about the rooms in an effective manner. Those substituting for absent members were Miss Zona Haight, Mrs. Walton Worrell, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. U. G. Smith and Mrs. John French.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Sloan entertained a number of friends last night with a charming dinner party at their home. Suggestive of the Christmas season, red bells and green and red were used in the table decorations. Place cards marked the places for Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Daniels, Dr. and Mrs.

F. E. Beauchamp, Mr. Harvey Beauchamp, Miss Wilma Beauchamp, and Mr. and Mrs. Sloan.

The Sans Souci club met at the home of Mrs. Roy Dowd on Thursday of this week. A delightful time was passed socially and a light lunch was served. The complimented guests were Mrs. Clarence Loomis and Mrs. Morris Dowd.

The girls of the Blue Flower club of Grace church held their regular monthly social on Monday at the Lone Pine Clubhouse. Among enjoyable features was the portion read from the book, "The Blue Flower," by Van Dyke, and the imitation of four new members, the Misses Bess Ziegler, Elizabeth Sylvester, Hattie Engstrom and Mary Haberly, making a membership of ten. A marsh-mallow roast and music completed a pleasant evening.

The ladies of the Wednesday Embroidery club gave one of their delightful annual Thanksgiving dinners at the Morning Star Grange hall on Thanksgiving day, for the pleasure of their families and relatives.

About 65 partook of the bountiful laden tables. A splendid program was rendered, consisting of music, readings, declamations and stunts.

All went home in the evening feeling happy and thankful that they had once more been permitted to meet together under such pleasant conditions.

Miss Elapha Cummings entertained the Beta Gamma girls at her home last night, with a Covered Dish supper. Christmas decorations were used on the table which was circled by all of the members of this jolly club. The evening was passed with games and music.

Mrs. Tom Humphreys was hostess to the S. S. S. club on Wednesday afternoon at her home. Enjoying the pleasant time with sewing and conversation were the club members and the additional guests Mrs. Westfall and Mrs. Clarence F. Loomis of Corvallis. Dainty refreshments completed the afternoon.

A jolly affair was the surprise party for which Miss Alvira Townsend was the motif. A crowd of friends gathered together on Wednesday evening and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Townsend, where the party was given. Games, music and a gay social time were enjoyed until delicious refreshments were served. Those present included the Misses Irene Hector, Clara Molyer, Nettie Martin, Elizabeth Penland, Alonise Ramp, Elva Metcalf, Minna Swyter, Messrs. Gilmore Hector, Cleo Jenkins, William Kampf, Elmer Deeler, Mrs. Maude Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Venable, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hector, Miss Alvira Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dowd entertained at dinner on Wednesday at their home at Sunrise. The guests at this time were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Loomis, of New Hartford, Connecticut; Mr. S. W. Marsh, of Winsted, Connecticut, and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dowd.

Cooked Food Sale

The ladies of the Catholic church will have a cooked food and fancy article sale in the Baltimore block on Saturday, December 15th.

Elks Attention

All Elks who can arrange to attend the funeral of Bro. J. C. Hammel are requested to meet at the Elks' Temple Monday, Dec. 10 at 12:30. Autos will be provided for all. Those intending to go please phone Secretary Parker before 10 o'clock Monday and those having autos will please notify him also. Funeral services will be held at Methodist church, Corvallis, 2 p. m. By order, E. R.

Recital Tomorrow

The second recital for the Albany musical festival will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. All singers are urged to be present.

Weather Report

Yesterday's temperature ranged from 30 to 53 degrees. River fell to 3.6. Rainfall .01.

AT THE CHURCHES

Christian Church—All services at regular hours. The 12 who made the confession last Sunday will be baptized at the evening service.

United Presbyterian—W. P. White, pastor. The morning subject will be: "The Secret of Blessedness." The evening subject will be "Guilt." The evening sermon for some months will be devoted to an exposition of Romans. C. E. 6:30. Bible school 11:45.

Baptist Church—You are always welcome here. Our Sunday school at 10, morning worship 11; B. Y. P. U. 6:30. People's evening service 7:30. The pastor will speak in the evening on "The Nature and Appearance of Spirits." Don't miss this. Special music.

Grace Church—A. M. Williams, minister. Sunday school for all the children of the neighborhood and parish, and classes for all ages, 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11. Sermonette to children on "The Mistletoe and the Oak." Sermon on "The Church's Part in the World-Crisis," first of a series on "The World is Crucible." Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Evening evangelistic service at 7:30; sermon on "Sinners—Saved."

