

GERMANS SIGN A NEW PEACE PACT

Vienna Announces That Both Roumania and Ukraina Sign Peace With Germany.

ROUMANIA IS OFFERED SLICE OF RUSSIA

Unknown With Which Ukraina Delegations the Germans Have Made Terms.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—Vienna announces that both Roumania and Ukraina have signed a peace with Germany.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—It is officially announced that Germany has the Ukraina peace pact signed this morning. It does not state with which of the two Ukraina peace delegations it was signed.

Ukraina was formerly a part of Russia, embracing part of old Poland.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—It is learned that Germany has offered to Roumania a slice of Russia as part of a settlement the Central Powers are anxious to effect in the Balkans.

Krupp newspapers say the Roumanians can get the southwest corner of Bessarabia by renouncing all claims to westward extensions. Such an arrangement would give the Roumanians complete control of the Danube's mouth.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The British embassy at Petrograd sent telegrams yesterday. This is taken to relate the Stockholm rumor that the Bolsheviks had expelled the allied diplomats.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 9.—Emperor Karl refused to accept Premier Von Seydewitz's resignation.

Weather Report—

Yesterday's temperature ranged from 34 to 56 degrees. The river fell to 153 feet.

NEW CLASSIFIED

ICE CREAM—Vanilla, French, Salada and Orange. Tonight and tomorrow. Kanton's Cash Store. 69

FOR SALE—1 team 2400 lbs., 1 pony and saddle; 1 set heavy harness; 1 214-inch Studebaker wagon; 1 farm wagon, 1 hack, 2 plays, 1 disk, 1 horse riding cultivator, 1 pegtooth harrow; 20 sacks oat and 50 sacks potatoes, beans and corn. Will jump this off at a bargain. W. H. Montgomery, Dever Ore. 612

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Four acre clover hay, loose. Call Victor Ekstrand, R. F. W. 3, Bell phone 9F11, 912

PAPER MILL presents good future for men. William Stille declared on in Crown Willamette Paper company mill at Camas, Washington. The town is free from disturbances and violence, all departments of mill in operation. The company is desirous of welcoming new families into the community. Work is steady, wages good. Camas is a town of 2500 people, 25 miles up the Columbia from Portland, a 1918 town with modern advantages. A place for good employment and a suitable home. See H. B. McAfee, a mill employe, for full particulars. Learn what opportunities there are. Albany address, 325 W. First street. Hours daily, 10 to 12. 9154 w

MAGIC RHEUMATIC CURE—If you are suffering, try this wonderful remedy and be convinced of its merit. For sale at corner 6th and Lyon street. 912

TO EXCHANGE—One second-hand car in good condition, for property. Call Home phone 2219. 912

HAY FOR SALE—Fine clover hay. Call Bell 481 party R. 912

WILL ORGANIZE WOMEN FOR WAR SERVICE

American Women Will Work Behind Lines if Plan Now Considered is Adopted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—Sec. Baker appointed six women and three men to investigate the advisability of organizing a women's war service similar to Britain's women's army auxiliary corps, as part of the American army.

SANTIAM FRUIT COLONY LANDS ARE SOLD TODAY

Attorney Lotus L. Langley, district counsel for the United States reclamation service with offices at Portland, arrived in Albany today to attend the sale of the Santiam Fruit Colony property. Attorney Langley represents some of the tract holders in this case.

Among the other lawyers who are appearing in the case are Geo. W. Wright, Dan Johnston, F. H. Whitfield and J. F. Sedgwick.

CITY NEWS

Here From Enterprise—

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Baker, of Enterprise, are visiting at the home of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker. Mr. Baker was formerly with the Golden Rule store of this city, and has just returned from the J. C. Peasney convention at Salt Lake City, accompanying F. E. Livingston, manager of the local Peasney store, to this city. Mrs. Baker has been in the city the past week.

Like Albany—

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Weymouth returned to Portland this morning after a few days' stay in Albany, while here stopping at the Albany. This was Mr. and Mrs. Weymouth's first visit in Albany and they were very favorably impressed with the city.

