MARKET NEWS

North Portland, July 3.—The receipts of cattle were rather liberal in the yards yesterday including a train load from California and a good shipment of grain-fed stuff from Central Oregon. Buyers were plentiful and their tastes seemed to be in harmony, and leaning decidedly toward fat well finished steers which sold readily at $10.25 to $10.50, common to medium stuff brought $9.00 to $9.50 with a rather slow tendency. Stocker and feeder steers brought $6.00 to $8.00 and sold readily. Cows were very plentiful in the yards and moved slowly at a lower figure than last week. Some good cows sold for $9 but a good many went from $6 to $8.50. There is a steady tone to the market on bulls, there being ready buyers at steady prices ranging from $5.00 to $7.50.

Hogs

The general tone of the hog market yesterday and today has been strong with an advance of 10 to 15 cents. Several carloads sold at $15.75 while the bulk went at $15.50 to $15.75, with some light hogs going at $15.45. The feature of the day was a load of choice hogs from Joseph, Oregon, tipping the scales at a 260-pound mark and topping the market at $15.90, these hogs showed extra ordinary killing qualities and were considered some of the best hogs ever offered here.

Sheep

The sheep market remains unchanged from conditions prevailing at the close of last week's market. The supply is very light with a falling tendency in most varieties. Lambs are being quoted at $12.75; yearlings, $9.50; wethers $8.50 to $9.00; with very little demand for culls at $5.00 to $6.00.

"Skeeter Bill" Winning—

Manager Clarence Adams of the Albany Round-Up, yesterday received a telegram from "Skeeter Bill" Robbins, who left here the last minute before this show to attend the San Jose Round-Up, that he had won his way to the finals in bull-dogging and steer roping and stood a good chance to win. Two of his brothers are also doing well, and his wife, Dorothy Morrell, also is making a good showing. While there was a great deal of disappointment and some hard feeling over their departure, they made many friends while here who will congratulate them upon their good luck. They have attended the San Jose round-up for the past three years, and the management made them such an attractive offer that they felt compelled to accept. Dorothy wept real tears on leaving Albany and wanted to stay.
