..... No One But God and I Knows What Is In My Heart

NO ONE BUT GOD AND I KNOWS WHAT IS IN MY HEART!
And no one but God knew what was in the heart of the Stranger.
The Man of Mystery who came to the Desert—and to the Woman!
And in the end came Agony of Mind! In the End came the Terrible Revelation! In the end the Woman—paid! Paid as she always does!

Weather Report—

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 44 and 77 degrees. The river dropped to 5.2 feet above low water.

Yes, the Riding Was Good—

Yesterday afternoon the natives between Albany and Jefferson were startled by a most unusual sight. In order to do something different Miss Anne Dawson and Miss Carolyn Cannon borrowed the bicycles of John Cusick and David Mason and rode to Jefferson. To appreciate the feat it must be understood that John Cusick and David Mason are small boys and they own very small bicycles. In spite of the inconvenience and the fact that there was much knocking of knees upon the handle bars, and a spill or two, the girls reached Jefferson.

Signal Men Leaving—

Alton B. Coates and Charles Gould of the local office of the Pacific Telephone Signal Corps. They will be stationed in training at Monterey, phone Co., leave tonight for San Francisco to join the United States California. Coates will have the rank of first-class sergeant, and Gould as a corporal. Clark Huston and Glen Elkins, Albany boys in the service of the telephone company at Eugene, also leave tonight. The company to which the Albany boys will belong will be commanded by a well-known former Portland man, C. H. Moore, who was formerly District Superintendent of this division.

Wool Shipped East—

A carload of wool, 30,000 pounds, was shipped from Albany this morning by the Albany Tannery. The wool was consigned to Boston direct. The shipment is worth in the neighborhood of $20,000. Willamette valley wool is now bringing a high price, the farmer receiving around 60 cents a pound for his product.