Married in San Francisco—

In last Wednesday's Democrat it was stated that Mr. and Mrs. Ora Baker were married in Roseburg on Jan. 31st. The Democrat is informed that the wedding took place in San Francisco. It is also stated that the Democrat was wrongly informed as to the ages of Mr. and Mrs. Baker.

On Business Trip—

Dr. H. A. Leininger went to Portland this morning on business.

Go to Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conick left this morning for Portland, where they will spend the week-end.

Here From Peoria—

James W. Johnson of Peoria spent the day in Albany visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Johnson, and attending to business matters.

Come Back to Linn—

O. L. Foster and family, who reside in Linn county 25 years ago, have concluded that this is the best part of the world in which to make a permanent home and have rented a farm four miles west of Albany. They expect to buy a place next year.

Went to Portland—

Geo. Cline was a passenger to Portland this morning.

Thomas Man Here—

J. G. Holt of Thomas is attending to business matters in Albany today.

Here From Fayetteville—

Mrs. R. M. Miller and Miss Edith Burns of Fayetteville were in Albany this morning on their way to Tanager to spend the week-end.

Weather Delays Work—

Work on the Far West Manufacturing building has been delayed on account of the inclement weather; but the management expects to be able to open up for business in the new building by March 1st. A portion of the new machinery has already arrived and the balance is en route to Albany.

Here From O.A.C.—

Clarence Wiles of O. A. C. came over this morning to spend the week-end with his parents.

WILSON CONFERS WITH CONGRESSMEN

Asking For Support For Bill to Give Him Power to Handle War Situation.

GOVERNMENT WILL STANDARDIZE R. R. EQUIPMENT

Labor and Time Saving Improvements Made By Direction of Federal Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—It is officially stated that President Wilson is to confer with congressional leaders of both parties next week in an effort to get their support for speedy action on the measure sweeping away the war government.

He says he does not contemplate using the powers but wants them if it is ever necessary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The railroad administration is preparing the standardization of all equipment and material for space saving, and time saving, through uniformity.

Speakers Will Tell About W. S. Stamps

The campaign for the sale of war stamps will be carried on tonight and Sunday in the two theatres of the city. Judge L. L. Swain will explain the stamps to the audience at the Globe tonight, and W. A. Eastburn will give a talk at the Rolfe. Sunday evening J. J. Collins will orate at the Globe and C. H. Burgegraf at the Rolfe. Four minute talks will be made in each case, explaining the war savings or thrift stamps.

Fire Alarm Turned in Early This Morning

A fire alarm was turned in shortly before 2 o'clock this morning and the department made a quick run to the Frank Snyder blacksmith shop and extinguished the blaze in short order.

The fire caught from a motor, the switch falling out and making a connection.

The woodwork was lightly burned but the main damage was to the motor.

Burglar Attempts to Enter Local Drug Store

An attempt was made early yesterday morning to enter Burkhardt & Lee's drug store but the quick action of Night Clerk Wire prevented the burglary. Wire saw the man attempting to pick the lock on the Perry street entrance. He phoned to Night Officer Rodgers, who arrived on the scene and chased the rascal down the alley back of the St. Francis and up Washington street.

Visiting Son and Daughter—

J. R. Hulbert went to Portland this morning to spend the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Park Stalnaker, and also visit his son Lee, who is at Vancouver. Mrs. Hulbert has been in Portland several days.

Guardian Appointed—

Mrs. Eleanor Barr has been appointed guardian of the estate of Robert William Barr, minor. The property is valued at $1,000.

WM. S. HART IN PLAY OF KENTUCKY FEUDISTS

In "The Apostle of Vengeance," Triangle feature which will be seen at the Globe theatre Sunday, William S. Hart is seen in a story of the Cumberland mountains. "The Apostle of Vengeance," a drama from the pen of Monte M. Katterjohn, is a tale of Kentucky mountain feudists and has been handled with the realism characteristic of Triangle productions.

