DEMOCRAT'S STORY BRINGS "EATS" FOR SOLDIERS

Albany Men at Training Camp Appreciate Generous Gifts from Maidens

That the article in the Democrat last month suggesting that the fair ladies of this city send candy to the boys at the Officers' Reserve Training Camp at San Francisco, had its effect is stated in a letter received here yesterday from George A. Pritchard, a member of 21st Squad, Fifth Company, R. O. T. C.

Mr. Pritchard states that as a result of the story the members of the squad received 16 boxes of candy and many letters. The members of the company are busy acknowledging the candy and letters. Other articles of delicious food were also received.

But the strange part about it all is the fact that more gifts were received from out of Albany than in the city. Boxes came from Portland, Astoria, Sheridan, Dallas, Peoria, and other places.

No doubt the supply is low by this time, and any other young ladies wishing to earn the undying gratitude of the men on duty will find it an easy matter by simply sending a nice box of home-made candy, cake or other morsels not served in the army.

VALUABLE ANKLE

Portland, Ore., July 18.—Ten thousand dollars is the value of a pretty ankle, according to Miss Johanna Wilson, waitress, who says she slipped on some mashed potatoes and injured her ankle. The graceful curve is gone. Temptingly short skirts are tabooed by her. Today she has on file in the Multnomah county circuit court a $10,000 damage suit against the restaurant, alleging that she is permanently injured.

ONE AT A TIME

Portland, Ore., July 18.—Lee Banks, 27, might have thought that one wife was not enough. Or, perhaps he was trying to live the sailor tradition and have a girl in every port. At least, 'tis alleged, he put the following ad in the papers in spite of the fact that he already had one wife:

"Wanted—To hear from girl between 21 and 25. Object matrimony." Mrs. Banks reads the papers and she saw her husband's ad. She promptly had her mate arrested. One wife at a time is enough, she says, while her husband is said to take the stand that one wife at a time is too many.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it falls, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Newsdays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 64-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which carries the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
