THE MAN OF THE HOUR

You might imagine him a military personage. But he isn't anything of the sort. He's the same horny-handed, sunburnt son of toil who used to be designated, in the good old times, as a "Rube" or a "hayseed." But it's ungracious to recall, those dead departed days. No rude epithets now for the farmer! The world knows to him. Thus we have the Ohio war board issuing a proclamation in acknowledgement of the rural laborer's new dignity and importance, as follows:

"The American farmer is the man of the hour."

The announcement proceeds:

"This war may be won on the American farm—in the American pig pen. Bigger crops and more pork is the call of the government to the farmers. Now is the time for them to get together and mobilize their forces for the attack."

Winning the war "in the pig pen" may not be a particularly glorious conception, but the present "man of the hour" will get the idea, and feel no grudge against a well-meaning war board. For the pig is "the animal of the hour," and every pig pen, like every farmhouse, is expected to do its duty.

Same old trouble in Germany! The people had a revolt nicely started, when the Kaiser told them to stop it—and of course they stop it.

Take care of the Thrift stamps and the War Savings stamps will take care of themselves by paying you four percent interest for the next five years.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
