MISFITS

By F. P. Nutting

Thanksgiving day in Portland, tho a very wet one, was full of sunshine for quite a number of Albany people were here, and I have found from experience that they are about the most genial in the world.

The Misfit family had their turkey dinner, with numerous "a la's" in it, at the Hotel Seward, where Albany people seem to like to congregate.

On this occasion four or five tables were occupied by them, enjoying the fine menu.

Charley Fortmiller, with Frank Will acting as chaperone, was at one of them, following up the feast with a trip to Multnomah Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Hi Torbet, two of Albany's fine young people, were at another. No one would have taken them for a bride and groom, so well did they play their part.

At another were Will Barrett and Bob. The way Bob is growing lead me to think that this was not the first turkey he has tackled. A few more Thanksgivings and he'll be a six-footer. Catherine was also in the city with her aunt Anna.

Miss Marion Anderson was eating with some Portland friends.

Hubbell Young, of the O. A. C., was a guest of honor at one of the tables.

Jack Penland was out in the lobby—an old star football player himself, once on a time—going early to the field to be on hand for the game.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, of Salem, and Mrs. W. Lair Thompson, were in the lobby. Dr. Thompson has built up a large practice. He has the honor to be a member of the state accident commission. W. Lair Thompson is in Eastern Oregon on a legal trip.

Shortly afterwards, met Mr. and Mrs. Grif King, who reside out on the Mt. Scott line, where Mr. King has a real estate office, and reported a good business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. French spent the day with their daughter, Mrs. R. W. Williams and family, and while not seeing them personally, yet we felt the vibrations of their friendly voices thru the phone.

For one day Mr. Hoover was forgotten in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Curry reside at Broadway and Montgomery. Mrs. Curry's sister, Miss Adra Perfect, spent Thanksgiving day with her.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown Druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
