and the complimented guests, Messrs. L. E. Tracy, William H. Hornbrook, Joseph Meyers and O. D. Austin.

At the home of Mrs. H. M. Palmer on Fifth and Elm streets the Twentieth Century club met informally and passed a pleasant afternoon on Friday. Autumn leaves adorned the rooms where their daughter, Miss V. Kieth, was given in marriage to Vinnie R. Heinz, of Silverton. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present for the ceremony, which was preceded by a song, "Oh Promise Me," by Dr. J. O. Van Win-

A wedding of interest was solemnized at noon on Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Van Winkle, when their daughter, Miss V. Kieth, was given in marriage to Vinnie R. Heinz, of Silverton. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present for the ceremony, which was preceded by a song, "Oh Promise Me," by Dr. J. O. Van Winkle, of Jefferson. Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle beautifully rendered Lohengrin's Wedding March, as the bridal party entered. In an artistically arranged corner, with high pedestals at the sides holding vases with a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, the ceremony was performed by Dr. George W. Bennett. The long ring service was used, and the bride was given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Emma Hutchinson of Jefferson, as maid of honor, and Floyd Gray of the University of Oregon served the groom as best man. The bride was lovely in a gown of white marquisette over satin, made short and bouffant. A tulle veil which was fastened in her hair, and an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums, completed the charming effect. Miss Hutchinson wore a pretty gown of yellow Georgette crepe, and carried a yellow floral bouquet. An elaborate wedding breakfast was later served in the dining room, the appointments being well carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Heinz left in their for Silverton, where they will make their home. Mr. Heinz, owning a large walnut and prune ranch near there. Mrs. Heinz has spent nearly all of her life in Albany, where she graduated from the high school, and later from Willamette University.

The party for which Miss Bertha Lee was hostess last Saturday evening in compliment to Lieut. Earl Paynter of Vancouver Barracks, was a jolly affair, with music, games and clever contests as the diversions.

Choice refreshments were served at a late hour to the guests, who were Miss Edna McCall, Miss Gertrude Besler, Miss Jesse Paynter, Miss Flora Mason, Miss Helen Lee, Mrs. W. J. Blair (Seattle) and the Messrs. Elmer Williamson, W. W. Hodge, I. N. Madison, C. H. Chilton, Henry Volsted and Lieut. Paynter. Mr. Paynter is a cousin of Miss Jesse Paynter of Albany and has recently been transferred from Vancouver to America Lake.

On Friday evening the Beta Gamma girls enjoyed a covered dish supper at the home of Miss Hazel Hall, on East Fourth street. White chrysanthemums decked the table where the delicious supper was enjoyed by the club members. Election of officers was held, with the following results: Miss Hazel Hall, president; Miss Velma Anthony, vice-president; Miss Elepha Cummings, secretary; Miss Ruth Rawlings, treasurer, and Miss Laverne Hollich, reporter. The girls later attended the high school rally.

Dispute Over War Tax—

A dispute at the depot this morning attracted a good deal of attention. A man living at Sheild had purchased a mileage book before the war tax was due. The law requires the war tax to be paid in advance, which he could not understand. On the morning train to Albany he refused to pay the conductor the full amount. According to law, the conductor kept his book. The local agent read the law to him, and after a good deal of arguing the man paid the required tax.
