scores of visitors remarked that never before in the history of the Willamette valley have as many machines been assembled at any one point as were seen in Albany on that date.

One Recruit Yesterday—

Sergeant Ballantyne, Co. L, Third Oregon Infantry, who is in the city recruiting new members for the Third Oregon Regiment, reports that Olin Goldman of Corvallis, who has been working in this city, has applied and has been accepted. Sergeant Ballantyne states that he has received many inquiries and that many married men, fearing that they will be conscripted, have applied for admission. No married men are being taken now, however. Sergeant Ballantyne will be at the Hotel Albany until Saturday noon, and those wishing to volunteer for the infantry should see him early Saturday morning.

PLAINVIEW CHURCH NOTES

We had a large attendance at our church last Saturday. Dr. Riley preached a strong sermon on "Our Bible. When did we get it and Why?" at 11. In the evening he gave an address on Catholicism Gaining: Protestantism Waning.

Mr. Riley is an eastern man from the city and is a fine pulpit orator. His audience has doubled in the past three weeks. You will be pleased if you hear him.

Next Sunday, July 8, Dr. Riley will preach a special sermon to old people in the morning at 11. He will sing one of his own songs, "The Old Shall Grow Young There Forever."

Be sure to come and bring some old person with you.

The evening service will consist of special music and an address by the pastor on "My Travels in Old Mexico." The crowds are coming. Will you be there?

The Globe theatre management, ever alert to secure Broadway successes for its patrons has made the necessary arrangements whereby it will play D. W. Griffith's latest great spectacle "Intolerance," for two days, July 11 and 12. In every respect, including a symphony orchestra of thirty, the production to be seen here will be the same as the one that ran for six months at the Liberty theatre, New York.

Words are quite inadequate to tell of the spectacular wonders of this latest Griffith success. Such stupendous scenes as those showing ancient Babylon in all its splendor, its mighty walls and magnificent palaces and temples; Golden Judea at the time of the Nazarene, and Medieval Paris when Catherine de Medici was a dictator of royal policies, in themselves make "Intolerance," the most amazing theatrical offering of all time. That the newspaper dramatic critics of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Los Angeles have praised it as no theatric offering was ever praised before signifies that this latest work of the world-famous Griffith commands the attention of every theatre-goer.
