UNION SERVICE SCHEDULE FOR SUMMER ANNOUNCED

Churches Will Unite During Summer With Each Minister in Charge of Own Church

The union services for the summer will be in the following churches and the pastor of the church will preach:

July 22—First Presbyterian church, Dr. F. H. Geselbracht.

July 29—Methodist church, Rev. C. E. Gibson.

August 5—Baptist church, Rev. G. H. Young.

August 12—United Presbyterian church, Rev. D. Loyd Morgan.

August 26—First Presbyterian church, Dr. W. H. Lee.

The service Sunday night will partake of the nature of a farewell to Dr. Geselbracht, who leaves shortly for the University of Kansas. Everybody is welcome.

Citizens of Albany no doubt will take this opportunity to express their high personal esteem of Dr. and Mrs. Geselbracht.

OAKVILLE

Hay crops are good this year but prospects for grain are poor on account of lack of rain.

The W. C. T. U. meets at the home of Mrs. Amanda Stockton's Wednesday, July 18, to sew for the Red Cross.

Mr. Ernest Hammer, "the Air Plane Man," is spending the summer at the home of Mr. H. Holstein and helping with the hay.

Miss Erna Wachtendorf is going to teach the primary room at Oakville. Mr. and Mrs. H. Holstein were seen in Albany Sunday.

Mr. J. C. Brown, who attended the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian church, gave an account of the proceedings of the Assembly last Sabbath.

Mrs. Charley Patterson fell last week and broke her arm, but is getting along nicely now.

The Oakville Red Cross auxiliary meets at the home of Mrs. H. B. Vickers Tuesday, July 24.

Hayward-Johnson Bible Lectures

Professor G. E. Johnson of Portland, who is with Evangelist Hayward in the meetings in the big tent, on the old Central school grounds for two weeks beginning Sunday night. A special feature of the meetings will be the music which is under the charge of Professor Johnson, whose long experience as choir leader and music director qualifies him for this work. Besides the special music each night there will be a twenty-minute rousing song service for everybody, before the lecture. The subject for Mr. Hayward's lecture on the opening night will be "The World War in the Light of the Bible." These lectures are all free, and everybody is invited to attend.

CITY NEWS

Red Cross Benefit—

A Red Cross Dance and ice cream social will be given for the benefit of the Red Cross at Sand Ridge Grange Hall Saturday evening, July 21.

Here on Business—

John Shepherd of Thomas, was in the city for a short business trip yesterday.

Here from California—

Mrs. Chester Owen of Kennett, California, was in Albany yesterday visiting friends. She has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Densmore of Lebanon, for a couple of weeks.

Going to Portland—

Mrs. Hattie Hamilton left this morning for Portland for a few days' visit.

Weather is Hot—

Mrs. Grint Pirtle who is near Loma, Montana, visiting at the home of her son, Roy Pirtle, states that the weather is mighty hot and that she would prefer the north porch of the St. Charles to the infernal blasts that sweep the plains.
