THE IDLE GIRL IS NEEDED

Every newspaper and magazine which has a question and answer department finds its mail flooded with queries from girls who want to do something for their country. They want to be Red Cross nurses and go to France. They want to write to lonely soldier boys. They knit and they write letters to editors, and they are filled with romantic zeal.

To all these young women there is one stirring call. Enter a hospital! The army hospitals need trained nurses—hundreds and hundreds of them, both here and abroad. The hospitals and dispensaries of every city and town, the visiting nurse association of every village, need more help. It would hardly be possible for too many young women to volunteer for this service—providing the young women are well and strong and mean business.

The way to do it is to take hospital training. There is no royal road to nursing. Untrained people, male or female, in any responsible position are not only useless, but sources of danger. The road to nursing in France lies through the nearest hospital's hardest toil. But that is where the need is now. It is the great chance for the young women of the country to show their patriotism and the stuff that's in them.

One of the things we have to be thankful for, in the midst of our war troubles, is that we didn't go to war with Mexico.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

More and more the enclosed motor car grows strong in popular favor. It's natural, especially with Ford cars, which are busy running every day of the year—winter and summer the Ford serves faithfully and profitably. So for a real, genuine family car there is nothing equal to the Ford Sedan at $695 f. o. b. Detroit. Seats five. Large doors, plate glass sliding windows, silk curtains, deeply upholstered seats, latest type ventilating windshield—a car of refined luxury with the everlastingly reliable Ford chassis.
