MARY PICKFORD IN KATE DOUGLAS WIGGINS PLAY

One of the most pretentious film offerings ever presented at the Globe theatre will make its initial appearance there tonight when Mary Pickford is seen in her newest Arctcraft picture, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

"Little Mary" with her effervescent youth, her genuine comedy and her wonderful knowledge of dramatic technique, is the ideal person to immortalize the little girl of the New England village, who though dominated by two crabbed old aunts, does not permit it to crush her spirits.

The 14th episode of "Who Is Number One?" will also be shown.

Patriotism calls on the stadiest, the best artisans in America to volunteer; it calls on their fellow citizens to value the service in the shipyards as it deserves and to honor the shipbuilders as they honor the men in the trenches.

In connection with this drive, Oregon has again led the nation, the first application for enrollment having been received by the U. S. Shipping Board at Washington, being that of a Linn county man, Leslie H. Towne of Halsey.

Oregon's quota is 3204, but State Director Franklin T. Griffith is confident that before the drive is over the enrollment will show a total close to 20,000.

JUNE CAPRICE
 DIRECTION
 WILLIAM FOX

The "Sunshine Maid," June Caprice, is with us again. In a stirring William Fox photoplay, called "Miss U. S. A.," she will appear at the Rolfe theatre tonight for a two days' run.

The "Sunshine Maid" will not be all sunshine and smiles in this new screen drama. She has determined, active work to do to serve her country in a drama that takes place in Virginia soon after the United States declared war on Germany. She hunts out spies and is twice face to face with death while doing this work.

Her name is Capitola. Her father died before her birth and her mother soon after. Her father was Eugene Lenoir, wealthy and one of the most prominent families in Virginia. Her mother too was of a well known family. At their deaths Gabriel Lenoir, brother of Eugene, forces the nurse, Nancy Wilson, to swear she will take the newly born baby away and kill it. He does this to get his brother's fortune. The nurse, however, gives the infant into the hands of a family living in a tenement in New York. When the story opens the nurse has just returned to Virginia and has confessed to Major Warfield, Capitola's uncle. He brings Capitola, now 16 years old, back as his ward, Miss Black. Then comes the war, and camps and spies.

It turns out that Gabriel Lenoir is the arch spy. He is arrested and denounced and the fortune returns to Capitola.

The first Henry Lehrman comedy, "Roaring Lions and Wedding Bells," will also be shown.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Notice to Dog Owners.
 Who do these sheep-killing dogs belong to? Everybody says "My dog won't kill sheep." Yet, sheep are being killed every day by somebody's dog. Do you realize an ewe and a lamb are worth around $30? And do you know you are responsible for the sheep your dogs kill?
