INDEPENDENCE FOR OLD AGE

Insurance statistics show that less than five per cent of men over 70 years of age are either self-supporting or independent.

Miserliness is not the solution of the problem, but intelligent spending would have saved every penniless old age since the world began.

Consider the Thrift Stamp. It is a beaconlight whose little green beams point the way by which the possessor of the small and irregular income may reach the safe harbor of an independent future.

The community soup kitchen may not be so bad as it sounds. Mr. Hoover is an expert dietitian himself, and is probably too wise to attempt a thing like that without putting it into expert hands.

KNOX BUTTE NEWS NOTES

KNOX BUTTE, March 8.—(Special to the Democrat)—Ettta Powell spent the week-end at Corvallis with her sister, Lola Powell, who is attending O. A. C.

J. P. Gill of Grangeville, Idaho, visited this week with Mrs. Mose Miller and relatives. Mr. Gill is formerly from Indiana and an acquaintance of Mrs. Miller 40 years ago.

George Brickner, who has been very low for some time with Bright's disease, is better.

A. Briston of Eugene will conduct the services at Central Christian church again Sunday, March 10.

N. Berkrem of Florence is the guest this week of his daughter, Mrs. Alva Rogers.

In mentioning Knox Butte young men who are now in active service for the U. S., are Chester and Van Houston—both in the Coast Artillery at Fort Canby.

The farmers were doing considerable plowing last week, and many found the soil in fine condition; but the last few days the weather hasn't been so favorable.

Harold Townes is a former resident here and son-in-law of Mrs. Marie Miller. He has been ill with pneumonia.
