came a war bride on Wednesday of this week, when Miss Hazel Smith was united in marriage to Robert Louis Burnett. The affair was very quiet, taking place at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the Christian church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Loyd Morgan. Miss Eva Thacker attended the bride and Mr. Roland Allan acted as best man. The bride was attired in an informal dress of gray tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett have many friends in Albany, the bride having resided near here since coming to Oregon from Michigan nine years ago, and the groom having spent most of his life here. He is a graduate of Albany high school and is at present at Fort Canby with the fifth company.

After a short trip to Portland, Mrs. Burnett will return to Albany.

Friday evening the Amoma and the Agoga Sunday school classes of the Baptist church were cordially entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Burkhardt. Games and music were the features of the evening. This party was held for the boys who are soon to leave. Edward Armstrong, who enlisted in the army, and Carl Ruesseger leaves for California at a late hour refreshments were served.

The members of the Amoma class are Ruth McDaniel, Maud McDaniel, Velma Lawrence, Alice Lawrence, Elizabeth Lawson, Candace Cole, Ruth Straw, Florence Lawson, Lena Taber, Eunice Volle, Margaret Wint, Mable Clansen, Melba Hower, Sally Smith, Esther Wilson, Ardes Dough-ton, Myrtle LaRoe, Evelyn Rikeway, Ada Ross, Bina Reeves, Virginia Tomlinson.

The members of the Agoga class are Raymond Tomlinson, Carl Ruesseger, Holt Duesell, Russell Reeves, Edward Umshrey, Edward Armstrong, Ronald Albers, Kendall Phillips, Otto Blume, Tom Gilchrist and Albert Sanders.

The invited guests were Rev. Geo. Young, Mr. Taylor, and Asa East-burn.

Prettily and cleverly carried out in every detail was the stork shower for which Mrs. Bert Davis was hostess on Thursday, complimenting Mrs. Earl Canfield. Pink crepe paper, baby storks and violets were used about the rooms in decorating. Pink net and crepe paper were effectively used on the baby carriage in which the many dainty and useful gifts were presented to the honor guest. A delicious lunch brought the afternoon to a close. Enjoying this were Mesdames Earl Canfield, Walter Gates, A. Hiestor, Charles Leonard, Charles Curry, Clinton Straney, R. L. Brotherton, Dick Rogers, Virgil Hackleman, Frank Ballan, H. D. Ebey, Denver Hackleman, W. Harvey, John Bryant, Ward Cyrus, A. Bowers, Elmer Cox and the hostess.

Miss Irene Barrett entertained a group of girl and boy friends at her home last night, after the U. S. debate. Dancing was the diversion enjoyed until the hostess served a light supper.

The Neos Numjic club held another of its jolly and interesting meetings on Friday, when Mrs. C. B. Essex presided as hostess at her home on Maple street. Potted plants and violets graced the rooms where the afternoon was passed with knitting and fancywork, and completed when a lunch was served. The members include Mesdames Roland Hackleman, Earl Boyle, Clinton Straney, John Neely, Homer Dowd, Glen Willard, Joe Warner, Ed Viereck and C. B. Essex.

On Thursday afternoon the Needle-craft club met at the home of Mrs. Bert Stevenson at Sunrise. The rooms were adorned artistically with cut flowers. Several additional guests were present to enjoy the pleasant afternoon with the club members in knitting and conversation. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. T. Telleuson entertained the S. S. S. club on Thursday afternoon at her home. Fancy work was enjoyed during the afternoon and refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant social time. Mrs. Gray of St. Louis was a complimented guest.

The girls belonging to the Sunday school class of Miss Slade of the Christian church were entertained at a merry party on Friday evening at the home of Miss Rose Dannels. About ten were present and enjoyed several hours together with games and music as the diversions. A dainty lunch completed the pleasant time.

The Ladies of the New Idea club met with the Red Cross auxiliary of East Albany Tuesday. The afternoon was passed in sewing. It has been decided by the members to devote one afternoon of each week to Red Cross work.

METRO 'LAY SHOWS

PLANTATION LIFE

Over 200 Georgia darkeys picking cotton in the fields on a plantation will be seen in "The Voice of Conscience," a Metro wonderplay, co-starring Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, which will be shown at the Rolfe Theatre on Sunday.

Edwin Carewe, director, took his company of leading players to the vicinity of Savannah, Georgia for the staging of these plantation scenes.

Did You Ever Stop and Think

WHY we undersell all competition at all times? We do not pay traveling men's commissions—we pay cash for everything we buy and sell the same way. We do not pay enormous rent—we do not deliver—we have no idle clerks. We buy for our 175 Busy Stores as one—we get big discounts for cash. Part of these savings go straight into YOUR pockets. Better stop and think, Mr. Man—you owe it to your family to get all you can of the best for your money.

With the exception of three principal characters, who were obliged to show marked dramatic ability, all the colored people shown in the scenes were secured in the immediate vicinity. The leading colored players were Pauline Dempsey, who plays Aunt Jenny, Walter Broussard (Crazy Pete), and Anthony Byrd, who plays Uncle Mose.

to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. C. W. Sears. The rooms were decorated with ferns and potted plants, and following the "ceremony," which caused a great deal of laughter, a "reception" was held, and a "wedding feast" ended the evening's festivities. Those present were Mesdames Ella Merrill, C. W. Sears, Edith Young, Pauline School, Carter, Allen, Gill, E. Thompson, H. W. Stratton, F. C. Pate, Margaretta Wynnery, Townsend, H. A. Warford, A. Bowers, and Miss Minnie Merrill.

An extremely pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stewart, 728 East Third street, when their daughter, Miss Leola V. became the bride of Cor. Ferris C. Williams, of the Fifth Company. A large number of friends and relatives assembled for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. G. H. Young. The attendants on the bride were the Misses Bernice Hall and Fay Miller. A reception followed, and a wedding lunch was served. The bride tossed her lovely bouquet, which was caught by Miss Dorothy Shank.

The bride is a popular young woman and the young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Last Thursday night Miss Agnes Dickson entertained the girls of the B. F. C. of Grace church, at the L. R. Carter home. The evening was spent in games, music and a taffy pull. A jolly time was had by all present.
