HEALTH HINTS

Mere Living—

"Life is not mere living but the enjoyment of health."

No Such Word—

In the bright lexicon of osteopathy, there is no such word as "rubbish."

Reason—

Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense, lie in three words—health, peace and competence.

Overdraft—

Do not make an overdraft on Nature, but intelligently aid and conserve her forces. Drugs usually violate this injunction.

Remember—

The "open faced sneeze" is taboo, if you have any regard at all for your neighbor's health.

Win War and Health—

Eliminate waste. Purchase on basis of need, not whim. Lessen the amount of food eaten. Reduce your standard of living. So says a well known man. It might be added that the above advice will save doctor bills, illness, loss of wages, etc.

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS

DR. A. P. HOWELLS

DR. MARY. HOWELLS

First Savings Bank Building.

The Osteopathic Idea—

To believe in the structural integrity of the human body; to seek the causes of disease; to have confidence in the recuperative powers of nature; to be sane; to avoid fads and extremes; to be unfettered by superstition; to stand for the truth wherever it is scientifically proven; to be optimistic; to prevent disease as well as cure it; to be tolerant; to work with Nature, not against her; to do the best thing possible under every conceivable circumstance of human suffering—this is the Osteopathic Idea.

—Osteopathic Magazine.

For Sale—

The Osteopathic Magazine, on city news stands.

Direct and Effective—

The liver performs a round half-dozen or more entirely different functions in the economy of life. No wonder that it frequently gets out of order. There is nothing as direct and effective for a congested liver as osteopathic treatment.

Eight Years Added—

It is estimated that at least eight years could be added to human life merely by securing reasonably pure air, water and milk.

—Fisher.

DR. A. P. HOWELLS

DR. MARY HOWELLS

Faith Without Works—

"Faith without works is as dead in medicine as in religion. Mental influence is little more than an introduction committee to real treatment."

Inherent Worth—

Osteopathy relies for its success upon its own inherent worth and not upon the failures and weaknesses of other healing systems.

Biology—Osteopathy—

Tells us that function depends on structure. Osteopathy proves that disordered function is curable.

JUSTING STRUCTURE.

No Miracles—

Osteopathy does not claim to cure everything. It deals in no miracles. It has nothing to do with mysticism. It does, however, induce Nature to cure a good many diseases after other methods have failed, and it most certainly cures all the usual diseases that other schools help or cure.

His Weak Spot—

You can't always tell. Tempt a good man to turn from the course of righteousness, and he is as staunch as Gibraltar; offer him some victuals that he likes, even though he knows they are not good for him, and he will eat and bump his head against the gates of eternity without a whimper.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustreous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Eggs, selected extra, 52c@53c. Sugar, $8.00.
