

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders
Society Editor
Bell 481-J.

Social affairs have taken a minor place with Albany folk the past week and men and women have devoted their time in assisting in the Red Cross work and the week has been given up almost entirely to the Big Drive. The clubs have directed their energies along this line and society is taking its place in the campaign. Bridge parties, teas, dances, almost everything has given way to the Big Drive.

Mrs. Nathan Barber delightedly entertained the Ladies Rural Club at her country place on the Lebanon Road. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in fancy work and a dainty lunch was served by the hostess under the trees. The guests were Mrs. N. Shrode, Mrs. Urban Shrode, Miss Gladys May, Miss Nora Ashton, Mrs. Gordon Pike, Mrs. D. May, Mrs. Bert Shirley, Mrs. Robt. Fisher, Mrs. Chas. Ashton and Mrs. U. G. Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Will Barrett, Miss Marion Jane Anderson, Miss Zona Haight, and Mr. Ralph Reeves of Lebanon, motored to Philomath on Thursday to attend the Round-Up.

The wedding of Miss Helen Myers and John Biggs was solemnized Sunday, June 17, at the Myers home by Rev. Albion Esson, formerly pastor of the First Christian church of Albany.

The bride's gown was a girlish creation of fluffy white organdy and the dainty spring blossoms which decked the rooms made a fitting background for this charming bride. The wedding was very quiet because of the departure of Mr. Biggs on July 15 with Fifth Company, C. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Biggs will return to Albany next week after a short wedding trip.

Miss Flora Mason, Miss Carolyn Cannon, and Miss Isabelle Young motored home from Portland yesterday in the Mason car. Miss Mason and Isabelle Young were the guests of Carolyn Cannon during the Rose Festival.

Miss Florence Fortmiller delightfully entertained with a wienie roast on the bank of the Willamette on Wednesday evening. The invited guests were Rita Medin, Evelyn Robinson, Wilma Junkin, Dorothy Walker, Salome Cusick, Margaret Cathey, Virginia Rathbone, Bernice Duncan, Dorothy Gilbert, Roy Harris, Elton, Lloyd Johnson, Hubert Fortmiller, Beverly Taylor, Ralph Hecker.

L. E. Hamilton was the host at a dinner party given for the teachers and officers of the United Presbyterian Sunday school on Wednesday evening. The table was effectively decked with spring flowers and attractive place cards marked the places for the guests.

The Pioneer picnic at Brownsville is one of the attractions of the week that is drawing the motorists of Albany. Among the Albany people to drive to Brownsville Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith, Miss Volene Smith, Miss Iantha Smith, and Del Smith in the Smith car, and Miss Dorothy Lee, Miss Violet Nutting in the Lee machine.

One of the charming events of the week was the graduating recital of Miss Lois Yates at the Palmer Studios Wednesday evening. Miss Yates was assisted by Miss Dora Stewart, pianist, Miss Hazel Wallace, pianist, Mr. H. C. Palmer, baritone, and Mrs. Lena Palmer, accompanist.

Honoring Mrs. H. J. Kavanaugh of Pendleton, Mrs. S. C. Worrell was hostess for a delightful sewing party on Monday afternoon. The attractive rooms were artistically decked in ferns and rose-buds and the dining table was graced with a huge bouquet of garden flowers. Dainty refreshments were served by Marcel Austin and Lucille Longbottom. The guests were Mrs. M. Monteth, Mrs. F. E. Beauchamp, Mrs. C. J. Lee, Mrs. F. P. Nutting, Mrs. W. H. Rhodes, Mrs. David Froman, Mrs. G. T. Hockinsmith, Mrs. John French, Mrs. Fred Ward, Miss Jessie Paynter, Miss Kate Barrett, Mrs. John Dooley, Mrs. P. R. Kelly, Mrs. J. J. Collins, Mrs. W. H. Hornbrook, Mrs.

A. Stark, Mrs. Alton Coates, Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. O. D. Austin, Miss Volena Smith and Miss Hazel Hockinsmith.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the members of the New Idea Club at the home of Mrs. C. M. Kendall on Thursday. The afternoon was spent in "stunts" and in the discussion of the Red Cross work in which the club will take an active part. Dainty refreshments were served in the effectively decorated rooms.