CHURCH NOTICES

Christian Church—

D. Lloyd Morgan, pastor. Bible school, 7 to 9 a. m.; J. D. Seavey, supt. Morning service, 11 a. m. Subject of sermon, "The Rock in a Weary Land." Mr. Morgan will preach at Dever at 3:30 p. m. Young people's meeting, 6:30 p. m. All young people invited. Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon, "Promise vs. Power." We invite you to attend.

United Presbyterian—

W. P. White, pastor. At 10:30 a. m. the subject will be "Will Israel Return to Palestine?" The subject for 7:30 will be "Hath God Cast Off His People Israel?" The reason that we discuss Israel in both services is because we desire to present the whole subject in a way that will make the Bible very plain. The key to the proper understanding of the Bible is a correct understanding of God's program for the Jew. The reason so many teachers "darken counsel with words without knowledge," is because they have not learned to distinguish the church from Israel the nation.

Grace Church—

Cradle roll day in the Sunday school with a rich program by the primary department. Parents are invited, 11 a. m. public worship. Children's devotional ten minutes on "A Day With Filipino Boys." Sermon on "The Church and the Keys." All the people are asked to attend the revival services at the Evangelical church at 7:30 p. m. A. M. Williams, minister.

Methodist Episcopal—

Third and Ellsworth. George H. Bennett, pastor. Morning sermon 10:30—"Business and Religion." The Hammer Male Quartet will sing: "The Lord Is in His Holy Temple." Sunday school 11:45. Epworth league 6:30. "Log Cabin to White House" will be the theme of the Lincoln anniversary at 7:30. The high schools and patriotic organizations have had special invitations. Choice musical numbers will be on the program. "The Blue and the Gray" will be the moving picture feature of this patriotic service.

St. Mary's Church—

Rev. Arthur Lane, rector. Rev. John Rubin, assistant. Sunday services at 8 and 10:30 a. m. The pastor will officiate and preach from the gospel of the day, Lu. Luke, 18, the subject being "The Blind Man of Jericho." Sunday school at 11:45 a. m. Afternoon service at 4 o'clock. Services on Ash Wednesday, February 13th, which marks the opening of Lent, will be held at 9 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

Evangelical Church—

Corner first and pine streets. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning sermon at 11 a. m. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. to be the beginning of the revival services to be continued through the week. Services each evening at 7:30 p. m. All the welcome. C. L. Schuster, pastor.

First Presbyterian—

Orlando B. Pershing, pastor. At the hour for morning worship, which is always 10:30, the pastor will preach on "Christ's Definition of a Christian." This will be based on the parabolic illustration in the 15th chapter of John. At the Vesper service from 5 to 6 the subject of the discourse will be "The Sword of Peace." Next Sunday afternoon we will dedicate our service flag and honor roll with appropriate music and addresses. Sunday school at 12 m., and C. E. at 6, immediately after Vesper service. Devotional Bible study Thursdays at 7:30 p. m. Our aim is always to make Christ and the gospel the most attractive thing in the world. We invite cooperation and fellowship.

Christian Science—

Sunday school 11 a. m. Subject of lesson sermon, "Spirit." Sunday school is held in church parlor at 9:45 and 11. Wednesday evening meeting at 8. The reading room is open in the church parlor from 2 to 4:30 p. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The public is cordially invited.

Baptist Church—

The public is most welcome to the worship of this church. The services are spiritual and inspiring. Bible school 10. Edward Taylor, supt. Morning worship 11—"The Knowledge of God." B. Y. P. U. 6:30.

SENSATION SPRUNG BY CONGRESSMAN

Rep. Nelson of Wisconsin Charges Political Conspiracy By Leaders in Home State.

