One of the most delightful and attractive affairs of the week was the tea at the home of Dr. Mary Marshall for which Miss Florence Forcumber and Miss Dorothy Walker were the charming hostesses. The spacious rooms were artistically decorated with vivid-hued garden flowers and greens. A busy of attractive young maids called during the afternoon and were served with tea and ices on the veranda.

Miss Aris Pittman, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCasney, will plight their troth Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Fifth street. The bride's attendants will be Miss Stella Pittman, sister of the bride and Miss Esther McCasney, sister of the bridegroom. The wedding ceremony will be performed by Rev. Charles E. Gibson of the Methodist church. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. McCasney will be at home at their residence on Fifth street.

Miss Isabelle Young, who recently returned from Stanford University, will spend the week-end in Portland as the guest of Miss Carolyn Cannon.

Mrs. Julius Voss was hostess for the H. D. W. Club on Thursday. A delicious luncheon was served and a very pleasant afternoon was spent in fancy-work and games.

The Monday Bridge Club met with Mrs. Grant Pirtle in the parlors of the St. Charles hotel. The spacious rooms were artistically decorated with red roses and bachelor buttons. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room of the hotel to the members and guests. Mrs. Fred Ward and Mrs. F. C. Pate were guests of the club.

Mrs. Peter Paulus gave a delightful dinner party on Wednesday evening honoring Mrs. Henry Kavanaugh of Pendleton. Tables of 500 formed the diversion for the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. The guests for this charming party were Mr. and Mrs. John Dooley, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pirtle, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lindgren, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Piddler, Miss Anna Schultz, Mrs. Ed Dorgan, Miss Kate Barrett, Miss Stella Dorgan, Mr. Ed Barrett, and Mrs. Henry Kavanaugh.

The party given at the Barrett home on Eighth street by Irene Barrett and Helen Livengood was one of the most delightful events of the week for the younger set. About twenty guests danced in the attractively decked rooms and on the cool vine-covered porch. A delicious repast was served during the supper dance.

The Misses Ragan entertained Rev. and Mrs. George H. Young and Mrs. Myrtle Way at dinner on Monday night.

The marriage of William E. Nash and Rose Hanke was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage Wednesday afternoon at half after two. Miss Beatrice Hanke, sister of the bride, was the bride's attendant.

Mr. Nash is the son of Mrs. Nellie Nash and has been connected with the Holman and Jackson grocery store for several years. The bride is a daughter of W. J. Hanke and was a member of the class of 1916 of Albany high school. She is a charming girl with an unusually pleasing and attractive personality and has a host of friends who wish her every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash are spending their honeymoon in Portland at the Rose Festival. They will be at home to their friends after Sunday, June 17.

Mrs. Harry Hawkins (Lora Jane Taylor) of Salem, was the guest of Mrs. H. M. Hawkins Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Miss Carolyn Cannon, the charming grand daughter of D. P. Mason, was graduated from Lincoln high school, Portland Tuesday evening. Miss Cannon has the distinction of being one of the youngest members of the class of 1917 and has made a remarkable record during her course at Lincoln. She will spend the summer in Albany at the home of D. P. Mason on Sixth and Ferry streets.

Among the Albany people to motor to the Lebanon Strawberry Fair Friday were Helen Livengood, Anna Hofflich, Marion Boettcher, and Raymond Nebergall who went over in the Nebergall car.

One of the handsomely appointed affairs of the week was the 6 o'clock dinner party given Saturday night by Miss Cassie Thompson, honoring the Misses Ragan, who are to summer in California near Watsonville. An effective centerpiece of cream and red rose buds graced the center of the table and corsage bouquets of tiny red buds marked the places for Helen Essex, Mrs. Myrtle Way, Blanche Ragan, Genevieve Ragan, Nellie Ragan, Nelle Ragan, Mrs. Thompson and Cassie Thompson.

Of interest to many Albany folk was the wedding of Julia Carpenter Platt and Joseph Scott McLean in Portland last Saturday. Miss Platt was a frequent visitor to this city last winter when she was extensively entertained.

Miss Bina Reeves who just completed her second year at McMinnville College, has returned to Albany for the summer months. Miss Reeves expects to reenter McMinnville College in the fall.

The Loyal Daughters of the Christian church entertained with a six o'clock supper party in Bryant's Park on Thursday. A short program was rendered which included several enjoyable readings by Rev. D. L. Morgan, pastor of the First Christian church of Albany, and a solo by Mr. Frank Watson.

Mrs. J. H. Robnett was hostess to the ladies of the Home Missionary society of the Methodist church yesterday afternoon. Spring blossoms adorned the rooms and the spacious porch. The afternoon was spent in the discussion of missionary problems after which a dainty repast was served by Mrs. Robnett.

The T. E. D. E. Club met at the home of Miss Vernita Froman on Monday evening. The evening was spent in fancy work, cards, and music.

Miss Hazel Hockensmith has returned from Willamette University, for the summer vacation. Miss Hockensmith is an accomplished musician and is a graduate of Albany high school of the class of 1916. She has been specializing in music during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Swan motored to Rock Creek church on Sunday where they were joined by an automobile party from Eugene. A picnic dinner was enjoyed under the trees.

The Pythian Sisters Good Cheer Club met in the Temple parlors today. Small tables graced the old-fashioned nosegays of larkspur and marigolds were placed for the forty members present and dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. Haight, the hostess for this delightful affair.

Mrs. Bach, Bessie Bach, Isabelle Garland of Lebanon, and Miss Beuna Cobb of Tulare, California, spent Thursday in Albany shopping, driving over from Lebanon in the Bach machine.

SAY, YOU
Who are in an office or any other occupation which requires continual head work, don't you know you need physical exercise? To keep in normal condition it is necessary to proportion our mental and physical exercise, otherwise we become overbalanced one way or the other.

For the woman, man, girl or boy who does continuous hard mental work, an hour or so each day playing tennis will give you new life, more vitality and consequently you can be more ambitious in your business.

We handle Goldsmith's Lawn Tennis Goods and would be pleased at any time to show them to you. Goldsmith means quality when applied to athletic goods. We also handle Motorcycles, Bicycles, and accessories. Mechanical repairing a specialty.
