The lure of the "wild west" is strong and the usual teas and parties were pushed into the background by the Western Oregon Round-Up in Albany July 2, 3 and 4. Society folk flocked to the grounds by sunrise addition and clubs and "afternoons" were forgotten in the fascination of the Pony Express, the cow boy poet, and the like. Motor parties from Salem, to Portland, and other neighboring cities joined Albany society in the three days of celebration and the Round-Up proved to be of the biggest social events of the season.

One of the handsomely appointed affairs of the week was the elaborate dinner at the P. D. Gilbert home on South Ferry street on July third, in honor of the twenty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert. The table was artistically decked in pink and white garden blossoms and covers were laid for the Gilbert family. Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Norman (Helen Gilbert) of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick McCally (Grace Gilbert) of Grants Pass, and Leland Gilbert of Astoria, returned to Albany for the reunion which is of particular importance because of the departure of Glen and Walter Gilbert with Fifth Company, C. A. A. C., July 15 for training camp.

One of the most delightful parties of the younger set was the breakfast for which Miss Lucille Longbottom was hostess on Saturday morning. The table was attractively decked in many-hued garden blooms and tiny cards marked the places for the charming young guests.

Clad in overalls and bloomers the guests took an early morning hike thru the woods to the river, returning to Miss Longbottom's for the eight o'clock breakfast.

Miss Ardeth Greene, an attractive Portland maid, is the house guest of Miss Margaret Cathey.

An elaborate picnic supper was enjoyed by the members of Beta Gamma on Bryant's Island Friday evening. The time was spent in games and fancy work under the big trees.

Miss Fay King of Portland, is spending the week with Miss Ruth Rawlings.

The Catheys, Martin Hawkins, W. G. Ballacks, Simpsons, John Hulburts, and Miss Ardeth Greene enjoyed a picnic supper at Hackleman's Grove on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund (Pete) Anderson of Carson, Washington, are visiting Mrs. Geo. Hofflich for the week. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will return to Carson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roberts, who are well known in Albany, were guests of friends here during the Round-Up.

Mrs. William Anderson (Kate Cowan) and son, Roger, of Oakland, California, are guests of Mrs. Rocky Mason and Miss Flora Mason for the week.

Mrs. P. A. Young was hostess at a six-o'clock supper party at the Young residence on Sixth street, the Fourth. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts (Salem), Mr. Carl Gabrielson (Salem), Miss Flora Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cusick.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nevins, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Cannon and Miss Peggy Cannon motored down from Portland to spend the Fourth at the home of Miss Flora Mason.

Mrs. Will Barrett was the hostess at a picnic supper honoring Mrs. H. A. Nelson and Mrs. Dom Zan of Portland. The guests included Mrs. Philip Carroll, Mrs. Anna Hunt, Miss Gertrude May of Portland, and Mr. Nolan of San Francisco.

Mrs. M. D. Barrett, Mr. Frank Barrett, Miss Irene Barrett and Miss Lucille Loughary will motor to Dallas, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McMurray (George Taylor) were guests of Mrs. Geo.

Taylor during the Round-Up. Mr. and Mrs. McMurray returned to their home in Portland on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slater of Portland, have been the house guests of Miss Zona Haight for the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis entertained with a picnic supper on the attractive lawn of the Davis home, Wednesday evening. The guests were Mrs. Frances Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Penfield (Portland), Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wolff (Portland), Dr. Sherman Davis, and Mrs. Bloom and Miss Frances Olin of Mill City, who is the house guest of Mrs. Frances Wilson.

Miss Lucille Loughary of Dallas, is the charming guest of Miss Irene Barrett at her home on Eighth street.

4th of July Celebration at Fayetteville
Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Miller entertained a number of friends at a chicken dinner and all the good things that go with it, including strawberry shortcake and ice cream galore.

In the evening the guests were entertained with a side show consisting of the Fat Lady, Little Golden Heels of the Golden West, weight only seven hundred fifty-two pounds, Miss Rose Nitzel the Lady Snake Charmer, Miss Isabelle McBride, who performed miracles with her basket of coiled snakes, the Gypsy Fortune Teller, Miss Morgan, told of the great fortune coming your way for only twenty-five cents. The Italian Curly Wolf Dog, the only one, on exhibition, well worth the admittance price of ten cents. The race by Mrs. Saxton and L. C. Miller, was quite exciting, the lady reaching the goal first. Mrs. Painter, manager and spieler for show, drew the crowds with her megaphone. Master Howard Painter entertained with a number of readings which were very much enjoyed.

In the evening ice cream and cake was served, followed by fire works, which were immensely enjoyed by all. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller and children, Helen, Claire, Stanley and Stanford; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Painter and son, Howard; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lawson; Geo. Lawson of Marshfield; Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Potterton of Seattle; Mrs. Geo. W. Leeper, G. W. Califf of Oregon City, Rupert Leeper, Rev. C. B. Rees of Shedd; Grandma Miller, Misses Isabelle McBride and Rose Nitzel. All went home praising Mr. and Mrs. Miller for their hospitality and as royal entertainers.

Mrs. A. Bowers was the charming hostess at a supper party at the Elite on Friday evening after the installation of the officers of the Rebekah lodge. The affair which was one of the most attractive of the week was for the pleasure of those ladies deputized by the District Deputy President to assist in the installation of officers. Those present were Mrs. C. W. Sears, Mrs. E. N. Merrill, Miss M. K. Merrill, Mrs. B. F. Schoel, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. C. McChesney, Miss Naomi Bodine, Mrs. H. A. Warford, Mrs. A. Bowers, district deputy president.

GERMAN VESSEL

Bremerton, Washington, July 6.—The Prinz Waldemar, seized by the government at the declaration of war against Germany, is being repaired today at the Puget Sound navy yard and will see service in the United States navy. The Prinz Waldemar was active early in the war as a commerce raider and was interned at Honolulu. The crew damaged the vessel just before federal authorities took possession of it at Honolulu. Poison was found in the drinking water of the ship.

Annie Therese Davault
In "Polly of the Circus"
Gifted Dramatic Reader Presents Warming Interpretation at Chautauqua

ANNIE THERESE DAVAULT, one of the most gifted dramatic readers in America, is to be featured on the Ellison-White Chautauqua, in an interpretation of "Polly of the Circus." With astonishing success under the grilling eyes of the best critics, Miss Davault has scored repeated triumphs in the reading of "The Melting Pot," "Music Master," "Peg O'My Heart" and Dickens' "Christmas Carol." In "Polly of the Circus," Miss Davault completely mirrors all the tender charm of the incomparable little play.

Look and Feel
Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath. Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter. Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs. The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Electric Ranges Are Clean Safe Reliable

"When I get back My Dinner will be ready to serve"

An Electric Range Is a Thing of Beauty

Something every woman admires and wants in her kitchen but not for beauty alone.

Because electric ranges employ no open flame for heat—they are clean and safe.

Because they are clean they are sanitary

Because they are not subject to the whims of dampers and drafts and flues they are reliable.

More than all else—modern housewives prefer and use electric ranges because they are economical and produce superior results with less trouble. Ask about the new cooking and heating rate—and decide to take advantage of the low price time payment offer before it expires.
