ANCIENT PACIFISTS

History never really repeats itself, but it comes near enough to make its lessons mighty useful. There have been pacifists in all ages, muddling the fate of their countries with half-truths, twisted words and misspelled moralities.

"You can have peace at that price," he said, "but do you know what that would be? The old policy of buying out the Goth, who eventually destroyed the Roman Empire and threw Europe into the ages of barbarous cruelty."

"That policy has its undoubted advantages. I can hear the echoes of the pacifists of the day in the Roman forum dwelling on the fact that if they only buy out the Goths at a small price compared with the war, a little territory and a little cash, the Roman youth will be spared the terrors of war and their parents the anxieties of war."

"The pacifists of that day, when they had made that bargain, thought they had avoided bloodshed. They had only transmitted it to their children."

NOTICE

Official warning to Motor Vehicles Drivers in the City of Albany, Or. Section 2.—It is unlawful to park any motor vehicle within ten feet of any fire hydrant in the City of Albany, or so as to obstruct any street crossing for pedestrians.

Section 3.—A motor vehicle overtaking any other vehicle traveling in the same direction, before passing the same shall give a signal by one blast or stroke of a horn, bell whistle, gong or other signalling device, and the driver of a motor vehicle about to turn either from a standstill or while in motion, shall give timely signal by outstretched hand or in some other unmistakable manner, indicate the direction of the turn.

Section 4.—No operator of any motor vehicle shall use any acetylene, electric or other head light unless it shall be so shaded as not to blind or dazzle other users of the highway or make it difficult or unsafe for them to ride, drive or walk thereon.

Section 5.—No person shall ride or trespass upon any vehicle without the consent of the driver, nor shall any person riding upon any vehicle, sled or other conveyance hitch or hold on to any part of any other vehicle, street or interurban car without the consent of the driver thereof.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation to drive or cause to be driven any motor vehicle on any street, alley, or other public way within the corporate limits of the City of Albany, Ore., at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles an hour, and at no time at a greater rate of speed than is reasonable, having regard to the safety of the public, the traffic and the use of the street then being traveled.

No motor vehicle shall be driven upon or alongside any street, alley or public way in said city unless the person acting as the operator thereof and as such operator controls the means of propulsions of any such motor vehicle shall be a person who is at least sixteen years of age.

And no motor vehicle shall be driven on the streets, alleys, or other public way within the City by any person unable or incapable to properly control the same with regard to safety of the public and other vehicles, that in all cases any person in a state of intoxication is conclusively deemed incapable and unable to operate and control the same.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, upon conviction thereof before the Recorder's Court shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten ($10.00) dollars, nor more than twenty-five ($25.00) or by imprisonment in the City Jail for not less than five nor more than ten days.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revolution in your hair as fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use.
