"BIG BILL" HART IN

"WOLF LOWRY" TONIGHT

"Wolf Lowry" is the title of the new Triangle-Ince play starring William S. Hart at the Globe theatre, tonight and Saturday. It is produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince and was written by Charles Turner Dazey.

As "Wolf", Lowry Hart turns from the grim, warrior-like ranchman to a man of softer nature. This great change in his life is brought about by meeting Mary Davis, who he thinks is a settler taking a claim in the midst of his domain. His friendship for her develops into love, and he becomes her champion.

Buck Fanning, a designing real estate agent visits her and makes coarse and violent love. Lowry, on his way to see Mary, arrives in time to save her and gives Buck one minute to live, but she persuades "Wolf" to not kill him.

Margery Wilson appears as the girl who enters the somber life of "Wolf" Lowry. Aaron Edwards as Buck Fanning, the real estate agent and former gambler, and Carl Ullman as Owen Thorpe are among those in the supporting cast.

ENLISTED MEN TO GET COMMISSIONS

(By United Press)

Washington, August 30.—Here's encouragement for conscriptionable youths who have not been drafted yet, who have failed to get into officers reserve training camps, and who still want to go to the front as officers:

Enlist in the regular army. If you show that you are officer material, you'll get your commission. A case in point: An anxious father wrote to Washington to get the release from the regular army of his son, who ran away and enlisted about nine months before, so he could go to an Officers' Reserve Training Camp.

"Not much," came back the answer from the commander of the company in which the son was serving. "The training camps won't get this young man. I saw him first. He made good. He's now a non-commissioned officer. I have recommended him for a commission in the regular army."

"I assure you that he will pass the examination and he will probably hold his commission and be in France before the class now at the training camps have even graduated into the officers' reserve."

This is but one of 5,000 commissions which will be issued to non-commissioned officers who rose from privates in the regular army, within the next four to six months.

FIVE DOLLARS FOR 100-YEAR-OLD NIGHTSHIRT

(By United Press)

London, August 10.—(By Mail)—They made them of more durable stuff back in the days of King Geo. IV.

A night-shirt worn by the wild-monarch, whose escapades enlivened England a hundred years ago, was exhibited in a museum here today and sold for five dollars to a curio dealer.

The five went into the coffers of a war charity.

PENDLETON TO BRING TROOP D TO ROUND-UP

Troop D, the rough riders of the Oregon National Guard, now mustered into the federal service and quartered at Camp Withycombe near Clackamas, will be brought back to Pendleton for the three days of the Round-Up, September 20, 21, and 22, if the war department will permit them to leave camp for that time.

All other arrangements for their return to Pendleton have been completed by the citizens of the Round-Up city who have dug down into their own pockets and raised a fund of $1200 to defray all expenses.

It is believed that the war department will grant this request for the patriotic effect it would have upon the 30,000 spectators daily at the Round-Up to witness the maneuvers of a troop of cavalry.

Troop D was organized at Pendleton and contains a few of the Round-Up stars and a great number of general all-around cowboys. Captain Lee Caldwell was the champion bucking horse rider in 1916 and Frank Cable won the bulldogging championship in 1915.

If they do come back to Pendleton for that event they will not be permitted to take part in any of the contests as it would be against the war department rulings.

The local committee having the undertaking in charge expect to hear from the war department within a few days. If they come the boys will be brought up in two special Pullmans with a diner and will be equipped with mounts by the Round-Up and put at the head of the Round-Up daily parades.

Hot Weather Notice

Good news for the thirsty! Here's a beverage that not only will taste good while you are drinking it, but that will leave the mouth tasting as fresh as a May morning. One, too, that has that very desirable quality of having no heating after-effects.

As a between-meals drink it has the happy faculty of always reaching that dry spot that needs irrigation. With meals, it is an ideal beverage. Not only does its flavor make it go perfectly with food, but its tang adds zest to your enjoyment of a meal—hot or cold.

Serve Bevo cold—right off the ice—lukewarm Bevo is not palatable.
