The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church gave a Missionary Tea on Wednesday at the home of Miss Flora Mason, complimenting Mrs. F. H. Geselbracht, who left on Friday for her new home in Kansas. The beautiful porch of the Mason home was artistically decorated with baskets of sweet peas. Stationed at a table centered with the peas on the porch were Mesdames R. E. Greene, E. F. Fortmiller, Miss Winslow Hutchinson and Miss Nelson McDonald, who dispensed the ices. In the dining room Mrs. Frances Pfeiffer, Mrs. W. G. Ballack, Mrs. G. A. Flood and Mrs. Charles Cusick poured at the prettily appointed table, centered with a basket of lavender flowers and tulips. Mrs. Gustav Abraham, Misses Greta Fortmiller, Beatrice Sanders, Lee Fortmiller, and Carolyn Wright served. During the afternoon, Mrs. H. S. Logan favored the guests with several piano selections and Mrs. Frank Powell sang. Mrs. Geselbracht gave an impromptu speech after which the privileged guests bid adieu to the host of honor, whom everybody hoped to see leave Albany. Mrs. Geselbracht was a woman of sterling qualities and will not only be missed in her church work but by all people of the city. The Democrat wishes both Dr. and Mrs. Geselbracht success and happiness in their new home, Lawrence, Kansas.

The members of the Linn chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution gave a dinner in honor of Mrs. F. H. Geselbracht, their charter vice regent, on Monday in the dining room of the Hotel Albany. Sweet peas artistically arranged graced the table and at each place was a pretty hand-painted place card. Mrs. L. E. Tracy, Regent of Linn chapter presided as toast mistress and the following toasts were given during the dinner course: Mr. Barrett responded "To the Occasion," Mr. Schmitt "University Days in Germany," Mrs. Patterson "Social Features of the National Convention in Washington," Mr. Weatherford "This Organization," Mrs. Hornbrook presided and called for the next toast and Mrs. Tracy responded after which Mrs. Geselbracht responded to "Her Official Relations." Dr. Geselbracht responded to the closing toast. After dinner the guests repaired to the parlor where several instrumental selections were given by Mrs. H. S. Logan. The guest list includes Dr. and Mrs. Geselbracht, Dr. and Mrs. Tracy, Messrs. and Mesdames L. L. Patterson (Salem), E. C. Anderson, W. H. Barrett, W. H. Hornbrook, H. S. Logan, A. C. Schmitt, J. K. Younger, (Portland), Radcler, L. Kroschel, Misses Emma Buchner and Miss Clara Buchner.

The Willing Workers, a class composed of young ladies of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic supper in Bryant's Park on Tuesday evening. After supper games were played and a good time followed.

Mrs. Glen Willard motored to Lebanon on Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Earl Canfield, Mrs. Clinton Straney and Miss Dale Wills. Mrs. John Neely, who was visiting there and Mrs. Vaughn and Miss Rita Bilyeu joined them for a swimming party followed by a picnic supper.

Miss Helen Essex, and Miss Pauline Burch were hostesses for a bon-fire and supper Thursday night in Bryant's Park. Their guests included Mrs. C. B. Essex, Misses Eda Krueger, Clara Morgan, Isabel Taylor, Lila McCoy, Florence Eastburn and Esther McChesney.

The Needlecraft Club members were delightfully entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bert Stevenson in Hackleman's Grove. Sweet peas and greenery were prettily arranged about the rooms and the ladies passed a pleasant afternoon together in sewing, which was brot to a close by the hostess serving a dainty luncheon. The honored guests on this occasion were Mesdames Froman, Fred Fortmiller, Venable and Miss Lee Fortmiller.

Miss Wilma Jenkins entertained a few of her friends on Monday at a wince roast across the river. Those enjoying the evening were Misses Janthe Smith, Helen Gibson, Grace McCaully, Vera Brown, Reta Mead, Wilma Jenkins, Messrs Lawrence Moore, Kenneth Burnett, Ray Taylor, Ralph Hecker, Ralph Bilyeu and Charles King.

The members of the First Presbyterian church tendered Dr. and Mrs. Geselbracht a reception in the church parlors, after the regular prayer meeting on Thursday night. A short program was given after which the guests of honor were presented with gifts, as a token from the Albany church. A few speeches followed, after which light refreshments were served.

The Annette Social Club met in its regular meeting in the Masonic Temple on Wednesday. A few new members were taken into the club and the latter part of the afternoon was passed in a social hour. The committee, Mrs. John Penland and the Misses Katherine and Alice Allen served choice refreshments at the close.

