The most charming affair of the week was the dinner for which Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis were hosts on Friday evening at their attractive home. An old-fashioned bouquet of vari-colored flowers centered the perfectly appointed table, the place cards, pot baskets, and favors also being appropriately carried out in this clever manner. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cusick, Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Mason, Miss Flora Mason, Mr. D. P. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. William Hornbrook, and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis.

A group of theatre party last Saturday evening after which refreshments were served at the Elite. Composing the crowd were the Misses Sally Cusick, Florence Fortmiller, Dorothy Gilbert, Margaret Cathey, Evelyn Robson and Virginia Rathbone.

On Wednesday evening the R. B. club held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. C. R. Sears, on West Sixth street. White roses were used in the adornment of the rooms, with an attractive effect. During a business meeting several new motions were put before the club, and the work for the coming year was outlined. The remainder of the evening was passed with the popular diversion of 90, Mrs. A. Bowers receiving high score. Delicious refreshments were later served.

Mrs. C. R. Hoevet entertained the members of the O. D. O. club on Thursday afternoon at her home. A large basket of dahlias graced the living room where sewing and conversation were enjoyed during the afternoon, at the close of which the hostess served dainty refreshments. About 14 were present.

The Choral Society of the Christian church held its regular monthly social meeting on Thursday of this week, at the home of Rev. D. L. Morgan. Enjoying the pleasant evening with games and music, followed by light refreshments, were the Misses Una Hall, Florence Eastburn, Eva Thacker, Hazel Smith, Gertrude Bell, Elda Pentibone, Louise Dammal, Laverne Hofflich, Hazel Hall, and Messrs. James Grigsby and Clarence Brunsen.

A waffles supper was the form of entertainment enjoyed by the Beta Gamma girls on Friday evening. The home of Miss Velma Anthony, on Lyon street, was the scene of this jolly affair. The complimented guests were Miss Helen Grigsby and Miss Ada Michelson.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton, who will soon leave Albany to make their home in Astoria, were the inspiration for a hallowe'en party on Monday evening, for which the members of the Caterie club were hostesses. Autumn leaves, red dahlias and an abundance of greenery made charming decorations, and the lights dimmed with colored crepe paper added a weird touch. Pumpkins and jack-o-lantern faces were also in evidence. Spooky ghosts received the guests at the door, ushering them into the rooms. Games and a clever contest occupied the guests during the evening, and a prize was captured by Mrs. Roy Nutting. The laden baskets were later opened and a delicious supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nutting, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cyrus, Mrs. A. B. Wilson, Mr. Rufus Russell, and Miss Isabel Springer.

One of the most enjoyable and successful affairs ever given by the Lady Maccabees was given on Thursday evening at the club rooms, in celebration of the close of the new member contest, and the awarding of the banner to the Albany Review No. 2. The hall was elaborately decorated with cut flowers and greenery, the red salvia and white clematis predominating. The most interesting feature of the evening was the excellent program, for which credit is due to the chairman, Mrs. M. McAlpin.

The numbers were as follows: a piano selection by Mrs. Victor Howard, a relay race by Mesdames H. A. Warford, F. C. Pate, and F. W. Horsky, which created a great deal of merriment; a reading by Miss Winnie Merrill, a vocal trio by Miss Keith Van Winkle, Miss Nellie Strain and Mrs. McAlpin; and a tableaux by Eudora McAlpin, Maxine Willis and Neal Willis. A jolly social time ensued, and a delicious banquet was served. The table was beautiful with a profusion of pink flowers, artistically arranged. The committee in charge of this occasion were Mesdames George Willis, M. McAlpin, Ella Merrill, E. M. Crowder, J. A. Diamond and Victor Howard.

The Rural Ladies' club met on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. D. May. The afternoon was passed in a social way, and completed when a choice collation was served. Those present were Mesdames Allen, Barber, Ashton, Pike, McFarland, the Misses Mildred Allen, Nora, Hazel and Lucy Ashton, and the guests, Mrs. Ralph Stoop, and Mrs. Harry Hancock and son.

On Tuesday evening the B. F. C.'s of Grace church were entertained at the home of Miss Irene Snyder. Music, conversation and tasteful refreshments went together to make up a jolly evening. The guests at this occasion were Misses Lettie Pratt, A. A. Pratt, Mary Habberly and Bess Ziegler.

Mrs. F. F. Seavers entertained the Sans Souci club on Thursday afternoon at her home in Sunrise. The time was passed in an enjoyable way, with fancy work, music and conversation, followed by a choice lunch served by the hostess.

The Good Cheer club met in their club rooms in the Knights of Pythias Hall Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in fancy work and the usual good times. Later the ladies went to the dining room where a covered dish luncheon was served. At the table of the luncheon a large birthday cake, decorated with pink candles, was brought to the table in honor of Mrs. Margaretta Whinery's birthday.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been turned gray.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
