LAVISH PRODUCTION OF "CLEOPATRA" STARRING
THEDA BARA COMING TO THE ROLFE SUNDAY

Immortal stories have been written of Cleopatra, the Siren of the Nile—the queen who, aided only by her personal charm and scheming mind, conquered Caesar, "the greatest Roman of them all," and who brought Marc Antony bowing to her feet. William Fox's version of Cleopatra will present her as the best authorities of modern times have come to know her. The Fox screening of "Cleopatra," with Theda Bara in the title role, will deal with the most

HAPPY DOUG FAIRBANKS IS COMING AGAIN

Douglas Fairbanks is noted for his athletic prowess, and in "Reaching for the Moon," his latest play from the Arctcraft studios, he engages in terrific combat. In staging these fights it is necessary to secure the services of men of considerable strength to cope with the strenuous Douglas, who carries a knockout punch in either hand and wrestles dramatic periods of her life—the time when she was fighting to retain her power and her crown. The forthcoming production, which will be seen at the Rolfe next Sunday and Monday, will be a gorgeous spectacle, made magnificent by the beautiful detail of Ancient Egyptian settings, with those of the Roman Empire, the costumes being sumptuous. The costumes worn by Miss Bara as Cleopatra are to a degree startling in many instances.

like a professional. In "Reaching for the Moon" a band of Italian conspirators attempt to assassinate Fairbanks, and in the ensuing conflict the furnishings of a palace are completely wrecked. To play the role of the leader of this band "Bull" Montana, the well-known Italian wrestler, was selected, and the scene bristles with realism.

"Reaching for the Moon" will be exhibited at the Globe Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

CLEOPATRA

"THE SIREN OF THE NILE"

Far surpassing all other screen productions in its extravagant, and gorgeous settings and in its countless scenes of pictorial beauty

Heavy with the legends of antiquity, and rich with the luxuries and splendors of its unbridled revelry

A WORD FROM THE MANAGEMENT

This Picture is now the big sensation of the Eastern cities where it is playing the leading legitimate theatres at $2 prices. It's a William Fox Road Attraction under the direct management of the Fox Film Corp., and is beyond dispute the biggest and most costly production ever presented here or elsewhere