Many delightful affairs were given for Mrs. L. L. Swan, in Spokane recently, while she was visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Brown. On Monday, Mrs. S. D. Smith entertained at luncheon at Davenport's. The table was centered with sweet peas and covers laid for five guests.

On Friday, Mrs. Swan was the inspiration for a one-o'clock luncheon, for which Mrs. Harry Keedy proved to be a charming hostess. After luncheon, the hostess took her guests motoring around the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Brazeau entertained a few friends on Thursday in compliment to the Albany visitor.

Mrs. George A. Brown was hostess at a bridge luncheon last week at her home, 52307 Manito boulevard, honoring her sister, Mrs. L. L. Swan of Albany, Oregon. Mrs. Swan has been visiting in Denver and eastern cities, and is now on her way home. The decorations at luncheon were of roses and baby's breath. During the afternoon several vocal and piano numbers were given. The guests were Mrs. L. L. Swan, Mrs. T. J. Neely, Mrs. L. Shoudy, Mrs. Alex. Allard, Mrs. Otto Held, Mrs. Frank Atkinson, Mrs. G. L. Coffey, Mrs. S. D. Brazeau, Mrs. S. W. Tuell, Mrs. L. K. LeFevre, Mrs. D. L. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Cameron, Mrs. L. J. Birdseye, Mrs. Harry Keedy, Mrs. Norquist—Spokane Review.

Mrs. Paul Shoudy and Mrs. A. Allard entertained a dozen guests informally last Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. L. L. Swan, guest of Mrs. George Brown. The affair was a Kensington tea, and was given at the Allard home, 2524 Lamont. Decorations were in pink ramble roses and sweet peas—Spokane Review.

Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Ralston and family motored to Newport today. Mrs. Ralston and children will remain at the beach for a two weeks' outing and Mr. Ralston will return to Albany Monday.

Many out-of-town guests as well as Albany people attended the farewell dance in the armory last night given by the members of the Fifth Company Coast Artillery. Special Thomas orchestra furnished the excellent music during the evening. The affair was probably the last time that the people of Albany and vicinity could visit and mix with the men of the Fifth Company, as they are waiting orders to move on now any time. A large sum of money was derived from the affair which will be diverted into the mess fund for the boys.

Mrs. George Pierce, Mrs. Small and the Misses Helen and Dorothy Pearce of Salem, motored from Salem on Friday to pass a couple of days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Hopkins.

A farewell picnic was given along the banks of the Willamette River in Bryant's Park last evening by the members of Beulah Rebekah lodge in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Conn, two prominent members of the lodge and for several years holding important places in the Rebekah Degree team. Mr. and Mrs. Conn will leave soon for Malheur county to make their home and will be greatly missed by the lodge as well as by their many friends in Albany. About fifty-five members gathered in a circle around the camp fire while Mr. W. W. Francis, in behalf of the Noble Grand and members of the lodge, presented Mr. and Mrs. Conn with a beautiful silver tray having the letters I. O. O. F. engraved across the center. A wince roast was enjoyed after which games were played and familiar songs sung around the fire.

The Drum of the Ear.

The reason deaf people cannot hear is that the drum of the ear is imperfect or has been destroyed. Sound is nothing but the vibrations of the air acting on the drum of the ear. When people are quite deaf it is because the eardrum will not respond to these vibrations, but they can still feel these vibrations even if they cannot hear them. When a number of deaf mutes are sitting in a room together and one wishes to attract the attention of another he strikes his heel on the floor, and every one in the room feels the vibration and looks around to see who called. In the large asylums for the deaf and dumb the doors are hung very loosely, so that if you shake them it sets up a vibration like stamping on the floor, and that is the way they wake up deaf people that sleep too late in the morning.

SHE DID HER SHARE.

And It Was Not Upon the Blood Soiled Field of Battle.

During the first days of that most lamentable conflict that we now know as the war between the states a little woman down in South Carolina gave her husband and their four grown sons to fight for the cause that to her seemed just. She was not belittled; she was brave. A few years later a neighbor brought her word that all but the youngest boy had been killed.

At the end of the war the youngest boy returned. He was a captain and not a captain merely by courtesy. As he rode through the old plantation he saw to his intense surprise that it was in a fair state of cultivation and that foodstuffs had taken the place of cotton. He had expected to find those broad acres filled with weeds and bracken. As soon as he had proudly greeted his mother and then in turn proudly greeted by her he spoke of him. "That was my part," she told him. "You couldn't fight without having something to eat, could you?"

It was then that he noted the marks of toil on her hands, and he knew that the faithful old negroes had not done all the hard work. He brought his heels together in the military fashion and lifted his hand to the rim of his hat. "Mother," he said not very steadily, "I salute you, the greatest soldier of us all."—Hapsburg Lede.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Lives and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.