Friday evening, Bryant's Park will be the scene of a delightful picnic supper given by the Queen Esther girls of the Methodist church. A delicious supper will be served and the evening taken up in races and games.

The Devil Egg Club gave a charming dinner party with Mrs. H. J. Kavanaugh as honor guest at the home of Miss Anna Schultz on Thursday evening. The table was beautifully decked with roses and tulip bows and covers were laid for about twenty-five guests. Tables of 500 were arranged for the evening.

One of the most attractive and delightful parties of the week was the garden party on the lawn of the Cusick home on Seventh street, for which Miss Sally Cusick was hostess. A delicious lunch was served in the tea house after which the guests went to the home of Miss Margaret Cathey, for a dancing party. The spacious veranda was hung with Japanese lanterns and the dancing was on the porch and the lawn. The parties were honoring Miss Bernice Duncan, a popular girl of the younger set who leaves shortly for California. The guest list included Florence Fortmiller, Virginia Rathbone, Dorothy Gilbert, Grace Fairfax, Sally Cusick, Margaret Cathey, Beverly Taylor, Clare Hunt, Hubert Fortmiller, Roy Harris, Royal Archibald, Elmo Robinson, and Lloyd Johnson.

The Sir Knights and Lady Macabees will entertain the Corvallis Sir Knights and Lady Macabees Saturday night at the lodge hall. A very elaborate program has been arranged and all the Macabees and their families are expected to be present.

Among the most notable and delightful affairs in the society calendar for this week was the recital given by Mrs. Frances Wilson in the attractive Willson Studios Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were artistically decorated with Spring blossoms and potted plants. The pupils played exceptionally and showed unusual talent. The program included:

- Sans Parole, Mary Woods
- Shepherd's Song, Elizabeth and Genevieve Young
- (a)—Murmuring Spring
- (b)—By the Brook
- Frances Marsh
- Coronation March
- Mary and Henrietta Davis
- Ballade
- Henrietta Davis
- Shepherd Boy
- Mary Davis
- Home, Sweet Home
- Margaret and Frances Warneke
- Intermezzo
- Barbara Pfeiffer
- Album Leaf
- Margaret Warneke
- Etude Concone
- Frances Haas
- Spanish Dance
- Frances Haas and Margaret Warneke
- Sonata
- Frances Haas, Mrs. Wilson

The attractive home of Mrs. Bert Veal was the scene of the Covered Dish Club supper party on Saturday. The tables were placed on the roomy veranda screened in with ferns and flowers. Tables of "500" were arranged in the artistically decorated rooms.

Mrs. L. L. Swan left Thursday for an extended trip East. She will visit relatives in Spokane, Denver and Sioux City.

ALBANY COLLEGE NOTES

E. D. Botts, Palmer D. Crampton, and Kenneth Diven are working in the lumber mill at Mill City.

Professor W. W. Hodge left for his home in Madison, Wisconsin, yesterday, taking the Northern route via the Canadian Pacific, and down by steamer on the lakes.

Miss S. Vesta Lamb has been elected to a position in the office of the Extension Department of the O. A. C., and has already begun her work.

Miss Bertha McCormick is employed for the summer as one of the secretaries at Seabeck, Washington. Francis W. Tolles is visiting his home at Emmet, Idaho, expecting to return to Albany in time for the mobilization of the Coast Artillery corps July 15.

Oscar W. Doble has been transferred from Goat Island to the steamship Iroquois, and undoubtedly will soon be "somewhere on the Pacific." His address is U. S. S. Iroquois, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco.

Inquiries are coming in nearly every day from new students with reference to the work and opening of the College in September.

The indication is that the Freshman class will be the largest in the history of the College.

It has been decided that College will open in the fall at the usual time, unless unforeseen circumstances change the date. It is the earnest advice of Secretary of War Baker, and others in authority, that the Colleges go right along in their work, and they also suggest that the highest form of patriotism for high school graduates is to pursue their education. This is likewise the opinion of Albany College, and for that reason it will open September 17, 1917, for its fifty-second year.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening, and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.
