church, which was beautifully decorated with white lilacs and dogwood blossoms.

The address was made by Dr. W. H. Lee of Albany College, on the subject: "Language and Character." The following musical numbers were given:

Instrumental solo by Mrs. Boeth. Vocal solos by Mrs. Clarence Brown and Miss Lillian Kaufman. Flute solo by J. C. Irvine of Albany.

A pleasing coincidence was the presentation of her diploma to Miss Isabella Hamilton by her father, J. E. Hamilton, President of the Board of Directors.

Mrs. G. G. Wilson entertained her Teachers' Training Class on Monday evening in a goodly social for Miss Heinrich and Miss Ruthven.

Lilacs formed the attractive decoration of the rooms. Recitations, music, games and conversation were the diversions of the evening, after which the hostess served a delicious lunch.

The guests departed at a late hour voting Rev. and Mrs. Wilson delightful entertainers.

The annual school picnic was held Tuesday. We were favored with sunshine and those present enjoyed the program, dinner and games.

Miss Nell Holstein of Portland, is visiting her parents.

Miss Lillian Kaufman of Philadelphia, Pa., is spending the summer with her friend, Mrs. Wm. McBride.

Mrs. Kennison of Portland, visited her sister, Mrs. Adams.
After a successful term the Oakville teachers, Miss Minnie Hemrich and Miss Gertrude Ruthven, leave for their homes, carrying with them the best wishes of the community. Not only in the school but in the social and religious life of the community has their work been appreciated.

NIGH RISKS LIFE TO PUT THRILLS IN "BLUE STREAK"

Fox Director Does Dangerous Stunts Himself—Won't Imperil Others

William Nigh, the new director who has joined William Fox's ever-growing band of screen generals, is as virile as the characters in his pictures. Fear is a thing he has never known. Mr. Nigh co-stars with Violet Palmer in "The Blue Streak."

When taking exteriors for "The Blue Streak," in the Tennessee Mountains, Mr. Nigh rode his horse at break-neck speed along a narrow ledge on Lookout Mountain with a sheer drop of 400 feet an arm's length away. The horse slipped at a turn and fell. Only Mr. Nigh's expert horsemanship saved him and the animal from destruction.

While the director was struggling to get the animal to its feet the cameraman coolly ground off the film, not knowing whether Mr. Nigh's perilous situation was part of the story or not.

At the Rolfe Friday.

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your back hurts or bladder bothers you—Drink more water.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weak, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in uric acid, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful after-dinner little-water drink.
