NOTES
By F. P. Netting

The other day I met a very human kind of a man in a cafeteria. He looked across the table and spoke out loud to me, and we were soon in conversation, with several mutual friends to talk about, though strangers. The customary way is to sit and "chaw" in silence like a clam in a field of sea weeds.

Plenty of human cycles around.
After all there is a mad old rush ahead in the interest of Mr. A-I.

There is considerable politics buzzing in connection with the coming city election, particularly over the mayor and commissioners. Most of the speaking is from autos near street corners. Heard one candidate lambasting the Oregonian with a long list of big adjectives; but the big paper came out the next morning as usual.

Was in the lobby of the Imperial when a prominent doctor told a candidate for commissioner what he thought of him and the air got sort of blue, with a hundred dollar bill floating in the breeze. So it goes.

Met Miss Winnie Austin in the office of the Home Builders. Pittcock bldg this week. She has a good position in pleasant surroundings.

The spirit of the day was well illustrated in a sight seen. Upon glancing out of a car window just this side of The Dalles, recently a woman was hoeing beans in a field, with a baby in a buggy at the end of the row.

Wish you would send Bill Patterson down to pitch for the Portlands. Also some Albany pep. It is an awful spectacle seeing a tallender try to play base ball. One thing the club needs is more team work without any discord in the notes.

JUST HATS!
We have the Hats with falling brim
The graceful little Pokes
The Auto Caps and Sporting Hats
For young and older folks;
Some new Felt Hats have just arrived
In all the colors gay
And our display of trimmed White Hats
Is like a fair June day.
Do not forget the Children's Hats
Of every kind that's new
Besides the veils and trimmings
What you are needing too.
And remember that on purchases
We'll surely save you more
So buy your Hat from MRS. LEE
