LIBERTY LOAN BUTON FOR NICHOLAS

Nick Romanoff, ex-czar, must be a pretty good sport after all. Russia happens to be following our example with a "Liberty Loan" of her own.

The fact that his own liberty is considerably restricted by prison walls doesn't deter him at all from contributing cheerfully to help clinch the freedom of the people who jailed him.

He can't buy any great quantity. Nicholas is no longer a Rockefeller. His petition reveals the interesting fact that his private fortune, lately one of the greatest in the world, has shrunk to $450,000.

Possibly it's thrift as much as patriotism that inspires the Romanoffs. They may have held a family council and decided to salt down what money they had left while they had it.

Says a New York leader. "No one can call himself a Socialist who would hesitate to prefer the stripes to a uniform." And the New York World blandly replies: "Putting the matter as kindly as possible to our Socialist fellow citizens who have assumed this pose, we must say to them that in due course their tastes in this matter will be fully gratified."

CUMMINGS CATCHES THEM THREE AT A TIME

Tom Cummings and family returned yesterday from Newport. Cummings reports that he has them all beat when it comes to fishing. He pulled them out three at a time.

Mr. Cummings made the trip in his car and got through fine with the exception of one hill. Here the family got out and helped push the car uphill. At another place he ran out of gasoline and had to go back seven miles after a supply.

WOULD YOU WIN SUCCESS?

Then Play the Game of Safety First, and Play It Well.

All the world loves a winner when the contest has been fairly played. The local baseball team receives far greater enthusiasm and support when it is winning than when it is repeatedly losing.

Said Abraham Lincoln, "I don't think much of the man who is not wiser to-day than he was yesterday." No truer words could be written of the safety first game. If you would be a winner, each day must find you wiser, keener and more alert than the day before.

Nor is this game ever ended. Each new day calls for a better score. New conditions surround us, and all of our faculties, the best that is in us, are challenged to increased effort.

For your own sake, for the sake of the family at home, the wife and children, the mother or sister, play the game, and play it well. Play it with the interest, the spirit, the enthusiasm, that will make you win.

Yesterday is gone—forget it. Tomorrow is yet to come—plan for it. Today is here—use it.—Common-sense.
