CITY NEWS

Normal Opens Late—

President J. H. Ackerman of the Oregon Normal school, Monmouth, has announced that the date for opening has been changed from Sept. 10th, to Sept. 24th. This decision was made for the purpose of allowing students to assist with the season's work and to give longer period for the completion of buildings. This is in line with the policy of other institutions, nearly all of which are opening much later than usual this year to release students for longer work in the fields.

Here from Montana—

Mrs. Arch Goins and daughter, Pauline, of Great Falls, Mont., are guests at the home of Mrs. Goins' sister, Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle.

Presbyterian Services—

The minister for the services at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday will be the Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Cottage Grove, an able and forceful speaker. He will preach both morning and evening services. The evening service will be the regular Sunday union services, to which the members of the congregations of other churches are urged to attend.
