Probably the most charming social affair of the season is the Tea for which Miss Isabelle Young and Miss Anne Dawson are hostesses this afternoon at the home of Miss Young. The guests, who numbered about 30, assembled and passed the afternoon in a pleasant way in the beautiful rooms of their home. Pretty vogue bouquets were used here and there adding to the vogue idea carried throughout the tea. Miss Louise Mason gave an graceful dance and later carried a basket of old-fashioned bouquets which she tossed to the guests. On each favor a tiny place card was attached with a vogue figure adorning it. Guests included girls of the high school age and also those of this year's graduating class. A delicious lunch rounded out the afternoon of pleasures.

One of the most elaborate picnics of this year was the one of Friday evening at which the members of the Monday Club were guests. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Winn, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil and Dr. W. P. White were hosts at this time and entertained in the pleasant way. At five o'clock the crowd motored to a pretty spot where they spread out an elaborate feed and later spent the evening.

The festive day of the year for the members of the Shakespeare Club and their husbands was the picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Burkhardt, in Oakhurst, on Tuesday evening. After playing games on the spacious lawn the crowd repaired to the house which had been transformed into a veritable summer woods, with sweet briar, fir trees and ferns filling the rooms in great quantities. There they passed the time with contests and clever stunts. One of the main features of the evening was the bird contest, for which the pictures of different species of birds had been scattered among the branches of the decorations. A delicious picnic lunch was spread out on the floor and the guests sat on cushions to be served. This jollification continued until a late hour.

As one of the weeks' most delightful hostesses, Mrs. W. H. Hornbrook entertained the members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood on Monday afternoon of this week. In the late afternoon a dainty lunch rounded out the pleasant of the time.

Miss Helen Livengood was hostess Thursday evening to a slumber party at which she entertained several girl friends in a most pleasant way. At a late hour the girls retired and early the next morning took their breakfast over in Bryant's Park and enjoyed it picnic style. The guests of Miss Livengood were the Misses Dorothy Lee, Violet Nutting, Irene Barrett, Helen Gibson, Marciel Austin, Anna Hofflich, Lucile Longbottom, Nathiel Donaca, Lois Nebergall, Ethel Bussard.

On Saturday night of last week several young people were the guests of Miss Isabelle Young at whose home they passed a jolly time in the gay diversions of dancing. At a late hour a dainty lunch refreshed the dancers before they dispersed to their homes.

The Thursday Afternoon Study Club met this week with Mrs. J. T. Watson. Roses were used about the rooms to decorate where the guests were received. During the afternoon two papers were read, one by Mrs. Albert Sanders and one given by Mrs. J. W. Swank. These were very much appreciated by the guests. Mrs. Harry Wilkins gave a vocal solo and the closing feature was a lunch served by the hostess.

The final meeting of the summer for the Priscilla Club, was held at the home of Mrs. Walton Worrell on Thursday afternoon. About the rooms quantities of snow balls were used in decoration. Fancy work, conversation and refreshments made the afternoon's hours quickly pass. A large number of guests were present at this time.

In the attractive tea house of the

H. B. Cusick garden. Miss Salome Cusick entertained several girl friends Thursday evening at a supper party. The prettily adorned table was centered by an attractive bouquet of spring flowers. Later in the evening dancing and music were the diversions.

Mrs. P. A. Young and Miss Isabelle Young motored to Salem Wednesday. Miss Young returned home Wednesday evening, but Mrs. Young remained to attend a dance in Salem. Thursday she returned to Albany in the car of Mr. and Mrs. Livesley, bringing as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Livesley and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and children. After a pleasant automobile trip a dinner was served at the Young home, Miss Anne Dawson was a dinner guest. The table appointed of a beautiful sort, and a charming little table was placed on the porch for the children of the party.

One of the popular slumber parties of this week was presided over by Miss Ruth Livengood on Wednesday night. A covered-dish feed at six o'clock was attended by the A. M. A. girls. A huge bouquet of pink sweet peas made up the centerpiece for the prettily appointed table and sweet pea place cards marked covers laid for the guests. The girls attended the dance of the Honor Guard girls and after that retired to the Livengood home where they stayed. In the morning a delicious breakfast was served.

A jolly crowd of young people motored to Jefferson on Tuesday where they spent the day along the bank of the Santiam river in a pretty picnicking ground. Bonfires and a feed were the main features of the day. Those to enjoy this were the Misses Marciel Austin, Lucile Longbottom, Dorothy Lee, Nathiel Donaca, Helen Livengood, Anne Hofflich, Violet Nutting, Ethel Bussard, Irene Barrett, and Ralph Bilyeu, Elton Gildow, Morris Hayes, Raymond Nebergall, Hubbel Young, Harold Irvine, Kenneth McCune and Walter Gilbert. Mrs. Winnifred Worrell and Mrs. Otto Lee chaperoned the party.

