SONIA MARKOVA, NEW STAR AT ROLFE TODAY

A new star of the screen firmament is coming to the Rolfe Theatre tonight for a two days' run. William Fox is presenting her in his latest photodrama, "The Painted Madonna." She is Sonia Markova, a Russian girl who arrived in the United States recently from the country that is seething with the results of revolution. This girl brings to the screen not only a new face, but also a sweet one and one showing the dramatic talent she possesses. She is called "the girl with the big black eyes," and after you see her you will know the reason.

Her vehicle, "The Painted Madonna," gives her ample opportunity to run the entire gamut of emotions. It has to do with an artist's search for the beautiful girl who fled from him after drawing on his canvas a daddy longlegs. Both suffer human misery.

H. O. Pinkstaff, Robert Arnold, A. D. Elder were business visitors last Saturday at Corvallis.

Mrs. Ben Shirley is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Perdy have a big pair of twin boys, born last week.

A handkerchief shower was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Barton in honor of Mrs. G. W. Hawthorne and family. The Hawthorne family expects to leave Shedd about the first week of March and go to South Dakota, where they will move on to a farm. Mr. Hawthorne is now carrying mail near Mill City. The family will be missed in this neighborhood.

Thrift begins its little savings. Two bits will buy a Thrift Stamp. Sixteen of them make a War Savings stamp. Twenty War Savings stamps make $100 before you know it.

Save the food and help the fighter fight.
