The most elaborate and successful musical affair which has been given in Albany for many seasons was the concert of Thursday night, supervised by Prof. Ludwig Wilson and Mrs. Frances Wilson, benefiting the Red Cross. The armory was decked in a gala attire of garden flowers and flags making an attractive place for this occasion. The program which was excellently rendered, consisted of a number of interesting musical numbers. The members of the Red Cross dressed in white and wearing arm band and head dress ushered the people to their places. Dainty little girls with baskets of bouquets stood at the door and sold them to the audience.

Prof. Wilson is teacher of violin music and Mrs. Wilson instructor of piano. They have taught in Albany for several years and have a large class of pupils.

Mrs. C. V. Little is one of the charming hostesses of the week, as she entertained the members of the Leisure Hour club on Friday afternoon. The rooms where the guests passed the afternoon in fancy work, were prettily adorned with wild flowers and roses. Miss Mae Tillman and Miss Volma Smith assisted the hostess in serving a dainty lunch.

Mrs. J. M. Hawkins delightfully entertained this afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. H. M. Hawkins of Salem, and Mrs. W. Robert McMurray of Portland, with one of the popular Bridge Teas. Guests played bridge at several tables arranged for that game. Roses in abundance were the effective decorations of the rooms. Later in the afternoon several additional guests came in to partake of the choice refreshments.

Mrs. W. H. Davis entertained on Tuesday with a Tea, honoring Mrs. George A. Westgate of Portland. Several friends of Mrs. Westgate were bidden for the afternoon. The rooms of the Davis home were effectively trimmed with an abundance of wild flowers. During the afternoon Mrs. H. B. Cusick sang.

Mrs. F. P. Nutting was a motif of Wednesday evening when Mrs. Winifred Worrell entertained with a dinner party at the Hotel Albany. A centerpiece of mixed flowers decked the table around which several guests were seated.

The members of the Red Roses of the Maccabees were hostesses to the Pink Roses on Thursday of this week when they entertained with a chicken dinner party. About 75 guests encircled the table which was decorated beautifully carrying out the red color scheme with roses and candle shades. Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle acted as toastmistress and Mrs. M. McAlpin responded from the pink roses. Mrs. A. Austin responded from the Red Roses. A pleasant social hour followed.

On Thursday of this week the Neelcraft club met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wilson. The rooms were artistically decorated with red ramblers, which gave a very charming effect. During the afternoon Mrs. Chas. Essex gave a very beautiful vocal selection, which was greatly appreciated by her friends. Later in the afternoon a business meeting was held at which it was decided that the club members would donate $5 toward the Red Cross fund. The invited guests were Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Peters (Pendleton), and Mrs. Walter Stuart.

An interesting event of Thursday evening was the indoor picnic given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis by the members of the P. E. O. and for the pleasure of their husbands and families. Decorations about the rooms were of margarettas, greenery and wild flowers. After attending the Wilson concert at the armory the guests returned to the Davis home where they compelled the evening in playing cards.

On Tuesday evening the Eastern Star held an unusually large social meeting, entertaining guests from Lebanon and Jefferson, who numbered about 80. The decorations consisted of quantities of various flowers used about the rooms. The program which was given was composed of a quartette by Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mrs. A. B. Wilson, Dr. C. V. Little and Mr. Wm. Fortmiller, a vocal selection by Miss Hazel Hockensmith, a classical dance by Miss Louise Mason, reading by Miss Eva Hall, a vocal duet by the Misses Wilma Junkin and Rita Medin. Refreshments were served by a committee, the chairman being Mrs. M. D. Weills.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cyrus was the scene of a jolly party on Wednesday evening when the members of the Coterie Club gave a covered dish supper.

Baskets of roses hanging about the rooms made them very attractive. After supper written biographies of all the guests caused a great deal of amusement. Those who enjoyed the evening were Mrs. Chas. Curry, Mrs. A. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nutting, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cyrus, Miss Hazel Traver.

On Saturday afternoon of last week, Mrs. P. R. Kelly entertained the members of the Monday Bridge Club at her home. The afternoon was taken up in bridge completed with a lunch.