First Presbyterian Church—Morning worship at 10:30. Evening a popular service, at 7:30. Everyone should plan to get to the services as nearly on time as possible, and thus avoid interruptions and prolonging the service. Cooperation is the word here, as indeed all along the line. Bible school meets at 12 noon, and lasts one hour. A half hour's Bible study is better than Sunday dinner. Plan for both, taking the best first. Mr. Pershing will speak in the morning on "Live Coals from the Reformation Altar," and in the evening on "Provincial Christs and the Real Christ." Chorus choir and popular music in the evening. Service lasts just one hour. Next Sunday morning, Dec. 16th, the Presbytery of Willamette will install the new pastor, Rev. O. B. Pershing, at the regular hour of morning worship. Dr. A. J. Montgomery of Portland will preach, Dr. W. H. Lee of Albany and Dr. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis will deliver the charges to pastor and people respectively. Communion and reception of new members December 23.

Methodist Episcopal—Third and Ellsworth. George H. Bennett, pastor. Sermon 10:30, "Has God Failed?" Evening 7:30, "Watch Your Step." Special music both services. Sunday school 11:45. J. G. Minton, superintendent. Promotion of Cradle Roll in primary department. Epworth League 6:30. "Warship and Submarine."

Christian Science—Corner Fourth and Ferry streets. Sunday services 11 a. m. Subject of lesson sermon, "God the Only Cause and Creator." Sunday school at 9:45 and 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8. Reading room open Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 2 to 4:30 p. m. All are welcome.

Evangelical Church—First and Pine streets. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m. Subject, "Life Work Recruits." At 7:30 p. m. the Women's Missionary society will hold their annual Thankoffering meeting, and a very interesting program has been arranged for the evening. All are welcome. C. I. Schuster, pastor.

Hammel Funeral Sunday—The funeral of the late J. C. Hammel will be held at Corvallis Sunday. Frank Barrett Still Here—The report that Frank Barrett, of the Oregon Power Co., went to enlist in the army is not true. Mr. Barrett states that he went to Eugene on business Thursday, and that he has not enlisted although he did investigate the ordnance course at the University of Oregon.

Armory to Be Opened—The armory will be opened Monday night for the purpose of permitting the home guards to drill.

OUR GOODS are never marked up in preparation for a marked-down sale. They are always as low as good merchandise can be produced and the price remains the same until sold. There are stores that spend their time between sales marking up so they can have a special sale the next week. Get the habit—go to The Golden Rule where you know just what the price will be every day in the year. NO JUGGLING.

CITY NEWS

Early Copy Asked

Owing to the heavy advertising of the holidays, the Democrat asks its advertisers to bring their copy in the day before publication, to enable the printers to get it up in the best shape.

Complaint Is Filed

A complaint was filed today in the circuit court by the Stayton State bank against H. N. Huntley, to recover $274.50 on a note given March 1, 1916. Attorneys' fees to the amount of $40 are asked.

County People Call

The following people from over the county were in the city today: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meapelt, Thomas, Miss Lela Goms, Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Majors, Miss Nora Holt, Mrs. Elmer Whetstone, Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gourley, the Misses Bessie and Lena Bond, Frank Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Penland, all Habers.

Leo Cohen Moves

Leo Cohen opened the doors of his first street store this morning and it is one of the finest cigar stores in the Western part of the state. He has moved from Lyon street to the Wyatt building and installed new fixtures throughout. Among other attractions is the largest billiard table between Portland and San Francisco. It is of an English make and is said to be one of the finest in the entire state.

Idaho Man Locates

R. E. Williams and wife of Bull, Idaho, have secured a lease on the L. Edholm farm, located three and one-half miles southwest of Albany, and will make this section of the state their future home. They expect to buy a farm next year.

Hears From Nephew

Robert A. Green, representing the Blake-McFall paper company, has just received a letter from his nephew who has been serving in the American ambulance corps in France. He was wounded once and later decorated for bravery by the French government. He is now in New York.

Tangent Meeting Monday—W. R. Scott, personal representative of W. H. Panhamus, will speak in Tangent on Monday evening in stead of Saturday as stated in the Democrat. Mr. Scott has also scheduled a meeting for Thursday night in the Oakville school house.

On Way to Corvallis—Senator Van Der Helten, of Southern Oregon, stopped in Albany this morning on his way to Corvallis to attend a meeting of the board of regents at O. A. C.