SAYS HE NEVER TRIED TO EVADE DRAFT LAW

Indictment Was Brought Under Direction of His Political Enemies Is Charge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—Representative Nelson of Wisconsin on the house floor made a sensational charge that he and his son are victims of a political prosecution resulting in their indictment for an anti-draft conspiracy. He said that unfriendly political leaders on the indicting jury denied that his son sought to dodge the draft. The cases were quashed at the arraignment. He asserted that this did not give him an opportunity to prove his innocence.

Nelson said he is presenting the facts to the house for its judgment, and charged that politicians had influenced officials to make political capital against him.

DRAFT EXAMINATIONS TO START AGAIN WEDNESDAY

Examinations for the draft will commence again next Wednesday at 1 o'clock in the courthouse when 50 men will be called in, followed by 50 men each day until they are completed.

The examinations hereafter will give a more minute detail of the men's qualifications, and will not be so strict from a physical standpoint.

Goes to Seattle—

Mrs. D. Mitchell left this morning for Seattle to visit relatives. She was accompanied as far as Portland by her mother, Mrs. R. B. Miller, who will visit there.

Went to Salem—

F. K. Churchill went to Salem this morning to join his wife and spend the week-end.

Register for Service—

Men may register at the office of J. M. Hawkins at Second and Broadway, as well as at Gilbert Bros. for service in the United States public service reserve.

Buya Oregon Grill—

Mrs. Nell Riley Scott has purchased the Oregon Grill from T. I. Terrill, who leaves tonight for Astoria where he is conducting a restaurant. Mrs. Scott will remodel the place and conduct the business in first-class fashion. Later she will change the name.

To Enter O. A. C.—

Miss Corintha Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hart, will leave Monday for Corvallis where she will enter Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Hart's two brothers, Scott and Edgar, both attended college there. Miss Hart has been society editor of the Democrat the past few months, doing creditable work in that line. She is a graduate of Albany high school.

Returned to Grants Pass—

Mrs. Herman Schmitt returned to her home in Grants Pass today after visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kinsey.

Mrs. Roscoe Thomas and daughter, of Jefferson, were in the city today on a shopping trip.

Marriage License Issued—

A license to wed was issued Friday morning to Lloyd F. Hadley, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hadley of this city, and to Miss Esther Gilbert, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Gilbert, also of Albany. Miss Gilbert is a stenographer in the office of Attorney C. C. Bryant.

Evening sermon 7:30. Theme—"The Model Wife and Mother." Don't miss this. G. H. Young, pastor.

DEATH LIST ON TUSCANIA IS NOW 145

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—Another day's waiting left little hope that America's losses will be under 145 American soldiers, as full lists of survivors must be cabled here, and it will probably be a week before the death list is issued.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The survivors of the Tuscania include Joseph C. Knott of Monroe, Wash., and Fred W. Loken, Seattle, and Rollo Mulford, of Chehalis.

George H. Kopp Died at Sister's Home

George H. Kopp, aged 45, died this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Ewers, at 624 Montgomery street. Another sister, Mrs. Geo. Fallers of Brownsville, was also at his bedside. No other relatives reside here.

Mr. Kopp had been ill but about two weeks. Mrs. Ewers went to his home at Dutch Flats, Cal., when he was first taken ill, and upon his improving he was brought to Albany to recover from his illness. He has been a miner all his life. The remains will be shipped there for burial Tuesday.

CITY NEWS

Clarence Elkins in France—

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Elkins have received a letter from their son, Clarence, announcing his safe arrival in France. He is with Company L, of Dallas, U. S. Infantry, and has charge of the telephone apparatus of his company. He reports a fine trip and saw no submarines. He states that he is well and enjoying his experiences so far.

To Spend Week-End—

Miss Maude E. Miller went to Portland this morning to spend the week-end.

Socks for Soldiers—

A. S. Hart and Fred Ward of the Toggery, this morning mailed to about a dozen Albany boys in France packages containing half a dozen white wool socks and a package of cigarettes. That the useful gifts will be appreciated upon their arrival goes without saying. "The boys are fighting for us over there," they said, "and the least we can do is to spend a little money and send them a few things that will make them more comfortable."