A dinner will be served this evening in the First Presbyterian church, to the people who are in Albany attending the postal clerks convention. The Ladies Aid Society will serve at the several tables which have been effectively decorated with flowers of red, white and blue, the color scheme carried throughout the decorations.

The E. T. Club members gave a surprise party last night honoring Miss Grace McConley and her house guest, Miss Esther Van Osedale (Cottage Grove). The evening was passed socially at the McConley home and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. B. Essex was a guest of Sterlings of Brownsville and Lebanon, to motor to Portland and spend a few days this week.

The R. B. Club met this week on Wednesday evening at the home Mrs. C. W. Sears, where they passed a social time. Refreshments brought a jolly evening to a close.

The Annette Club, a social club of the Eastern Star met Wednesday afternoon at the Masonic hall. A business meeting was held and a social time enjoyed.

The S. S. S. Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Jeff Isom, on Thursday afternoon. Profusions of roses were used about the rooms in decorative effect. A pleasant social time was passed in fancy work, completed with refreshments.

On Wednesday a very appetizing picnic supper was enjoyed by the members of the Blue Flower Club of Grace church at the Lone Pine Club on Pennywinkle creek. Kodaking and games of croquet were pleasant features of the afternoon and evening. This occasion was given in honor of the departure of Mrs. Ralph Knotts, for her new home in Canada, and Miss Lucile Diven, for Sitka, Alaska.

Mrs. Earl Canfield was a hostess of Friday afternoon when she entertained for the members of the Neos Numphic Club. The afternoon was spent in sewing and a delightful social way. Decorations about the rooms were of red, white and blue roses, crepe paper and flags. Throughout the luncheon the patriotic scheme was also carried out. Fire crackers and flag pins were favors for each guest. The guests including Mrs. Roy Nutting, Mrs. Brotherton, Mrs. Ward Cyrus, Mrs. Clinton Straney, Mrs. Chas. Leonard, and Mrs. Loyal Marquam, who is an old member of the club visiting in Albany.

A Rose Tea was the attractive affair of Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. N. Palmer, when she entertained honoring her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Rochford of Seattle. Roses were the main flowers used throughout the decorating and rose place cards added to the scheme. The guests to enjoy this were Mrs. A. W. Rochford (Seattle), Mrs. G. M. Junkin, Mrs. M. D. Weills, Mrs. C. L. Monson, Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mrs.

Russell (Athena), Mrs. Gus Abraham and Mrs. Palmer.

The T. E. D. E. Club members were entertained delightfully at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shortridge, on Monday evening. Several young men were invited to spend the evening and the occasion was for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thompson, a newly married couple of San Francisco. After an elaborate supper, cards were the enjoyable diversion of the evening.

A picnic was the occasion of Tuesday afternoon when the members of the First Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed the day in Bryant's Park. Games and races were the diversions and at the supper hour a picnic "feed" was laid out.

The members of the United Presbyterian church of Oakville and Shedd joined with those of Albany on Thursday to enjoy a big picnic. The entire day was spent in picnic fashion with races and games. The delicious lunches served were also a main feature.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church at the attractive home of Mrs. Harry B. Cusick on West Seventh street, Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Diven read a very interesting paper on Alaska, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Thelma Richards, a popular member of the younger set, has returned from Portland. Miss Richards was extensively entertained in the city where she was the guest of her aunt.

Buying at HOME

"I buy at home because my interests are here.
Because the community that is good enough for me to live in, is good enough to buy in.
Because I believe in transacting business with my friends
Because I want to see the goods.
Because I want to get what I buy when I pay for it Because every dollar I spend at home stays at home.
and works for the community in which I live.
Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods.
Because I sell what I produce here at home.
Because the man I buy from helps support my school.
my lodge, my church, my home.
Because when ill luck, misfortune or bereavement comes, the man I buy from is here with his kindly greeting, his words of cheer, and his pocketbook if need be. Here I live and here I buy."
We are here to make these thought of yours come true.
