HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Girls' Home Economics club held an election Wednesday afternoon and the following officers were elected: president, Carolyn Wright; vice-president, Hazel Gilbert; secretary, Velma Anthony; treasurer, Nina Probst; chairman for entertainment, Ruth Rawlings. As it was so close between Florence Lawson and Ada Perfect for reporter, it will have to be voted over. At a meeting of the Girls' Glee club

Tuesday afternoon, it was decided to have a covered dish supper next Wednesday, in the domestic art room.

A meeting of the student body was called Tuesday morning for the purpose of arranging a reception in honor of the sophomores, and new teachers, to be held Friday evening, October 19th, in the senior high school. The junior class held their election of officers last night. The following were elected: Frank Astburn, president; Hazel Hall, vice-president; Nina Probst, treasurer; Dale Probst, secretary; Lucille Longbottom, reporter; and Mr. Overfield, class advisor.

PUBLIC SALE OF DAIRY STOCK

I will offer at public auction, at my Dairy Barn on West Fifth street in Albany, next Saturday, the 13th, 44 head of registered and high grade Jersey Cows, Heifers and Calves. This stock is all my own raising, bred up through 4 generations of registered sires and choice cows, largely "Golden Glow" Strain. This herd is above the average of stock sold at the sales this season, and should be kept in the community to replace the Dairy Cows and Heifers that are sold and shipped out of the country at this time. Eleven months' time will be allowed or a reasonable discount for cash. Sale begins at 10 o'clock. Free lunch at noon.

Auctioneer.H. M. PALMER,
Owner.