To Attend Auto Show—

H. C. Witham went to Portland this morning to attend the auto show.

Attend Inter-Frat Dance—

Miss Lee Fortmiller and Miss Corintha Hart returned home this morning from Corvallis where they attended an Inter-Frat dance last night.

Spent Day Here—

Miss Jennie Vineyard of Verdure station spent the day in Albany.

On Business Trip—

J. L. White went to Portland last night on business.

On Way to 'Frisco—

Robert Smith of Gates was in Albany a few hours last night on his way to San Francisco to visit his sister, Miss Edith French.

Came Down From Mill City—

Mrs. R. G. Woodruff of Mill City came down this morning for a few days' visit, with Mrs. J. N. Bishop of Richville, Idaho, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burnett.

Not Fractured—

The many friends of W. G. Ballack, who fell at the armory Thursday night, will be glad to know that his hip is not fractured as was at first feared. He only received a severe bruise and will be able to be out again in a short time.

Fox Here—

Louie Fox, of the Union depot, Portland, came up last night for a week-end visit.

To Attend Auto Show—

W. C. Burns and daughter Nellie went to Portland this afternoon to attend the auto show.

Freak Arrested—

Officers J. Q. Rodgers and Charles Brown this morning arrested a man at the home of Jeff Isom who had been giving some trouble to the neighbors of that section. He is evidently a tramps. He is of freakish appearance, dwarfish and anything but handsome to look upon.

AMERICAN TROOPS FIGHTING IN WEST

Two U. S. Soldiers Wounded and Six Deaths From Natural Causes Reported Today.

GERMANY CLAIMS CAPTURE OF SIX AMERICANS

Americans Hold Sector Adopted For Training Purposes; French Advance Line.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—More fighting is reported which resulted in the wounding of two Americans. General Pershing reports six deaths from natural causes, which include Private Herbert Oleman, of Marshfield, Oregon.

PARIS, Feb. 9.—The correspondent for the Natin says the American sector northwest of Toul is particularly favorable for war training, successive contingents being trained in repulsing small attacks as lessons for the big campaigns.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Arabs opposing the Turks in Arabia are continuing their northward advance. They captured El Mazraa, a Turkish Dead Sea port.

PARIS, Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—The French penetrated enemy lines northwest of Dioncourt, capturing several prisoners. Patrols in the Chemin-des-Dames and Champagne are also taking prisoners.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—It is announced that six Americans were captured North of Xravy.

THE DA BARA IN BIGGEST ROLE OF HER CAREER

William Fox's screen production of "Cleopatra," in which Theda Bara assumes the role of the Egyptian temptress, is declared to be the most elaborate presentation of a film scenic drama that has ever been attempted. The expense involved in making the picture was tremendous, it being announced that the production cost $500,000. Those who have seen the picture of "Cleopatra," declare it can easily be comprehended that so much money was paid out. For the interior of Cleopatra's tent alone more than $30,000 worth of decorations were used to give the barbaric appearance of splendor accredited to time of the great Cleopatra.

Never before in the history of photodramatic production has there ever been displayed such a lavish and costly display of decorations as are shown in this magnificent scene. "Cleopatra" will be the attraction at the Rolfe next Sunday and Monday beginning with a Sunday matinee. Only two shows daily will be given, starting at 2:30 p. m. and 8:15 p. m. as the picture runs two and a half hours.

Here From Fort Canby—

Roy Weaver, of 5th company, arrived yesterday from Fort Canby on a four-day furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Weaver. Wallace Harrison, also of 5th company, accompanied him as far as Albany and went on to Halsey to visit his parents. They state the boys are all fine.

To Visit Here—

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cronise of Salem will arrive in the city this evening to spend the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Cronise.

Visiting Pfeiffers—

Mrs. Minnie Pfeiffer of Council Bluffs, Iowa, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Chas. Pfeiffer.

To Visit Sister—

Mrs. Bess Westbrook went to Salem this morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Ward, for a couple of days.