NEW YEARS 1918

O! fearful day of all the ages,
A New Year born mid battle strife;
A tragedy faint-seen by sages
Though shadowed in God's Book of Life.

A world at war with scarce a nation
Free to act as it would choose;
Men in high or lowly station,
Yield to Fate of Win or Lose.

O, God of Battles! Thou the master
Canst bring peace to troubled earth;
Grant that wrong may perish faster;
Right for all be given birth;

Then haughty thrones shall totter,
fall;
Kings full of rage shall be subdued;
And peace like dove-flights on us call,
Earth like to Heaven shall be renewed.

SHEDD NEWS

SHEDD, Jan. 1.—(Special to the Democrat)—Mr. C. W. Matison went to Portland Thursday noon, returning home this evening on the S. P. train.

Thursday was another hog shipping day. Chas. Pugh and John Davis shipped another carload of hogs.

The following people were Albany visitors Saturday: J. W. Gill, Ed. Zimmerman, Will Newman, Mrs. Mary Porter, Mrs. Ed Lytle and son and daughter, C. C. Arnold.

Alvin Croft left for Corvallis Saturday. He has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Robb Arnold, since Monday noon. He works near Corvallis.

The Shedd U. P. church and Sunday school gave a Christmas dinner on Thursday noon. It was a fine dinner and everybody enjoyed a good time.

The M. E. church had its Christmas exercises Monday evening. They had a good program, which consisted of drills, songs and pieces. All was very good.

Alvin Brock left Thursday noon for Oak Ridge, where he will visit his sister, Jessie Brock, who has a home near there.

W. J. Sprenger who has been sick in bed for nearly three weeks is improving now. He is still in bed, though.

Thomas R. Sprenger of Shedd spent Christmas with Miss Reah Cook near Grants Pass. On his return home he thought that he would surprise his friends by bringing with him a bride. But his friends were looking for something of the kind to happen and so were ready with a charivari crowd to greet them with cowbells and tin cans, after they returned home to T. R. Sprenger's, where they will make their home. The crowd was ready, and about 11 p. m. began performances. After which, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sprenger invited them in and treated them to nuts and cake. Everybody enjoyed the evening and gave the "newlyweds" a hearty welcome in their neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brock returned home from their Christmas visit at Marion with Mrs. Brock's folks.

Frank Duncan of Lebanon motored to Shedd and spent Friday night and Saturday with his father and mother, John and Mary Duncan.

Rufus Casselman of Marion is visiting at the home of S. P. Brock.

TANGENT HAPPENINGS

TANGENT, Jan. 1.—(Special to the Democrat)—Pierce Jenks has gone to the O. A. C. to take a special course in wireless telegraphy, as he is expecting to be called to go with the boys to France.

J. E. Jenks having sold his large farm, will move with his family to the farm recently purchased from Mrs. Shrader, in West Tangent.

M. F. Wood and family, of Corvallis, passed through Tangent on Saturday to his farm four miles south; they spent the night with relatives near there.

J. E. Jenks Jr. has discontinued his trips to the country for the delivery of groceries with his Ford truck, for the winter.

Uncle Davy Shearer has been compelled to purchase another horse for use in the delivery of mail on Route Two, as the faithful old blind horse gave out on him.

The directors of the Tangent school have been compelled to employ another teacher, as the increased attendance was more than the four teachers could conveniently handle.

Among the improvements in Tangent the past year are a neat dwelling by L. F. Smith, the large concrete building by R. C. Bailey, the I. O. O. F. hall, a fine residence by J. U. Ross, and a barber shop and meat market by J. M. Bennett. All of those buildings were erected on the main street, running from the county road east to the boundary of the city.

Farmers in the surrounding country are well pleased with the remarkable growth of their fall crops, the fields being covered with a carpet of green and especially the late sowing is looking extra well.

The extremely wet weather has put a stop to all kinds of farm work, and the streams are overflowing their banks.

The roads are quite muddy but the autos still go, regardless of the unpleasant conditions of the thoroughfares.

Stock seems to be doing quite well as most farmers have to depend almost entirely on feeding; this makes it expensive as feeds of all kinds is high and not overly plentiful.

Many farmers have decreased the size of their dairy herds on account of the high cost of living and feeding.

STANFIELD OPENS HIS SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN

STANFIELD, Jan. 2.—That he will be his own campaign manager and have neither headquarters nor assistants but will depend upon the press of the state and personal visits to reach the voters, was the announcement of R. N. Stanfield today in assuming the active work of his campaign for the nomination for United States Senator on the republican ticket.

In his statement today he said he was more than satisfied with the outlook and was confident that with the effort which he intends to devote to the work during the next three months he would be able to secure the nomination. His first work will be a trip through the Willamette Valley and then Southern Oregon and then back to Portland. He will attend the Irrigation Congress in Portland January 20.

STOP! THROWING AWAY YOUR WORN TIRES

It is a needless and extravagant waste to throw away your treadworn and rutworn tires after getting only 3,000 to 5,000 miles of service out of them.

Like many other motorists you may have discarded hundreds of dollars worth of tires, but within the past year, tire experts have found a way to put an end to this enormous waste, and you are entitled to your share of the benefits.

Engineers of world-wide reputation and over a hundred thousand practical hard-headed "show me" American motorists have put their approval on

GATES HALF-SOLE TIRES

From an efficiency and money-saving standpoint Gates Half-Sole Tires represent to the motorist—the man who pays the tire bills—the most important development in tires since pneumatics were invented.

Get 5,000 Miles More

The tires on your car that are beginning to show wear after only 3,000 to 5,000 miles can be made better than they were when new. Your tire comes into our plant, worn and scarred from service, and we deliver it back to you—the same tire—made oversize and with a brand-new, non-skid tread of fresh rubber. Not a square inch of your old tire will be in sight, and you will not be able to tell it from a new tire.

Every Gates Half-Sole Tire carries a written guarantee for Not Less than 3,500 Miles of Service Without a Puncture. You cannot get this kind of guaranteed service from any new tire without paying from two to three times the price of a Gates Half-Sole.

Don't Throw Away Another Worn Tire

Find out first about Gates Half-Sole. If you are a car owner it will not take you five minutes to see and understand for yourself a process that seems almost like magic. You will be interested. We are ready to show you and we will prove every statement we have made.
