WINCHESTER JOINS OTHER RIFLE NAMES IN MARINES

Washington, July 24.—The fighting equipment of Uncle Sam has been augmented by the enlistment of two "Winchesters" who joined the United States Marines today. This name will be added to the roster along with Remington, Colt, Mauser, Savage, Stephens, Marlin, Smith and Wesson, and other potential sharpshooters who recently joined the "Soldiers of the Sea."

Almost every firearm and rifle manufacturer is represented by a namesake in the Marine Corps. Oddly enough, "Springfield," the rifle with which the United States military forces are equipped, has, as yet, no namesake in the ranks of the fighting sea-soldiers.

RIVERSIDE

Leland Roberts is spending the week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Atkeson and children were Benton county visitors Friday.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE TO ENJOY SUMMER CAMP

Delegates were named today to the Oregon State Baptist Young People's Union and Summer Assembly, which will be held on the State Fair grounds, Salem, July 27 to August 5th. Those who will attend from here are the Misses Mary Irvine, Elizabeth Merrill, Vera Green, Adda Ross, Myrtle La Rowe. Others will attend from here.

The session will last 10 days and the delegates will camp on the grounds, using the facilities of the state fair. The pavilion will be used as a convention hall.

Dr. G. H. Young of Albany, is one of the instructors and speakers at the sessions. Dr. W. B. Hinson of Portland, and Harry Wade Hicks of New York, are among the special speakers.

ADVERTISING TO BE DISCUSSED BY BUYERS

During Buyers' Week at Portland, August 6 to 11, the Portland Chamber of Commerce intends to make a special drive on the education of merchants in the use of advertising space in the country press. Editors of all Northwest newspapers have been invited to be present. Advertising matters will be discussed Wednesday night, August 8th, at the Auditorium, where W. H. Farley of Dayton, Ohio, is to be the speaker. At the Friday night banquet, A. E. Voorhies, publisher of the Courier at Grants Pass, will present the attitude of the country press regarding the use of space for promotion purposes as compared with the amount of advertising space purchased. It is probable that the Chamber of Commerce publicity department will be represented by Clark Woodruff, and that some expert advertising man will talk to the merchants present on the best results to be obtained from advertising and the advantage of using liberal space.

Through committees the Chamber is now attempting to secure advertising space for the country press from the big manufacturers and wholesale houses of Portland.

Phil S. Bates, secretary of the state Editorial Association, promises the attendance of 100 editors.

Visited Son—A. S. Hart has returned from Poplar, Montana, where he was visiting with his son, Scott Hart, who holds an important position of Deputy County Engineer, having complete charge of the roads and bridges in 412 square miles of territory. Ralph Stewart is also located in the same section of the state and holds a similar position. Both are making good.

Buried in Rogue River—The body of Mrs. Mary Agnes Scott, who died July 21, was taken to Rogue River on last night's train and buried at that place Tuesday. Mrs. Scott, who was the mother of S. T. Scott, local yard master of the S. P. company, died of heart trouble Saturday morning at the age of 76 years.

Big Red Wood Tree—In a recent letter received here by Cyrus Walker from his daughter, Mrs. Vernal Toda, a giant Redwood tree is described that was cut in the woods near where Mr. Toda is working at Arcata, California. The tree was 16 feet in diameter at the place it was cut four feet from the ground. It made 64 cords of shingle bolts.

MUSICAL TASTE DECLINING

Portland, Ore., July 23.—Is the war affecting our musical standing? Portland music dealers answer in the affirmative.

One song-shop proprietor explained here today that it is a conflict between quality and quantity. The extra demand for martial airs and military music is blamed.

"Anything with a military title," this dealer explained, "will sell. If it is new and the least bit catchy, people will buy it. It has run for two or three weeks, when the fickle public deserts it for another."

"The trouble is that everybody is trying to write music with a military swing, whether he has talent for that sort of composition or not. Even some good writers are yielding to the popular demand for this wartime stuff. Much of the light music of the day is the work of writers who have never had experience in composition. Little or none of the music ground out these days will last. Not a classic in a barrel of it."

"No," he continued with a chuckle, "I would hardly give you any examples of the poor music now offered to the public. Hardly be fair to the rising young composers."

In many cases the "new" military airs are simply old stand-bys worked over and fitted with new titles.

A phonograph dealer today told the same story. The sale of records, he declared, has been greatly reduced and high-class records are in slight demand. "People want just anything that carries a military note, he said."

MONEY FOUND ON DEAD SOLDIERS UNCLAIMED

London, July 7.—(By Mail) —Over $50,000, found on soldiers who have lost their lives in France, is waiting at the War Office to be claimed by the next of kin of the dead men.

As the war office is still asking for the next of kin of soldiers who died seven years ago, leaving sums of money, it is not expected that much of the present fortune will ever be claimed. The amounts left by individuals vary from a shilling to several hundred pounds.

"When I get back My Dinner will be ready to serve"

An Electric Range Is a Thing of Beauty

Something every woman admires and wants in her kitchen but not for beauty alone.

Because electric ranges employ no open flame for heat—they are clean and safe.

Because they are clean they are sanitary

Because they are not subject to the whims of dampers and drafts and flues they are reliable.

More than all else—modern housewives prefer and use electric ranges because they are economical and produce superior results with less trouble. Ask about the new cooking and heating rate—and decide to take advantage of the low price time payment offer before it expires.
