Good Play Seen—

The Paramount feature at the Globe last night, "The Evil Eye," featuring pretty Blanche Sweet, is one of the best vehicles in which she has been seen here for some time. And it has been some time since this pretty actress has been seen here. Her appearance was greatly enjoyed. In addition to the always interesting Pathe News is a three-reel educational picture, "The King of the Rails," put out by the General Electric company. This nine-reel bill will be repeated tonight.

Navy Picture Coming—

Two thousand feet of film showing life in the navy will be presented on the regular bill at the Globe theatre Thursday and Friday. This should be of interest to all, for, with the United States Navy on the firing line in European waters, the attention of the country is directed to this branch of the service. And the pictures are especially valuable at the present time, for it would be impossible to visit a navy yard while the war is on. An officer will accompany the films and explain them. A real torpedo will be on exhibit here also.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY MARKS REV. VAN NEVAL'S FUNERAL

Earth has received back again the body of the Reverend J. A. Van Nevel, State Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus who died Saturday evening. Half a hundred priests and people waited in the cushioned pews of the Catholic church at eleven this morning where they had gathered to pay the last honors to a man they loved. How great was the appeal of Father Van Nevel to his people was shown by the mass of beautiful flowers at the chancel.

Archbishop Christie, D. D., delivered the funeral sermon.

HISTORIC OLD HOUSE BEING TORN DOWN

The old house at Seventh and Broadalbin streets which is being torn down to make room for a modern bungalow has an interesting history connected with it. Olmstead, who bought the place, is tearing out traditions over half a century old. The house was built in the early 60's. For a time it was used as a poor house when Linn county had no such a thing as a county farm as it has at present. After that it was used as a club by a number of college students. It is one of the oldest buildings in the city and was built on a part of the old Monteith donation land claim.

WARRANT OFFICER WAL- WORTH VISITS IN CITY

"Albany boys who joined the naval reserve corps are fairly well satisfied with their new life and are making good in the service of Uncle Sam," declared R. Walworth, chief warrant officer, who arrived in Albany at 11:30 this morning and expects to remain here for a week on leave of absence.

"Of the fourteen Willamette Valley recruits who were discharged from the service," said Walworth, only two were from Linn county and they did not receive a dishonorable discharge but what is termed in naval circles as an "undesirable discharge." Olsen and Lauck both of this county have been relieved from duty but both received an honorable discharge from the government service.

The three boys from the Democrat office are working at the Navy yard and will in all probability work together during the entire period of the war at government printing office.

"Buy a Liberty Bond and give it to the Red Cross."

H. L. Corbett, chairman of the Oregon Red Cross committee, thus advises those who have been hesitating whether to help the Liberty Bond or Red Cross $100,000,000 emergency war service fund.

"A Liberty Bond is just as good as money to the Red Cross campaign," continued Mr. Corbett. "This is one instance where one sum will help to its full value two vitally important national needs."

"Buy your Liberty Bond now and have it ready for Red Cross week, June 18-25."

The great importance of the Red Cross campaign to national welfare is stressed in a letter written personally by President Wilson to Lyman L. Pierce, western manager of the Red Cross campaign.

"You and the western members of the financial committee of the Red Cross War Council, Messrs. Miller Corbett, Crocker and Phipps, are about to undertake a great public service. The enterprise which you will present to the leaders of the business and professional life in the West is at this time one of the most important contributions to the country's welfare which any patriotic citizen can make. Will you not convey to the patriotic citizens of the West my earnest hope that they will deny you no service which they can render?"
