LITTLE "SLACKING"

A thorough investigation conducted in New York City by the Federal department of justice in collaboration with state authorities results in the announcement that no more than 2 per cent of men of selective service age failed to register.

"The dodgers," he says, "are mostly lodging house rounders," a shiftless and decadent type of humanity found in every city, of whom nothing much in the way of public or private service is ever expected.

If this is the case in the metropolis with its varied population, its enormous proportion of aliens and all the human flotsam and jetsam that accumulates in a great city, the average proportion of dodgers in the rest of the country must be still smaller.

Too much has been made of the slackers. Their numbers have been exaggerated. The recent round-ups have been misconstrued. The wilful dodger of military duty is a rare conception.

"THE GIRL GLORY." STARS ENID BENNETT

"The Girl, Glory," is the title of the new Triangle play starring Enid Bennett and written by C. Gardner Sullivan which will be exhibited at the Globe theatre, Friday and Saturday.

It tells the story of how a girl determines to reform her grandfather and the result of her determinations. Enid Bennett appears as Glory Wharton, the granddaughter of Jed Wharton. Jed is a civil war veteran whose only weakness is his worship of King Alcohol.

YOU SIMPLY CAN'T PULL YOUR CORSET INTO SHAPE
And make it fit by pulling on the corset strings

The fit and shape of the corset must be put there by a designer. If you've tried to make your corset fit by pulling the strings harder, you probably know how poorly you succeeded.

G-D Justrite CORSETS
Look for the little G-D Justrite tag inside each corset. It's your guarantee.

Try a G-D Justrite. You'll find it just as we say. It's the designing that makes G-D Justrite corsets different from others. You pay no more for a G-D Justrite because of its superior designing.

Prices $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $3.50 per pair
