MISFITS

By F. P. Nutting

Yesterday morning I received a telephone call from Leland Gilbert, whom I have known since boyhood, telling me that he would leave at 10 o'clock for somewhere in I hurried to the train and had a visit with him before he passed thru the gate. I said goodbye, and a big lump filled my throat. May he return safe and sound from his long and dangerous trip.

I was in the Millionaire Club's cafeteria the other noon, and had reached the drink section, when the person in charge of it asked: "Will you have a glass of milk, Mr. N—?" It was Carter Lee, former Albany boy, once a crack shortstop in baseball life.

I met Mrs. Hazel Saylor Van Eyth in front of the Seward this week. She is now a farmers wife near Salem and is enjoying life in the country, which evidently agrees with her, for she weighs 20 pounds more than when in Albany: a fine looking woman, whose husband appreciates her worth.

In the lobby of the Imperial this noon I met William and James Blakely, two of the five sons of the late Jas. Blakely, of Brownsville, who died at the age of about 101. William Blakely was elected sheriff of Umatilla county in 1898. He appointed three deputies, Til Taylor, Jas. Blakely and Mr. Funk. It is a remarkable fact that all three are in the office yet. Mr. Taylor being sheriff, a fact that speaks for Mr. Blakely's judgment in making appointments. The other two brothers are George, of The Dalles, and Henry, of Brownsville.

Every day on my way to and from the custom house, I pass a big sign that reads: "For All Occasions." That T hurts my eyes, and some day I am going to sling at S at it.

Only a few blocks down street from our apartments reside Frank and Winifred Campbell, sons of an old time Albany carpenter, brothers of Mrs. Maggie Uhl. A banner in the window, with a star in the middle, speaks for the fact that a son of Frank is in the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Curry have moved into a cottage on Cottage Place, near Mississippi Ave., and Mrs. Curry's brother, Hugh Perfect, and family, reside on Alberta street, where they have bought a home. A few days ago I happened to be in a streetcar with E. M. Perfect, father of Mrs. Curry and Hugh, while here on his way to Eastern Oregon to look after his farm.

Portland is practically never without a drive, and the people report nobly to everything that has any bearing on securing victory for the allies, defeat of the most brutal army in the history of the world, and peace only when that is accomplished.

Special communication of St. John's Lodge No. 17, A. F. & A. M., this Friday evening, March 1st, at 7:30 P. M. Work in the M. M. Degree. Visiting brothers welcome. W. M.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC The Albany steel bridge will be closed to traffic from 8 to 12 a. m. and from 1 to 5 p. m. commencing on March 3rd and until further notice. By order of the Linn County County Court. mlft
