MISFITS

(By F. P. N.)

Newspapers that have been crying economy in everything with scarce heads have not only been cutting their own throats, but have helped to jeopardize business conditions. The law of economics will generally work out the right kind of a balance if such things are permitted to take their own course.

The truth is there is already too much money not in circulation. There is an element that may need to be warned to be economical, but the masses will generally take care of the situation.

I never realized the bigness of Portland's population more than when I walked in the Rose Festival parade with the G. A. R. On both sides of the streets from beginning to end of the several miles of line of march, there was a mass of humanity reaching from curb to wall, without a break, besides thousands looking out of windows and from points of advantage.

More Albany people have come to Portland to reside. Mrs. Jack Warner and family. Just met Charlie on the street and there was somewhat of an Albany reunion, with Arthur Purdin, Kenneth Bloom and Kaddy Rupert in the crowd. Mrs. Charlie Carter and sister-in-law, Mrs. Will Reiner, passing increased the Albany effect.

One evening ran upon Mrs. Mary Bilyeu and Mrs. L. H. Fish in a cafeteria and the next day upon Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Churchill and daughter-in-law.

The Imperial hotel is quite a center for people and one rarely fails to meet an old acquaintance there from somewhere.

Tom Alexander and family live on Grant street, near Hawthorne. Griff King and family, who recently located here, are somewhere on the east side.

Doris McClain Smith and husband reside at 1202 E. Ankeny. Mr. Smith said he would be glad to have me call.

Saw Mr. and Mrs. J. Bussard watching a boat race from Morrison bridge.

It is doubtful if any man in Portland is in such demand for addresses as Hon. M. A. Miller, Collector of Internal Revenues. Frequently he is called upon several times in a week.
Next will be the Pioneer picnic at Brownsville.

MALE TYPEWRITERS GREATLY
NEEDED BY U. S. ARMY

ination for stenographer and typewriter, Field Service, will be held in forty different cities throughout the Eleventh Civil Service District June serve their country under the conditions named should apply for this examination. Applications and full information will be furnished by the local secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, Post Office, at any of the offices where the examination will be held, or by the District Secretary, Room 303 Post Office building, Seattle, Wash.