Mrs. Frank Meister pleasantly entertained the members of the Art Craft Club at her home, Wednesday afternoon of this week. Needle work and conversation made the hours pass quickly and several additional guests joined with the club members to pass the afternoon socially. The rooms were attractively decked in an abundance of wild flowers. Mrs. William Hofflich assisted the hostess in serving a delicious repast.

In a gala attire of flags and bunting the Armory was the scene of a very successful dance, given Wednesday evening by the girls of the Honor Guard. A large crowd was present and passed the evening's hours in dancing, music being furnished by the Albany band.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young and Miss Isabelle Young will motor to the Country Club near Salem next Sunday where they will meet Mr. and Mrs. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Bush and families, and Mr. Carl Gableson and Mr. Fritz State, all of Salem. They will spend the day picnicking there and Mr. Fritz Albany, where Mr. and Mrs. Young will be dinner hosts to the party.

BAIN-HOLT WEDDING

Harrisburg, Ore., June 9.—The prettiest wedding seen here in years occurred Wednesday evening, June 6, in the Methodist church, when Neil M. Bain and Miss Anne Ruth Holt, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Holt, of this city, were married by Dr. D. H. Leech of Corvallis.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Mrs. George Wilhelm played Lohengrin's wedding march and Dr. Leech slowly made his way down the center aisle of the little church to the altar, which was prettily decorated with greens and flowers. He was followed by Lyle Bain, brother of the groom, and then by the groom, who stood in waiting for the bride, who was accompanied to the altar by her brother, Harry Holt, and her bride's maid, Miss Edythe Hawk. Dr. Leech performed the ring ceremony in an impressive manner. Before the wedding Miss Eva Miller sang "At Dawning."

A reception was held in the church parlors. Following the throwing of the bride's beautiful bouquet of sweet peas, orchids and lilies-of-the-valley, which occasioned a contest among the young ladies, the bride and groom escaped and left soon after for Eugene. Thursday morning they left for Poplar, Montana, on their honeymoon for a three weeks' visit with Mr. Bain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bain.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bain are popular young people and are well known in Albany, where Mr. Bain was for several years connected with the Albany State Bank. He is now associated with the First National Bank of Harrisburg, and takes an active part in the affairs of the city. Mrs. Bain is a beautiful, lovable young lady with scores of friends. They will be at home to their friends in their new home about July 1, following their return from their trip.

The O. D. O. Club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. C. L. Churchill, who presided as hostess. Her home was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns used about the rooms in profusion. The afternoon passed in fancy work was brought to a pleasant close when the hostess, Mrs. Churchill, served a choice lunch. Mrs. B. P. Kirk was a complimented guest.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cusick, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ralston and families, enjoyed a picnic on the bank of the Willamette Thursday evening.

The home of Mrs. den M. Junkin was the scene of an enjoyable social affair yesterday afternoon when she was hostess to the Twentieth Century Club. Bowls of roses were gracefully arranged about the rooms where the afternoon was passed in a pleasant way. A handsome gift was presented to Mrs. H. M. Palmer in honor of her birthday. Bringing the afternoon to a close, the hostess served a delicious repast.

The Shakespeare Club entertained on Saturday of last week, with a farewell-party given at the home of Mrs. F. M. French, and for the pleasure of Mrs. F. P. Nutting. During the afternoon a program was enjoyed and at this time the club members presented Mrs. Nutting with a handsomely framed picture of Shakespeare as a compliment to one of their most active and popular members. Mrs. Nutting and daughter, Violet, will leave in a few weeks for Portland, where they will make their future home.

Miss Violet Nutting was the honoree on Wednesday evening for a farewell party given at the United Presbyterian church. The members of the Intermediate department were guests and enjoyed a social time and later, refreshments. Ronald Reid was also an honor guest at this time.

A few couples of the younger crowd enjoyed a wienie roast on Wednesday evening of this week. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Junkin and Mrs. Castle.

Mrs. Robert Torbett was hostess this week to the Sans Souci Club, when it met at her home on Wednesday. The afternoon spent in fancy work was completed with dainty refreshments.

The boys of Albany College will be royally entertained tonight, when Dr. W. H. Lee will preside at a dinner party, given for their pleasure. An enjoyable social time has been planned for the occasion.

The annual picnic of the girls of the Y. W. C. A. was an occasion of Tuesday afternoon. The crowd crossed the Willamette bridge, on the opposite side of which they found a pretty spot and spent the remaining part of the day picnicking. After a sumptuous feed and in the early evening the party returned home.

SAY, YOU
Who are in an office or any other other occupation which requires continual head work, don't you know you need physical exercise? To keep in normal condition it is necessary to proportion our mental and physical exercise, otherwise we become overbalanced one way or the other. For the woman, man, girl or boy who does continuous hard mental work, an hour or so each day playing tennis will give you new life, more vitality and consequently you can be more ambitious in your business. We handle Goldsmith' Lawn Tennis Goods and would be pleased at any time to show them to you. Goldsmith means quality when applied to athletic goods. We also handle Motorcycles, Bicycles, and accessories. Mechanical repairing a specialty.
