Complimenting Mrs. Jas. H. G. Ewing, nee Hazel Hockenamith, a recent bride, the Misses Eula Hand, Lee Fortmiller, Beatrice Sanders and Carolyn Wright were charming hostesses to a party Tuesday evening at the Fred Fortmiller home on East Seventh St. Baskets of lovely old-fashioned bouquets were artistically arranged throughout the spacious rooms.

During the evening Miss Isabelle young, and Mrs. Ewing sang several beautiful solos and Miss Marciel Austin gave a pianologue.

Quite a flutter of excitement was caused when quaint old-fashioned bouquets were given each guest, and found hidden among the flowers were tiny cards announcing the engagement of Miss Carolyn Wright to Mr. Henry W. Fish. Both Miss Wright and Mr. Fish are extremely popular in social and school activities. The announcement was hastened because of the departure Wednesday of Mr. Fish to Seattle where he will join the U. S. Naval Militia band.

Miss Wright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wright of this city, and her clever personality has won her a host of friends. She is a member of the A. M. A. club and a student of A. H. S. Mr. Fish is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish of this city. He is a member of the A. T. O. fraternity at O. A. C., where he was a prominent student last winter and a member of the O. A. C. band.

After a late hour dainty refreshments were served by the four hostesses. The honored guests included the Misses Thelma Richards, Beth Ross, Hazel Ross, Esther McClesney, Louise Wieder, Isabelle Young, Marion Anderson, Zona Haight, Mae Tillman, Clara Tillman, Bertha Lee, Nellie Snyder, Anne Dawson, Carolyn Cannon, Bernice Hackleman, Velma Davis, Marciel Austin, Dorothy Lee, Mary Parker, Hildegard Spillman, Harriet Van Tassel, Olive Millhollen, Katherine Livengood, Eleanor Bruce, Linnie Conner, Ruth Bailey (Brownsville), Mona Bard (Halsey), Gertrude Swank, Ruth Fisher (Salem), Edna Cowles, Greta Fortmiller, Gladys Gilbert, Hazel Gilbert, Mesdames A. McClesney, H. Hawtin, E. Duncan, E. Fortmiller.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. Hawtin, Mrs. O. J. Hawtin, Mrs. Woodstock, Mrs. Chas. Earl and family, enjoyed a picnic over in Bryant's Park.

The Sunday school class of Miss Lee Fortmiller enjoyed a picnic over at Bryant's Park Friday evening. Those present were Georgia Wright, Evelyn Palmer, Vera Marsh, Rulla Morgan, Barba Morgan and Mary Wood.

The Monday Bridge Club met this week at the home of Mrs. A. Austin who was hostess to them. The afternoon came to a delightful close when a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Bert Veal was the honored guest.

Mr. Jas. H. G. Ewing is spending the week-end with his wife at the Hockenamith home. He has just passed the examination for second lieutenant and will leave for training camp at Presidio in a few weeks, where later he will be joined by his wife.

Miss Lee Fortmiller's home was an inspiration for a slumber party Tuesday evening when she entertained the Misses Carolyn Wright, Eula Hand, Ruth Bailey (Brownsville), Mona Bard (Halsey), Ruth Fisher (Salem), Mrs. Jas. Ewing, Beatrice Sanders on the sleeping porch. A dainty breakfast was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guth and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuchs of Sacramento, are in the city visiting a few days at the home of Mrs. Chas. Essex.

Miss Mona Bard of Halsey, is the house guest of Mrs. Jas. Ewing for a few days.

Wednesday afternoon the Neos Nymphs Club met with Mrs. Homer Dowd as hostess. A jolly time was quickly passed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. P. F. Seaver was an invited guest at this time.

Bryant's Park was the scene of a jolly picnic crowd last night when the Misses Clara Morgan, Isabelle Taylor, Gertrude Conn, Esther McClesney and Mrs. A. McClesney enjoyed a "swim" in the Willamette, followed by a bountiful supper. A bonfire was built, around which the folks made merry until a late hour.

Miss Ruth Fisher of Salem, is in the city visiting friends for several days.

Twenty-five friends of the Hazelwood Social Club met at the home of Mrs. H. B. Springer on Thursday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Ed Scott of Ashland, a former member of the club. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent and a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Harry Wicks presided at the punch bowl.

The Missionary Society met in the Methodist church parlors Wednesday afternoon. During the afternoon a delightful programme was rendered.

A very sumptuous picnic supper was enjoyed on the banks of the Willamette last Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cole and Miss Laura McBride, in honor of their guests, Miss Merlin Wilkins, a school nurse of Monmouth, Illinois, a sister of Mrs. Young and Mrs. H. D. Hanna and daughter, Elizabeth of Portland, a sister of Mrs. Cole.

Story of a Lion.

One of Sir Charles Wakefield's predecessors in office, while in the Arabian desert, came face to face with a lion of parts. Down on his knees went the worldly knight in fervent prayer. The lion understood—or did not—and retreated supperless. Thereupon the pilgrim came home and gave £200 to the Church of St. Katherine Cree, Leadenhall street, where the lion sermon is still preached on each anniversary of the escape. Oct. 13.—London Chronicle.

Velubility.

Mabel (studying her lesson)—Papa, what is the definition of "velubility?" Mabel's Father—My child, velubility is a distinguishing feature of your mother when on account of urgent business affairs I don't happen to reach home until after 2 o'clock in the morning.

HAMILTON'S

A Safe Service

To make a Safe Service is the ambition of every Tennis Player. But it takes practice to place the ball on the Tennis Court so as to put it beyond reach of your opponent. This is also true on the Merchandise Court of which we are a contestant. We know that a satisfied customer is a great asset and can be secured and made a permanent patron only by a safe service such as we render by selling merchandise of merit at an honest profit and keeping our standard up to the point where it is never in danger of a competitor.

USEFUL PUBLICATIONS MAY BE HAD FOR THE ASKING

The Union Pacific system has just taken from the press two publications, one the "Columbia River Gorge," giving a topographical map of and describing how to make a series of short jaunts into that wonderfully interesting region. Since the completion of the Highway a large number of delightful foot and pony trails have been constructed into the nearby mountain fastnesses that may be easily "negotiated" on foot in a day.

The other is a convenient indexed pocket map of Oregon, Washington, and Idaho, printed in colors and giving the latest map data of those states. These free publications are for free distribution.

Guests of Westbrooks—

E. A. Robe, assistant manager of the Hotel Portland, and Mrs. Robe, arrived in the city this afternoon and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Westbrook at the Hotel Albany. Tomorrow the party will drive to Cascadia in the Westbrook car and spend the day at that resort.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until
You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphates prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and stomach-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.
