Died

Mrs. Jennie Carey died at her home on Kiger Island early Sunday morning, December 16th. She had been in poor health for some time. She was born in Bloomfield, Ia., in 1840, came to Oregon in '52 and 1886 was united in marriage to Chas. Carey. She joined the M. E. church at an early age and attained a most marked Christian character. She is survived by her husband, Chas. Carey, and one son, Al Carey of Kiger Island, and a daughter, Mrs. Della Hutchins, of Washington; also ten grandchildren. The funeral was held from the home of S. P. Williamson Monday afternoon. Rev. G. G. Wilson took charge and the body was laid to rest in Oak-villet Cemetery.
