Specials for the Little Bird to "DIGEST"

IN ADDITION TO SPECIALS ADVERTISED IN THURSDAY NIGHTS PAPERS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SELLING.

We noticed in Thursday evening's papers that the poor little "Bird" indicated us for using headings to our ads such as "Clean-Up Sale" also "Special Purchase Sale". We would suggest as a cure for this ailment the wearing of larger shoes, for it looks as though the shoes are pinching somebody's toes. Maybe the little "Bird" has decided to adopt other conciliatory methods, rather than advertising his wares, by helping his competitors, by "knocking". If the poor little "Bird" could only see our reserve stock, which is the home of our advertising man, he might feel as though he made a serious mistake in ridiculing our methods of doing business. The little "Bird" also thinks well of our experienced help by adding one of ours to his little flock. This is the real home of a nest of bargains. We show their wings before we put them on sale, so they won't fly all to one home. We try when quantities are limited to give every one of our customers a feather or two. We don't believe in this kind of advertising but it would be a shame to not give them some other reasons for their future advertising. We are plumb full of ideas, and the cost is very reasonable. Try us.
