HAITI CLEANS HOUSE.

Changes That Were Brought About by the American Occupation.

Five years ago in Haiti there was on the whole island not more than one mile of macadamized roadway, and the new streets, taking the place of combination trails and sewers, are the most noticeable changes brought about by the American occupation.

But more remarkable than the streets is the astonishing sight of squads of Haitians, actually cleaning the streets. Under the old regime the chief occupations of the male citizens of Haiti were cockfighting and politics.

The refuse and smells have departed, and, better still, most of the children have disappeared from the streets. They are actually at school, where by Haitian law they are supposed to be, but where by Haitian lawlessness only about 10 per cent of them ever used to be.

About 4 o'clock every week day you will see this newly mobilized infantry coming home in squads clean and, unfortunately for the picturesque value of Haitian highways and byways, now thoroughly provided with clothes—World's Work.

Warding Off Old Age.
A famous French general when asked how it was that he had so in an erect carriage replied that it was because he bent over and touched the floor with his fingers thirty times every day. If he had acquired rigidity of the spine so that he could not do that he would have had with it weak abdominal muscles, which result in portal congestion. This portal congestion interferes with stomach digestion and with the action of the liver. The poison destroying power of the liver is lessened, autointoxication results, and arteriosclerosis and old age come on at a much earlier day. But by keeping the spine flexible and the abdominal muscles strong and taut the portal circulation is kept free and old age is held off.

Kid Gloves and Paper Collars.
The Twelfth corps of the Army of the Potomac was named "kid gloves and paper collars" by the Fourteenth corps of the Western army, owing to the West Point discipline of the Twelfth corps, which was the natural result of having been commanded first by Mansfield and then by Stocum, with as subordinate commanders such men as Williams, Hamilton, Gordon, Rizer, Andrews, Hawley and others.—Magazine of American History.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Nash, who were married last Wednesday, returned home yesterday. They spent their honeymoon in Portland.

Leaves for Home.
Miss Jessie Upham of Wenatchee, Washington, who has been visiting with friends and relatives here for the past three months, left this afternoon for Portland where she will visit for a few days before returning to her home. She has recovered from a operation at St. Mary's hospital about three months ago.

Mrs. A. J. Hoag of Eugene, was in Albany this morning on her way to Jefferson on business.

Geo. H. Hughes, Jr., went to Portland this morning on a visit.

Opportunities.
Thomas A. Edison said at a birthday dinner: "What nonsense to declare that the trusts have gobbled up all the opportunities! Why, there are more opportunities than ever there were, but most of us are stupid and lazy and we don't grasp our opportunities. The successful man not only makes hay while the sun shines—he makes it from the grass that other people let grow under their feet."—Exchange.

Ball Money.
Blackmail used to be levied on the newlyweds in England to prevent them from being mobbed upon leaving the church. This "graft" was called "ball money," because it was given ostensibly to buy a football for the village green, but it rarely went beyond the nearest public house.

Companions in Misfortune.
Robbed—I do pray of you to give me my things back. My hot tempered wife will kill me if I go home without them. Robber—Sorry, I'm married myself, but what do you suppose my wife will do if I go home without anything?—Flegende Blatter.

Shopping.
First Lady—Mrs. Smith is too young to go shopping alone. Second Lady—What is that? First Lady—She's liable to get excited and buy something.

Immune.
Ella—There goes the luckiest girl alive. Bella—In what respect? Ella—Nothing she eats makes her fat.—Harper's Bazar.
